PROPERTY OF PRINCETON THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY

MINUTES,

ETC.

The General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America met, agreeably to appointment, in the Central Presbyterian Church, in the city of Baltimore, Maryland, on Thursday, the 15th day of May, A.D. 1873, at 11 o'clock A.M., and was opened with a sermon by the Rev. Samuel J. Niccolls, D.D., the Moderator of the last Assembly, on Luke 17 : 5 : "And the apostles said unto the Lord, Increase our faith."

After the sermon, the Assembly was constituted with prayer.

The Committee of Arrangements reported the following recommendations, which were adopted :

1. That the Rules of Business of the last Assembly be adopted by this Assembly.
2. That the Assembly do now proceed, at once, to complete its organization, and to elect its officers ; after which, adjourning to meet for the celebration of the Lord's Supper, at 8 o'clock P.M.
3. That hereafter the Assembly hold a morning session, each day, from 9 o'clock A.M. till 2½ o'clock P.M., appropriating the last half hour to Devotional Exercises; and an evening session from 8 o'clock to 10 o'clock P.M. each day, with the exception of Friday and Saturday of the present week, and Thursday and Saturday of the week following.
4. That the several Committees hold their first meeting at 4½ P.M. on the day of their appointment, in the places assigned to them, to meet thereafter on their own adjournment.
5. That the entire ground-floor of the church, save the block of pews next to the wall on both sides, be reserved for the use of the Assembly; and that to this reserved portion of the church none be admitted but Commissioners, Delegates, and Officers of the Assembly ; Committees to report at this meeting ; parties and counsel in judicial cases ; Members and Officers of Boards and Permanent Committees ; Directors and Professors of Theological Seminaries ; Foreign Missionaries ; the Committee of Arrangements, and Reporters. And that the galleries, and wall pews, be reserved for spectators.
6. That all stamping, clapping of hands, or other noisy demonstrations, either of approbation or disapprobation, be forbidden, as inconsistent alike with the character of this body, and its place of meeting.
7. That the following Orders of the Day be fixed for receiving the Reports of the Standing Committees ; the consideration of the same to be limited to the times herein specified :

Saturday at 12 M., Board of Publication, till 2 P.M.
Monday at 8 P.M., Board of Education, till 10 P.M.

Tuesday at 8 P.M., Board of Home Missions, till 10 P.M.

The Records of the Synods, the Narratives of the State of Religion, Overtures and Memorials, the Answers to Overtures and the Statistical Reports from the Presbyteries were presented, and appropriately referred.

The Moderator appointed the Rev. John G. Atterbury, D.D., and the Rev. George S. Chambers, a Committee to arrange and classify the Answers to the Overtures of the last Assembly.

The Annual Reports were called for, and presented by the Boards of Home Missions, Foreign Missions, Education, Publication, and Church Erection, by the Committees on the Relief Fund, Freedmen, Sustentation, and Benevolence and Finance, by the Trustees of the Presbyterian House, and by the Treasurer of the General Assembly.

The Report of the Standing Committee on Benevolence was made the order of the day for Monday, from 12 M. to 2 P.M.

Reports from the Theological Seminaries were called for, and presented.

The Committee on Manses presented their Report, which was read, and referred to the Standing Committee on Church Erection.

The Report of the Committee on Vacant Churches and Unemployed Ministers, referred from the last Assembly, was read, and referred to the Committee on the Polity of the Church.

The Report of the Committee on the Centennial Anniversary of the Independence of the United States, appointed by the last Assembly, was presented, and made the first order of the day for Monday next.

The Committee appointed by the last General Assembly (Minutes, Vol. II. pp. 53, 84) to prepare, for publication in the New Digest, an abstract of the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States in the case of the Walnut Street Church of Louisville, Ky., and also to publish in our denominational papers a statement of so much of said decision as refers to the relative powers and duties of sessions and trustees, reported as follows:

That, after consultation with Rev. William E. Moore, the compiler of the New Digest, and ascertaining that there would be space for the publication of the opinion of the Court in full, they concluded that in view of the great importance of the decision, it would be better to publish it entire, with the official syllabus of the Court Reporter which will give, in itself, a good abstract of the points decided. Mr. Moore will accordingly, should this report be adopted, publish in the Digest, the opinion in full, as above stated.

The statement with regard to the relative power and duties of Sessions and Trustees was prepared and sent to our denominational papers for publication, as directed.

The report was adopted.

The Committee on the New Digest reported its completion by the compiler, and its approval by the Committee; also, that it would speedily be published.

The Committee appointed by the last Assembly on Contributions to Voluntary Societies reported progress, and were continued, to report to the next Assembly.

The Committee appointed by the last Assembly on a Cheap Paper for Gratuitous Distribution presented their Report, which was read, and put on the Docket.

The Committee on Elections reported, recommending the enrollment of the following persons, viz.:

Elder Josiah Moore, Presbytery of Bloomington.
Rev. William S. Knight, Presbytery of Schuyler.
Rev. Daniel A. Tawney, Presbytery of Dayton.
Elder Edmund Brown, Presbytery of Chemung.
Elder L. P. Coman, Presbytery of Zanesville.

And they were enrolled accordingly.

The Committee on Representation in the General Assembly, continued from the last Assembly, presented their Report, which was read and adopted, and is as follows:

The Committee of fifteen, appointed by the General Assembly of 1871, "to report to the next General Assembly a Plan for reducing the number of Commissioners to the Assembly," complied with their instructions.

Their Report was presented to the Assembly of 1872, "when, after extended discussion, the whole subject was referred to the same committee to consider and report to the next General Assembly."

In accordance with this action, the Committee have carefully reviewed the subject. The discussion of their Report to the Assembly of 1872 revealed the difficulties by which the whole matter is embarrassed. The Plan presented by the Committee was manifestly unacceptable to the majority of the Assembly, and no plan presented during the debate was received with general favor. Indeed, it was apparent that the sentiment of the Church, as represented in the Assembly of 1872, was opposed to any change in the Constitution in this particular. Subsequent inquiry on the part of the Committee has convinced them that, for the present, any renewed discussion of the subject would be fruitless. Their judgment is, that, whilst the plan of representation now in use is in some respects unequal, it is inexpedient to amend it, until the necessity of a reduction of the number of Commissioners shall become so urgent, that the Church will require what it does not seem now to wish.

They therefore respectfully recommend, that any further action upon the subject be indefinitely postponed, and ask to be discharged.

They trust also that, in view of this recommendation, they shall be pardoned for not complying with the letter of their instructions, to "publish this Report in the principal religious papers of the denomination, at least two months before the meeting of the Assembly of 1873." Having no new Plan, and no modification of their former Plan to offer, they supposed such a publication would be wholly unnecessary; the object of the instructions being to afford time for the general consideration of any scheme on which the Assembly might be called to act.

The place of meeting of the next Assembly was referred to a Committee consisting of the Rev. Robert R. Booth, D.D., the Rev. Henry L. Hitchcock, D.D., and Hon. Horace Maynard; to receive nominations, and report to the Assembly

A motion to repeal all directions of the Assembly to Presbyteries was presented and referred to the Committee on Bills and Overtures.

The Committee of Arrangements reported a list of supplies for the pulpits of the city and vicinity next Sabbath.

They further reported, recommending a recess of 15 minutes at noon, and the report was adopted.

Took a recess.

After the recess,

The Committee of Conference with the United Presbyterian Church reported progress, and was continued, to report to the next Assembly.

A paper on Manses was presented and referred to the Standing Committee on Church Erection.

The subject of Annual Concerts of Prayer was taken from the docket, and referred to a Special Committee, consisting of the Rev. Arthur T. Pierson, Rev. T. Madison Dawson, and Elder George C. Zinck.

A paper from the Philadelphia Sabbath Association was presented, and referred to the Special Committee on the Sabbath.

Reports on Synodical Records were made the first order of the day for Thursday next.

The Rev. Alexander J. Baird, D.D., the Delegate from the General Assembly of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, was introduced, and having addressed the Assembly, was responded to by the Moderator.

The Report of the Committee on a Cheap Paper was taken from the docket, and its consideration made the order of the day for next Monday, at 11 o'clock A.M.

A recess was taken.

After the recess,

The Committee on Correspondence recommended the appointment of a Committee to confer with any similar Committee, if appointed by the General Assembly of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, on the organic union of the two bodies. The recommendation was adopted, and the Rev. Henry A. Nelson, D.D., Rev. Charles A. Dickey, D.D., Rev. Joseph T. Smith, D.D., and Elders George S. Drake and Jacob S. Farrand, were appointed said Committee.

The Standing Committee on Publication presented their Report, which was accepted, when the Assembly was addressed by the Rev. William E. Schenck, D.D., one of the Secretaries of the Board of Publication, and others, after which the Report was adopted as follows:

The Standing Committee, to whom was referred the "Thirty-fifth Annual Report of the Board of Publication," offer, for the consideration of the Assembly, the following Report:

The Report of the Board contains gratifying evidences of progress. Among the notable events of the past year, and one which cannot fail to exert a happy influence, not only upon the growth and usefulness of this branch of our church work, but upon all our varied interests, is the completion and occupancy of the new and elegant Presbyterian Publication House. At a cost of about $150,000, more than two thirds of which has been met, a most substantial and commodious edifice has been erected and thoroughly furnished, for all those growing operations of the denomination which centre in the city of Philadelphia.

The work of the past year has been largely that of preparation for an augmented efficiency in the future. New plans have been perfected and new foundations laid. The attention and labors of the Board have been given, wisely and effectively, to arrangements for greatly increased usefulness. Actual business in the ordinary channels has been somewhat retarded, yet valuable new publications have been added to the catalogue; the contributions to the Missionary Fund have been larger than usual; the Colportage and Sabbath-school work has increased; and the prospects for future success have never been brighter.

The moneys received during the year from all sources, including a balance from the prior year of $23,997.85, have been $306,946.28. This is slightly less than was reported at the Assembly of 1872, but that Report covered the receipts of thirteen months. The total expenditures during the year have been $297,425.97. Of this amount $71,562.71 were disbursed for the new building, leaving a regular current business expenditure of $225,863.26. The balance in the Treasury at the close of the year was $9520.31. The sales of books and periodicals for the year amounted to $157,576.78. The amount received for the Missionary Fund, from all sources, was $55,892.16. The amount expended was $55,868.86, showing a balance of receipts over expenditures of $23.30.

The schedule of Church Contributions, adopted by the General Assembly last year, estimated the wants of this department of work at $85,000. This was not more than the urgent demands of the case, and much more than that amount might have been effectively applied in the ever-widening field of colportage and missionary effort. The Board has had in commission, during the whole or parts of the year, 158 colporteurs, who have labored in 41 of the States and Territories and in Canada. Of the laborers 136 report having sold 69,483 volumes. They and the Missionary Committee have given away 54,069 volumes and 3,971,106 pages of tracts, making 123,552 volumes of sound religious literature distributed by these agencies. These Agents of the Board report the visitation of 149,389 families.

The Missionary Committee made 597 grants to the value of $10,495. The publications have not only been sent over our vastly extended territory, but across the seas, to Syria, Persia, India, Siam, Western Africa, Mexico, and Brazil. Pastors have been supplied for gratuitous distribution; mission churches in our frontier States have received their share; freedmen's churches and Sabbath-schools have been helped; needy ministers, missionaries, home and foreign, charitable institutions, and other objects have participated in the gratuitous distributions of the Board. The earnest and hardy toilers of the Church, the world over, have been welcomed by the Board, and their applications have met as full and as hearty a response as the Board was able to make.

We most heartily commend this work of the Board, and urge upon the churches the great importance of giving it a liberal support. We also recommend to the Assembly to again enjoin upon the Presbyteries, the appointment of a Standing Committee on Publication if not already done, and to exercise special care in the commendation of persons for the work of Colportage to the Board.

During the past year, the Board has published of new works 221,160 copies; of reprints of former publications, 686,160 copies, making a total of 909,160. Of the Sabbath-School Visitor, 2,229,000 copies were issued; of the Monthly Record, 155,000; of the Presbyterian at Work, 50,598; Annual Report of the Board, 5500.

We desire to call special attention to the rapidly extending interests of the Sabbath-school branch of the Board's work. No questions are more vital to the permanent growth and power of the Church, than those which immediately concern our children and youth. We cannot be too zealous and careful in guarding their interests. This Christian age demands, Christ the King of all the Ages, the Head of the Church, the Covenant Redeemer of the children of the Church, demands of us a deepened and holy interest in them.

The Assembly of 1871 wisely directed the appointment of a general Superintendent of the Board's Sabbath-school work. Mr. J. Bennet Tyler has now for more than a year had charge of the work, and has everywhere commended himself to the churches, and awakened a new sympathy in the plans of the Assembly. In carrying out these plans for the general and thorough religious culture, of not only the children of the Church, but of all, who could be gathered within the sphere of our Church influences, our Church has never been so completely equipped as at the present time with all the means and appliances of work among the young. To some of these we call a brief attention.

The Sabbath-School Visitor, a popular and very attractive paper for the young, whose circulation should be manifold greater. In addition to the best books of all other publishing houses of libraries for Sabbath-schools, the Board is continually issuing a choice and carefully selected list of publications, and keeping in its capacious Book-rooms every thing that Sabbath-school workers need for their thorough furnishing, in the form of maps, minute and record books, illustrative cards, blackboards, etc. The new paper issued by the Board, The Presbyterian at Work, has met a deserved and hearty welcome, and won a secure success. It seems to have exactly met the wants and wishes of the Church, and in the proposed enlargement of it for the last six months of the year, and embodying the studies of the lessons prepared by some of our leading expositors, it must prove a yet more acceptable and efficient help to the teachers of our youth.

In concluding this Report, we suggest that the Assembly press upon the churches the duty of giving an earnest support to the Board, in their efforts to disseminate as widely as possible a sound religious literature, founded upon the word of God, as interpreted by our standards; the duty of believing prayer for the success of the truth through these channels; a continued coöperation in sustaining most liberally the colportage and missionary work of the Board, and also, that, in these days of an easy and a nerveless theology, our Synods, Presbyteries, Pastors, Elders, Superintendents, workers, and friends of the Sunday-school, be urged to give increased and serious attention, prayer, and effort to the work of thoroughly indoctrinating our youth with Bible truth, by expositions of the series of lessons from the pulpit, by keeping the Sunday-school close to the praying heart of the Church, by shutting out of our Sabbath-school Libraries, and out of our homes, much of our modern professedly moral and religious literature, and introducing the publications that have been approved by our wisest and best men, and upon which we may invoke the blessing and power of the Spirit of God. We trust, also, that the Assembly, in view of the opening fields of usefulness before this Board, and for the sake of the broadest dissemination of our Calvinistic forms of the truth, will renew its recommendation to the churches to contribute, to its missionary fund, a sum at least equal to that embraced in the Schedule of 1872 :—$85,000.

The committee recommend the re-election of the following in place of those members of the Board, whose term of office now expires:

Ministers.	Laymen.
William P. Breed, D.D.,	Morris Patterson,
William E. Schenck, D.D.,	Winthrop Sargent,
David A. Cunningham,	Archibald McIntyre,
John L. Withrow, D.D.,	George Junkin,
Zephaniah M. Humphrey, D.D.,	Samuel C. Perkins,
J. Henry Sharpe,	William E. Tenbrook,
Thomas J. Shepherd, D.D.,	Robert N. Willson,
Herrick Johnson, D.D.	Strickland Kneass.

Also, Mr. W. J. M. McElroy in the place of Mr. William T. Snodgrass, who resigns on account of ill-health.

It was, also,

Resolved, That hereafter the Board of Publication, with all other Boards which have been derelict, be required, in presenting their Annual Report to the Assembly, to annex therewith a detailed statement of the expenditures of the Board.

After the usual season of devotional exercises, the Assembly adjourned until Monday, at 9 o'clock A.M.

MONDAY, May 19th, 9 o'clock A.M

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer.

The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

The following Commissioners appeared and were duly enrolled, viz. :

Elder Mack G. Johnston, of the Presbytery of Fairfield.
Elder Howard Kennedy, of the Presbytery of Omaha.
Rev. Charles O. Reynolds, of the Presbytery of East-Florida.
Rev. R. Hamill Nassau, M.D., of the Presbytery of Corisco.
Elder J. E. Montgomery, of the Presbytery of Mattoon.
Elder William Stiles, of the Presbytery of Austin.
Elder Willard Abbott, of the Presbytery of Kingston.

The order of the day, viz., the Report of the Centennial Committee, appointed by the last Assembly, was taken from the docket, and having been amended, was adopted as follows:

On the 28th of May, 1872, the General Assembly adopted the following papers:

Whereas, The Presbyterian Church, wherever it has been established, has been the firm and devoted friend of civil and religious liberty; and in our land has supported the principles upon which our free institutions have been so happily established and maintained; and

Whereas, Measures have already been taken, and others are in progress and in contemplation, to celebrate at Philadelphia, Pa., the CENTENNIAL ANNIVERSARY of the Independence of the United States; and

Whereas, It may be expedient and appropriate, that the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America should take some part in celebrating that great national epoch:—therefore,

Resolved, That a Committee of thirteen be appointed to take this subject into consideration, and make a report thereon to the next General Assembly, for its consideration, and for such action thereon as may then be deemed proper.

Whereupon a Committee was appointed, consisting of the following named gentlemen: James Ross Snowden, Walter H. Lowrie, George Junkin, George W. Musgrave, Alexander Sproull, Henry A. Boardman, William P. Breed, J. Addison Henry, William E. Schenk, George Hale, Alfred Nevin, Stephen W. Dana, and William E. Porter.

The Committee have had several meetings for deliberation on the subject assigned them, and have instructed their Chairman to make the following Report:

The measures now in progress, especially those in charge of "The National Exposition of 1876," will, we doubt not, make the Centennial of American Independence an event of profound interest to the people of the United States and to all nations. It will not only show the material progress our country has made in one hundred years since its birth as a nation, but it will be a fitting occasion to bring into prominent notice the principles of civil and religious liberty so happily established by our forefathers. And herein to make honorable mention of the patriotism and public services, in colonial and revolutionary times, of that numerous and influential class of men who had adopted the Presbyterian form of government.

And, further, to show the influence which the principles involved in the term "Presbytery" have had in establishing our admirable form of a free and representative Government; the Presbytery, the Synod, and the General Assembly, being the prototype of the county, the Commonwealth, and the Union.

And in this connection, also, to present the important and interesting point, that Presbytery in the United States never had, or desired to have, any sort of union or connection with the civil power. All that it ever asked, or now asks of the State, was and is, protection in that form of worship and Church government which it believed, and now believes, to be sanctioned by the sacred Scriptures, and practised by the primitive Christians.

The Centennial Celebration and Exposition will also afford an occasion, to show the progress which the various branches of the Church, governed by the principles of Presbytery, have made in our country.

The subject of education and the literature of the Church would also afford suitable themes for discussion and narration. And, if the opportunity is afforded by those who have that matter in charge, an exposition can also be made of the books issued by our Board of Publication, and of other works produced by Presbyterian authors.

The Committee present these brief remarks as preliminary to the following recommendations:

I. That it is appropriate and expedient that the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America shall improve the occasion of the celebration of the Centennial of American Independence, and of the holding of the International Exposition of 1876, which is to meet in the city of Philadelphia, under the sanction of the Congress of the United States, to set forth the history, principles, and polity of the Church, and to make grateful record of the manifold goodness of God to us as a people.

II. That several persons be designated to prepare historical discourses, to be delivered at such time as may hereafter be appointed. And the Committee suggests the following schedule of periods and subjects for said historical discourses:

1. A historical discourse upon the period from the founding of our Church in this country to the commencement of the war of the Revolution.

2. From the commencement of the war of the Revolution to the adoption of the "Presbyterian Form of Government" (1786).

3. From the adoption of the Presbyterian Form of Government to the present time.

4. Present condition, prospects, beneficent work, needs, and obligations of the Church.

5. Education under Presbyterian influences from the first settlement of the country to the present time.

6. Historical sketches of the several Boards, and other agencies established by the General Assembly.

III. That the Assembly respectfully request the appropriate Committee of the United States Centennial Commission, who have in charge the erection of buildings for "The International Exhibition of 1876," to set apart as much space as may be convenient, for the purpose of an exposition of the books published by the Presbyterian Board of Publication, and of other works of (American) Presbyterian authors; and for the exhibition of ancient books, MSS., relics, and other objects of interest pertaining to Presbyterianism.

IV. That the arrangement and business relative to the books of the Board, and the procurance of books from authors and publishers, and other objects of interest, be committed to said Board.

V. That the first Sabbath in July, 1876, be designated as a Day of Praise and Thanksgiving to God for the manifold blessings with which he has crowned us as a people.

And it is recommended that, on that day, the pastor of each church under the jurisdiction of this General Assembly, deliver a discourse on the history of his church.

And it is further recommended that, on the day above appointed, a collection be taken up in each of our churches, for the purpose of the erection of a suitable fire-proof building for the Presbyterian Historical Society and for an endowment fund for said Society; it being understood that the General Assembly, all our Presbyteries, and Synods, and Theological Seminaries, shall be allowed to deposit therein for safe keeping such records, books, and papers as they may designate.

The historical discourses, herein directed to be delivered, shall be transmitted to the said Presbyterian Historical Society, for arrangement, and for such further disposition of them as the General Assembly, or the Committee appointed to have charge of the subject, may direct. And it is further recommended, that the moneys collected for the erection of a fire-proof building, herein provided for, and for an endowment fund for said Historical Society, shall be transmitted to the proper officer or officers of said Society, or to such person or persons as the General Assembly may designate, or authorize the appropriate Committee to appoint.

VI. The week commencing the second Sabbath in July, 1876, is designated as the time, when appropriate exercises will be had, in the city of Philadelphia, in commemoration of the first century of our national existence; and our Presbyterian brethren in the United States, and in foreign lands, are cordially and affectionately invited to participate in these exercises.

VII. It is further recommended, that the General Assembly invite the other branches of the Presbyterian Church in the United States, to coöperate with us in this work in so far, and in such manner, as they may deem expedient.

The Committee of the last Assembly was continued, and a Committee of five appointed to confer with them regarding the designation of persons to deliver the discourses referred to in the Report. The Committee consists of the Rev. Drs. Howard Crosby, Herrick Johnson, and Ebenezer Erskine, and Elders T. Charlton Henry and Robert Carter.

The order of the day for 11 o'clock, viz., the Report of the Committee on a Cheap Paper, was taken from the docket.

Pending its consideration, the hour for recess arrived.

After the recess,

The Standing Committee on Benevolence and Finance presented their report, which was accepted. Mr. Winthrop S. Gilman, the Secretary of the Committee, and others, addressed the Assembly.

Pending its consideration, the Rev. Samuel B. Bell, D.D., gave notice of a motion to reconsider the action of the Assembly adopting the Centennial Report.

After the devotional exercises, the Assembly adjourned until 8 o'clock P.M.

MONDAY, May 19th, 8 o'clock P.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer.

Elder Jesse W. Canfield, of the Presbytery of Hudson, appeared and was enrolled as a Commissioner.

The Standing Committee on Education presented their Report, which was accepted.

The Assembly was then addressed by the Rev. William Speer, D.D., the Secretary of the Board of Education, and others.

After which the Report was adopted as follows :—

The Committee on Education report, that they have given the subject that prayerful attention, which their limited time would allow. The Books and Accounts have been examined and are recommended for approval.

The long-settled policy of an educated ministry, for the Presbyterian Church, is not likely ever to be changed, whatever strictures or criticisms may be made upon the mode, for the attainment of that object.

The only question, therefore, respects the best method of bringing forward and properly qualifying young men, in sufficient numbers, to meet the demand both of the home and foreign field.

While many young men, by their own pecuniary resources and that of their immediate friends, will find their way into the ministry, the greater proportion must ever be dependent, not upon the charities, but upon that sense of mingled love and justice, which shall provide for their support.

To stimulate the Church in this direction, wisely to collect and disburse her contributions, to suitable young men, recommended by the Presbyteries, and to exercise over them a reasonable supervision, while pursuing their studies, are some of the objects for which the Board of Education was called into existence, and has now been successfully worked for over half a century.

The past year has been one of mingled light and shade. Though the pressure for money has been deeply felt, and even now awakens almost startling solicitude, as to how the Board shall meet its obligations and prosecute its work with success, still, the year, on the whole, has been a prosperous one.

The number of young men, aided by the Board during the year past, in the several stages of study are as follows:—Theological Students, 237 ; Collegiate Students, 305 ; Academic Students, 134; Total numbers aided since last Report, 676. Of the above there were new recommendations, 113 ; Annual renewals of former recommendations, 563.

The number who have completed their studies at the Theological Seminaries are as follows: At Princeton, 24; Western, Allegheny, 11 : Union, New-York, 15; North-western, Chicago, 4 ; Auburn, 10; German Theological School, Dubuque, 2 ; San Francisco, 1. Total reported to the Board, 67. There are others who have not been reported ; and some have finished their course without aid during this year who have been helped previously.

There have been dropped by the Board from its roll during the year on account of deficiencies or violation of rules, 11; sickness, 2; death, 3; other provisions for support, 9. Total, 25.

Our Welsh Calvinistic brethren have this year recommended 6 Students through their own Presbyteries, and have provided means to pay their appropriations, including those for the present May.

By comparison with last year's Report it will be seen, that the total number of students is 46 less. This year there are only a few more than half of what there was last year of new recommendations. This sudden and great falling off of new candidates is attributable in part to the false impression, that the supply of ministers is already adequate, and to the doubts, in the minds of young men, as to whether they can rely on the promised aid of the Board, owing to deficiency of funds and the large debt that has already been contracted.

The receipts of the Board for the past year have been $104,459. This is a gain over 1871–2 of $23,446—an increase of twenty-nine per cent. In addition to the above, the Board has been under the necessity of borrowing $30,000, making the total resources for the year $134,459.

Total payments during the year, $131,698 ; leaving a balance in the Treasury of $2760. There was due the students for the fiscal year ending April 1st, $7590, to meet which there is in the treasury $2760 ; still necessary to meet balances due to students, $4830. Adding to this the sum due in bank, the total debts are $34,830. If we add still further the appropriations due in May, (about $27,000,) it swells the entire debt to $62,000.

Your Committee feel that there is a sacred obligation resting upon the General Assembly to meet the May appropriations. As the increased rates was the independent action of the General Assembly, and against the better judgment of the Board, as it now appears ; and as this action raised expectations in the young men, and induced them to contract debts, which not only every sense of manly honor, but also their personal example and influence for the cause of Christ, forbids them to repudiate, it is imperative on this body to take immediate steps to redeem its own pledge. By the appointment of a lay Committee of acknowledged financial ability, to confer and coöperate with the Board of Education, this subject might be relieved of its embarrassment and the money raised.

Your Committee also recommend a return to the old rates. Under the new, the theological and collegiate students have received only the same amount ($150 and $120 respectively) which they did under the old rates. The academical students have received $90, which is a reduction of $10. It is better for all concerned, to promise less, and strictly fulfill the engagement, than for the General Assembly to promise more than can be realized. It is recommended also, in this connection, that hereafter no appropriations be made to students in the preparatory department of their classical course.

In the prosecution of an enterprise, like that of providing an Educated Ministry for the great Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, it would not be strange if some mistakes had been made ; that some students, deficient in natural capacity for usefulness had been aided ; that some morally unworthy had been carried through both the college and the seminary ; that some, though worthy and capable, should have turned aside from the ministry to secular pursuits ; in all these instances, it is admitted, mistakes may have been committed. Imperfection pertains to all human institutions. Are there no failures at West-Point ? And is that a sufficient reason for withholding the Government patronage from the institution ? Even with all their close examination and rigid discipline, unworthy men are aided ; those, without natural capacity to make skillful soldiers, are carried through, and many turn aside from the profession for which they were intended, to ordinary business pursuits. No, no ; the Board of Education is chargeable with no inherent defects that should displace it, revolutionize it, or destroy our confidence in it. God has blessed it in raising up hundreds and thousands of the best and most useful men in the Church. And it will be a sorry day for the Church when it shall be wounded in the house of its friends. Improvement in its working may, and should, be sought. Whatever imperfections exist, or whatever manifest evils prevent ministers, elders, the private members of our churches, and the public generally, from sympathizing with it and sustaining it with their prayers, and contributions, should be taken out of the way. But let us not expect impossibilities. To remove some of the imperfections or liabilities to evils just alluded to, and more that might be mentioned ; at the suggestion of the Board, and after having received many alterations at the hands of your Committee, we recommend the following

CHANGES IN THE RULES OF THE BOARD OF EDUCATION RELATING TO CANDIDATES FOR THE MINISTRY.

Part I. : Section 1. Omit words, "from its Constitution."

Part I. : Section 3. Alter so as to read as follows : "As a general rule, the Board will receive any young man of whose examination and recommendation in conformity with its requirements proper notification has been given, but it may exercise discretionary power to refuse to receive new Candidates beyond its ability to support them."

Part II. : Sections 2 and 3. To be made to constitute Section 2 under this part, and to read as follows: "The Presbytery, in examining students with a view to their recommendation for aid, must embrace such points as are indicated by the following questions, to which definite answers, by the direction of the Assembly, will invariably be required by the Board : What is the Candidate's name ? age ? residence ? Is the Presbytery satisfied as to his experimental piety ? as to his motives for seeking the ministry ? as to his talents ? as to his health ? as to his promise of practical efficiency ? Is he free from expensive or injurious habits ? What is the lowest amount of pecuniary aid required to supplement his really necessary expenses till the end of the present Collegiate year ? Of what congregation is he a member ? How long has he been in the communion of the Church ? What is his stage of study ? Where engaged at present ? Give the name of a responsible person (usually a member of the Faculty of the Institution, or his pastor) through whom the appropriations can be sent."

Part II. : Introduce Section 3. To read as follows: "No Candidate shall be received by the Board, who has not been a member of the Presbyterian Church, or some closely related body, for at least one year; who has not been recommended to the Presbytery by the session of the church of which he is a member; and who is not sufficiently advanced in study to enter College, except in extraordinary cases.

Part III. : Section 1. Alter so as to read : "The annual appropriations to Candidates shall not, in ordinary circumstances, exceed $150 to Theological, or $120 to Collegiate students, and not more than $100 to extraordinary cases in the Preparatory course."

Part III. : Section 2. Alter so as to read: "These appropriations shall only be paid to a student on the reception of particular and satisfactory reports from his Professors, embracing the following points: Do you know of any thing in him inconsistent with a high Christian character? What is his standing as to scholarship; high, medium, or low? (Add if possible his grade.) Is he free from expensive and injurious habits? Are you so satisfied with his promise of future usefulness that you can consistently recommend him for aid?"

Part III.: Introduce, to be numbered Section 3, the following, "The Board may increase or diminish, in a general ratio, the appropriations in case of unusual surplus or deficiency of funds."

Part III.: Section 6. Insert, after "cease regularly," the words, "at the close of the collegiate year, or earlier."

Part IV.: Section 1. Add at the close, "and no work of preaching is to be allowed to interfere with the diligent and faithful prosecution of their prescribed studies until their close."

Part IV.: Section 4. Insert after the word "renewed" and before "made," "by his Presbytery, in connection with one from the session of the church of which he is a member, and a specification must be——"

Part IV.: Section 8. Read for "The publications of the Board," "The periodical publications of this Board." After "students" insert "under its care."

It is reasonably hoped, that the adoption of these changes, in the Rules of the Board, will prevent the education of young men for the ministry who are either morally unfit, or without the natural capacities to be useful in it. It is better to diminish the number, and insist upon the quality of our young men, rather than take the risk of failures, after it is too late to correct mistakes. The point to be guarded is the initial step, the examination and recommendation of the Candidate for aid. By throwing responsibility upon the Sessions of the churches, as well as upon the Presbyteries, it is thought additional security will be gained. The attention of Sessions and Presbyteries is particularly called to this subject. No young man should have the benefit of a doubt in his favor, as to his usefulness in the ministry. His gifts of nature and of grace should be so marked as to give decided promise of success.

The outlook of the future, if full of hope, is also filled with urgency, to bring forward and prepare young men to preach the Gospel. Indeed, the urgency is already upon us. Some, perhaps, think there is a sufficiency of ministers. It requires but a superficial survey of the field, to correct so egregious and fatal an error. The new States and Territories of our country are rapidly filling up with population; railroads are stretching in every direction. Along their lines, villages, towns, and cities are springing into existence, each calling for one or more ministers of our faith and church polity. Roman Catholic countries, almost without exception, are accessible to the preaching of Protestant Christianity. The marvelous and rapid changes in Japan, China, and other heathen lands, increase the call for the multiplication of preachers of the Gospel at our hands.

The special agency for meeting this increasing demand is our Board of Education. It has been tried. It has acquired and is acquiring experience. It has done a work for the Church, which no other instrumentality has accomplished, or can.

Your Committee recommend to the General Assembly, for adoption, the following Resolutions:

1. That the Board of Education is worthy of the continued confidence, increased contributions, and most fervent prayers of the churches.

2. That the changes in its Rules, for the more efficient working in detail of its machinery, be adopted.

3. That the Church is morally bound to meet the indebtedness to all its Candidates for the quarter ending May 1st, 1873.

4. That, inasmuch as the Board, in carrying out the direction of the Assembly, to continue the advanced rates, has incurred a debt of $27,000, which, notwithstanding its faithful exertions, seems to be too heavy for it to sustain without again most seriously embarrassing it for another year, now, as a measure of relief, a Special Committee be appointed by the Assembly, to consist of seven laymen, who shall, in coöperation with the Board, devise, and put in execution, some plan, to obtain, without interfering with the regular collections for this Cause, the sum mentioned, previous to the first of November, at which time the amount collected shall be distributed according to their claims, or pro rata, among the students who have been reported as deserving of it.

The following were elected Members of the Board, to serve for three years:—Ministers: Villeroy D. Reed, D.D., Elias R. Beadle, D.D.; Laymen: Charles E. Morris, James F. Gayley, M.D. John L. Withrow, D.D., to fill a vacancy for one year.

The Assembly adjourned until to morrow at 9 o'clock A.M.
Concluded with prayer.

TUESDAY, May 20th, 9 o'clock A.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer.

The minutes of the last two sessions were read and approved.

The Committee to nominate a place of meeting reported, recommending the First Presbyterian Church of Saint Louis, Missouri, as the place for the meeting of the next Assembly. The report was unanimously adopted.

The Pastors and Sessions of the Presbyterian Churches of Saint Louis were appointed a Committee of Arrangements, with power to add to their number.

A Complaint from the Evangelical Lutheran Synod, against an action of the Presbytery of Philadelphia was presented, and referred to the Judicial Committee.

The unfinished business of the morning session of yesterday, viz., the consideration of the Report of the Standing Committee on Benevolence and Finance, was resumed.

The Assembly resolved to hear, for ten minutes each, the Secretaries of the different Boards and Committees.

The Rev. Drs. Kendall, Lowrie, Dickson, Hale, Ellinwood, Speer, Schenck, and Jacobus, and the Rev. Mr. McClelland, were heard accordingly.

The Committee of Arrangements presented a report, inviting the Assembly to make excursions to Annapolis and Washington City. A Committee, consisting of the Rev. Robert R. Booth, D.D., the Rev. Alexander Porter, and Elder Zuinglius Grover, was appointed, to confer with the Committee of Arrangements in regard to these invitations.

The consideration of the Report of the Standing Committee on Benevolence and Finance was resumed.

Pending the discussion, a telegram was announced from the General Conference of the United Brethren in Christ, as follows:

"To the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church, assembled in Baltimore:

"The General Conference of the Church of the United Brethren in Christ, convened in Dayton, Ohio, sends you greetings, wishing you much of the presence of Christ, the peace of God, and undisturbed harmony in all your counsels.

"J. J. GLOSSBRENNER, Bishop.

"N. R. LUCE, P. HURLERS, Secretaries."

The Moderator, by instruction of the Assembly, forwarded the following response:

"To the General Conference of the Church of the United Brethren in Christ, Dayton, Ohio:

"The General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America having received the Christian greetings of the General Conference, reciprocate its kind wishes. May divine wisdom guide your counsels, and the love of God fill your hearts.

"HOWARD CROSBY, Moderator.

"BALTIMORE, May 20th."

The consideration of the Report on Benevolence and Finance was resumed.

The Committee on Excursions presented a report, recommending that on Monday, the 26th inst., the Assembly adjourn at 1 o'clock P.M., for the purpose of making an excursion to Annapolis; and that Wednesday, the 28th inst., be appropriated for an excursion to Washington City.

The report was adopted.

The Moderator announced the appointment of the Rev. Newton Barrett to fill a vacancy in the Committee on the Records of the Synod of New-Jersey.

The consideration of the Report on Benevolence and Finance was resumed, pending which, the hour for recess arrived.

After the recess,

The consideration of the Report was resumed. After amendment it was adopted, as follows:

Your Committee have given to the Report put into their hands a very careful consideration, and cannot but regard this subject of developing and systematizing the Benevolence of the Church, of which it treats, as one of vital importance to its prosperity and usefulness—as much so as any that can come before this body. Not one half of our numerous churches have been contributing to more than two of the eight objects undertaken by the Assembly, and probably not more than half of the members of the contributing churches take any part in the work. Nearly all the Boards are more or less, and some very largely, in debt. Allowance is no doubt sometimes to be made for this apparent neglect. Churches, that have really but a nominal existence, not only being small and feeble, without means to support the Gospel among themselves—some even without houses to worship in, or pastors to minister to them, cannot be expected to do much, if any thing, in giving the Gospel to others. Such churches are not of course deserving of censure. Still there are large wealthy churches that manifest little or no interest in the work of our Boards. And no one can examine the statistical tables of the General Assembly's Minutes, or the Annual Reports of the Boards, without being forced to the conclusion, that the failure of the Church to meet its full responsibility in this department is owing in a great measure to the apathy, indifference, and neglect of ministers and sessions.

There are difficulties arising out of the multiplicity of objects recommended by the Assembly, that will sooner or latter compel attention. Our Boards must be thinned out, or consolidated, in order to secure any healthy growth. So, too, suitable plans for developing the true spirit and motives and methods of contributing need to be made more generally known, and put faithfully and persistently into operation, until the habit of liberal giving is formed and delighted in.

Previous Assemblies have, therefore, as your Committee believe, acted most wisely in seeking to appropriate and utilize the functional experience and wisdom and skill developed in the affairs of the world, by appointing such a Standing Committee of Benevolence and Finance, composed of business men of acknowledged gifts and culture in the management of moneyed operations, to take the oversight of this work. And the careful examination of their principles, methods, and doings, has not only convinced your Committee that a most invaluable agency has been thus devised, but also that its duties have been discharged with the greatest assiduity, faithfulness, and efficiency; and that it promises, if encouraged and facilitated by the Assembly, to be of incalculable service in developing and systematizing the liberality of our people, and in fitting the Church to accomplish far more efficiently her mission in the world. The following resolutions are, therefore, most respectfully and earnestly recommended.

1. That the present Committee of Benevolence and Finance be continued, to promote throughout the Church, by all proper means, the regular and systematic consecration of property to the Lord; and to receive such funds for their distribution among the Boards according to the direction of the contributors, as may by preference of churches or individuals, be forwarded to said Committee.

2. That the Treasurer of the Board of Home Missions be, and hereby is, designated as the Treasurer, for the present, of this Committee.

3. That, while there are various plans for developing and exercising the grace of giving to church objects, and the General Assembly do not deem it expedient to seek to restrict donors to any one in particular, only urging each church to adopt whichever is deemed by the Session best suited to bring out the interest and liberality of its members, yet the Assembly approve the principles of Christian Benevolence enunciated in the Report (page 11), and recommend its plans as wise and useful in raising funds for the work of the Church.

4. In order to carry out this plan, the General Assembly enjoin upon every Presbytery to appoint a Standing Committee on the benevolent work of the Church, of which the Stated Clerk shall be Secretary. It shall be the duty of this Committee to use all means in its power to have brought before all the congregations in the Presbytery the plans that may be recommended for securing contributions; and to give each pastor and session information of the wants of the various objects, and what is expected of each congregation. And every Presbytery is directed to inquire of each Pastor, Stated Supply, and Elder present, at every stated meeting in the spring and fall, whether the directions and recommendations of the Assembly on this subject have been complied with; and to have the answers recorded in the minutes.

5. That these Standing Committees shall, as often as once in six months, report to the Committee on Benevolence and Finance, so far as they can, in relation to the different objects for which contributions have been made by the churches within the limits of their respective Presbyteries, with the amount contributed for each, together with such other information as to the general benevolent work of their churches and Presbyteries as shall seem necessary, or shall be called for by the Committee.

6. That all the Boards or Committees be required to close their accounts for each current year on the 31st day of March.

7. That, then, all the Boards or Committees shall make out and send at once, to the Committee of Benevolence and Finance, full representations of what has been received, during the past year, from the churches and from all other sources, for carrying on their work, stating also what additional claims they have reason to expect, in order that they may ascertain truly, and intelligently report to the General Assembly for its approval, and then to the churches, precisely what is required for each object; and also make correct estimates of what each Synod ought to be expected to contribute, in order that the work of the Church may be properly carried on.

8. That the Assembly recommend all congregations to remit, either to this Committee, or to the respective Boards, monthly, or at least quarterly, for the benefit of the whole work.

The Rev. Samuel B. Bell, D.D., according to previous notice, moved the reconsideration of the vote on the Centennial Celebration, and it was lost, less than two thirds voting in favor of reconsideration.

The unfinished business of yesterday, viz., "The Cheap Paper," was resumed.

After considerable discussion, the report was referred to a Committee consisting of the Rev. John C. Backus, D.D., Rev. Charles H. A. Bulkley, Rev. John H. Walker, Rev. Joseph Gamble, Rev. Henry L. Hitchcock, D.D., and Elders Albert Small, Robert Carter, James J. Hurd, Columbus Croul, and Redick M'Kee.

The unfinished business of Saturday, viz., The Report of the Committee on the Jacksonville church case, was taken from the docket. The Memorial from the church was read, and the Rev. Charles O. Reynolds, of the Presbytery of East-Florida, was heard on the subject. After which it was Resolved, That the Assembly admire the magnanimity, the devotion to peace and fellowship, and the deference to this body and to one of its Committees, manifested by the church at Jacksonville, Florida, in the surrender of property valued at $5000, to a church of our sister General Assembly, and that, in consideration of the need of the Jacksonville church, it has a fair claim to be reimbursed for its outlay.

That the Board of Church Erection are hereby directed to appropriate $1000 to the Jacksonville church for building purposes, and that the churches and members of the churches under our care, are earnestly requested to add to this sum until it shall reach at least $5000.

A Memorial from certain German ministers was presented and referred to the Committee on the Polity of the Church.

The name of the Rev. John P. Williamson, of the Presbytery of Dakota, was enrolled by recommendation of the Committee on Elections.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures were directed to report on the Consolidation of the Boards to-morrow at 9 o'clock A.M.

Tuesday evening, the 27th inst., at 8 o'clock, was fixed for the meeting in behalf of the Evangelical Alliance.

After the usual devotional exercises, the Assembly adjourned until 8 o'clock P.M.

TUESDAY, May 20th, 8 o'clock P.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer.

Elder Alexander Marcy, M.D., was enrolled as a Commissioner from the Presbytery of West-Jersey.

The following Resolution was presented and adopted :—

Resolved, That this General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America do most heartily indorse the efforts made by the friends of Temperance, in and out of Congress last Session, to secure the passage of a law to suppress the sale of intoxicating liquors as a beverage in the Territories under the care of the United States Government; and that we earnestly hope to see some such law passed at the earliest possible period.

The Report of the Standing Committee on Foreign Missions was made the order of the day for to-morrow at 12 o'clock.

The Standing Committee on Home Missions presented their Report, which was accepted. After which, the Chairman of the Committee, the Rev. Henry J. Van Dyke, D.D., and the Secretaries of the Board, the Rev. Henry Kendall, D.D., and the Rev. Cyrus Dickson, D.D., addressed the Assembly.

Pending the consideration of the Report, the hour of adjournment arrived, and the further consideration was deferred until to-morrow at 11 o'clock A.M.

The Assembly adjourned until to-morrow, at 9 o'clock A.M.
Concluded with prayer.

WEDNESDAY, May 21st, 9 o'clock A.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer.

The minutes of yesterday's sessions were read and approved.

The report of the Judicial Committee was made the order of the day for Friday morning at 9 o'clock.

The Committee of Arrangements presented an invitation from the Superintendent of the Maryland Inebriate Asylum to visit the Institution on Saturday, the 24th inst., at 4 o'clock P.M.

Accepted with thanks.

An Overture on the subject of Publication was referred to the Standing Committee on Publication.

The consideration of the Report of the Standing Committee on the Board of Home Missions was resumed. After hearing from a number of Home Missionaries, further discussion was deferred to hear a partial report from the Committee on Bills and Overtures.

The Chairman of the Committee on Bills and Overtures presented the following Report, viz.:

1. On the Consolidation of the Boards; Overtures from the Presbyteries of Highland, Crawfordsville, Lansing, Iowa, Nassau, Cleveland, Baltimore, and Long Island, and the Synod of Baltimore.

The Committee recommend the following answer:

Resolved, That a Committee of seven be appointed to take this subject into careful consideration, and to report to the next General Assembly on the following points: First. Whether the expense of administration would be diminished by consolidation, and how far, on this ground, consolidation would be desirable. Second. Whether such consolidation would give increased efficiency to the different departments of work now committed to the different Boards. Third. If found to be more economical and efficient, to report a plan by which the desired consolidation can be safely and wisely made.

Pending the consideration of the Report, it was announced that Mr. James H. Rogers, an Elder from the Presbytery of Freeport, was not expected to survive through the day, and, by request, the Moderator led the Assembly in prayer.

Resumed the consideration of the Report.

The following amendment was adopted:

And that such report, if agreed upon, be published at least sixty days before the meeting of the next General Assembly, in at least four of our leading Presbyterian papers.

Under the operation of the previous question, the Report, as amended, was adopted, and the following were appointed the Committee of seven:

Ministers—William Adams, D.D., LL.D., J. Trumbull Backus, D.D., David Swing, Charles H. Foote. Elders—Louis Chapin, Washington R. Vermilye, and John K. Morehead.

Took a recess.

After recess,

The order of the day for 12 o'clock was postponed until 1 o'clock P.M. The Committee on Bills and Overtures reported

An Overture from the Presbytery of Baltimore, asking the Assembly to affirm the doctrines of the Standards of our Church pertaining to the Civil Magistrate, and the relation of Church and State; also, one from the Presbytery of Austin, concerning certain rules passed previously to the Reunion, with regard to members of the Southern Presbyterian Church.

As the subjects of these Overtures greatly concern the peace and prosperity of the Church, especially in those regions more directly affected by the late civil war, the Committee would recommend the adoption of the following paper:

The General Assembly, deploring the divisions that have occurred, and that continue among Presbyterians in the United States of America, and earnestly desiring to do whatever is consistent with duty and fidelity to the Lord toward healing these divisions, and furthermore having good reason to hope that the action contemplated in the following paper will promote and secure this happy result, do solemnly declare,

First. That, in accordance with a resolution, unanimously adopted by each of the two bodies now constituting the reunited Church, all action touching the brethren adhering to the body popularly known as the Southern General Assembly, together with all action touching the brethren adhering to the body known as the Old School Synod of Missouri, has been, since the Reunion, and is now, null and void, and therefore of no binding effect, and not to be pleaded as a precedent in the future.

Second. The Assembly also express confidence in the soundness of doctrine, and in the Christian character of these brethren, and cannot doubt that a more intimate communion would lead to the speedy removal of the barriers that now separate those of like precious faith, to increased mutual affection and esteem, and to a practical manifestation of oneness in Christ.

Third. With regard to the Civil Magistrate, and the relation of Church and State, the Assembly deem it sufficient to call attention to the following statements and principles, found in our Standards; to wit:

(I.) "Synods and Councils are to handle or conclude nothing but that which is ecclesiastical: and are not to intermeddle with civil affairs which concern the Commonwealth, unless by way of humble petition in cases extraordinary; or by way of advice, for satisfaction of conscience, if they be thereunto required by the Civil Magistrate." (Confession of Faith, Chapter XXXI., Section iv.)

(II.) "That God alone is Lord of the conscience; and hath left it free from the doctrines and commandments of men, which are in any thing contrary to his word, or beside it in matters of faith or worship." "That all Church power, whether exercised by the body in general, or, in the way of representation by delegated authority, is only ministerial and declarative. That is to say, that the Holy Scriptures are the only rule of faith and manners; that no Church judicatory ought to pretend to make laws to bind the conscience, in virtue of their own authority; and that all their decisions should be founded upon the revealed will of God." (Form of Government, Chapter I., Sections i. and vii.)

Fourth. For the purpose of carrying out the spirit of the foregoing resolutions, the Assembly will appoint two Committees, to confer with similar Committees, if appointed by the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States, and by the Old School Synod of Missouri, to seek closer and more fraternal relations with these bodies.

The Report was adopted unanimously, and the following Committees were accordingly appointed:

To confer with a like Committee of the Presbyterian Church South,—Rev. Samuel J. Niccolls, D.D., Rev. Henry J. Van Dyke, D.D., Rev. Ebenezer Erskine, D.D., Mr. John K. Morehead, and Hon. Joseph W. Edwards.

To confer with a like Committee of the O. S. Synod of Missouri,—

Rev. Cyrus Dickson, D.D., Rev. Robert W. Patterson, D.D., Rev. Charles H. Foote, Hon. William Strong, LL.D., and Mr. James Richardson.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures presented the following Reports on single Overtures:

No. 1. An Overture from the Church at Cynthiana, Kentucky, in connection with the Southern Assembly, asking this Assembly to release its claim to their property. It is recommended that the request be granted, and the Trustees of the General Assembly instructed to make a quit-claim to the Trustees of that Church. Adopted.

No. 2. An Overture from the Synod of Western New-York, asking for a detailed statement of the expenses of the different Boards.

As the Assembly has already taken action, no further reply is needed. Adopted.

No. 3. A Memorial from the National Temperance Society, asking the Assembly to send Delegates to a National Temperance Convention. The Committee recommend as an answer, that, while this Assembly approves all proper efforts made to suppress Intemperance, it declines to send Delegates in its name to the proposed Convention. Adopted.

No. 4. An Overture from the Rev. James Shaw, asking the Assembly to define what is meant by a Collegiate Church. It is recommended that he be referred to his Presbytery. Adopted.

No. 5. A Memorial from the Rev. David M. Wilson, asking the Assembly to pay certain expenses contracted by him in defence of the Church at Athens, Tennessee, before the Civil Courts. It is recommended that the petition be not granted. Adopted, with a resolution that opportunity be given to members to contribute personally toward reimbursing Mr. Wilson.

No. 6. An Overture from the Presbytery of Sparta, asking the Board of Publication to publish Minutes of Synods and Presbyteries. It is recommended that it be negatived. Adopted.

No. 7. An Overture from the Session of the Church at McVeytown. It is recommended that it be returned with directions to present it to the Presbytery. Adopted.

No. 8. An Overture from the Presbytery of Alton, concerning an Index for the use of Presbyteries in the Minutes of the General Assembly. No action is necessary on the part of the Assembly. Adopted.

No. 9. An Overture from the Presbytery of St. Lawrence, asking if a minister can act as a Ruling Elder.

This question has already been decided by the Assembly of 1871, and no further action is needed. Adopted.

A petition from Mr. Abbott, a suspended minister of the Presbytery of St. Louis, requesting a rehearing of his case, was presented by the Committee on Bills and Overtures, and referred to the Judicial Committee.

An Overture regarding Representation in the General Assembly was presented, and referred to the Committee on Bills and Overtures.

The Standing Committee on Foreign Missions presented their Report, which was accepted. After which, the Rev. John C. Lowrie, D.D., one of the Secretaries of the Board of Foreign Missions, and the Rev. Samuel Jessup, of Syria, addressed the Assembly.

After the usual devotional services, the Assembly adjourned until 8 o'clock P.M.

WEDNESDAY, May 21st, 8 o'clock P.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer.

The following telegram was read:

ST. LOUIS, MISSOURI, May 21st.

REV. HOWARD CROSBY, D.D.,

Moderator of Presbyterian General Assembly:

St. Louis assures you a hearty welcome. Your coming is regarded as an omen of restoration. We hope to greet the reunited Assembly with a reunited Synod. CHARLES A. DICKEY.

The Assembly resumed the consideration of the Report of the Standing Committee on Foreign Missions. Addresses were made by the Rev. Benjamin Labaree, Jr., Missionary to Persia, the Rev. Frank F. Ellinwood, D.D., one of the Secretaries of the Board, the Rev. Herrick Johnson, D.D., the Hon. William E. Dodge, the Rev. Robert R. Booth, D.D., Mr. Robert Carter, and the Rev. John S. Hays, D.D.

Adjourned until to-morrow, at 9 o'clock A.M.

Concluded with prayer.

THURSDAY, May 22d, 9 o'clock A.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer.

The minutes of yesterday's sessions were read and approved.

An Overture on Vacant Churches and Unemployed Ministers was presented and referred to the Committee on the Polity of the Church.

The Report of the Standing Committee on the Polity of the Church was made the order of the day for Saturday, at 9 o'clock A.M.

The Committees on the several Synodical Records following, reported, recommending their approval: On the Records of the Synods of Albany, Baltimore, China, Cleveland, Geneva, Harrisburg, Illinois Central, Illinois South, Indiana South, Iowa North, Iowa South, Kansas, Kentucky, Long Island, Minnesota, Pacific, Utica, Wisconsin, Western New-York, New-Jersey, and Pittsburgh. Adopted.

The Committee on the Records of the Synod of Atlantic recommended their approval,

And that the informality of the meeting of the Synod at Chester, instead of Winnsboro, be sanctioned by the General Assembly. Adopted.

The Committee on the Records of the Synod of Erie recommended their approval, with two exceptions:

1. Page 164. Additional names are added to the roll, but the names are not recorded.

2. Page 200. A certain paper is passed with an amendment, but the amendment is not recorded. Adopted.

The Committee on the Records of the Synod of Missouri recommended their approval, with the exception,

That, on page 76, in entering on a judicial case, there is no record that the Moderator reminded the members of the Synod that they were about to sit in a judicial capacity, and to remember their obligations as judges in a court of Jesus Christ. Adopted.

The Committee on the Records of the Synod of New-York recommended their approval, with the exception,

That reasons for tardiness do not appear to have been required of those who were not present at the opening of the Synod. Adopted.

The Committee on the Records of the Synod of Tennessee recommended their approval, with the exception,

That the organization of a Presbytery as authorized by the action of Synod, recorded on page 361, would be irregular, for the reason that the new Presbytery would cover territory already belonging to other Presbyteries, and the same territory thus comes under jurisdiction of different Presbyteries. Adopted.

The following resolution was presented:

Resolved, That the mobility of ministers be formed into a system.

Pending the discussion of the resolution, the Assembly proceeded to the order of the day, viz., the Reception of Foreign Delegates.

The Delegates to the last General Assemblies of Scotland and Ireland, and the General Synod of the United Presbyterian Church of Great Britain and Ireland, presented their Report, which was read and accepted.

The Rev. John Eadie, D.D., LL.D., and the Rev. Henry Calderwood, LL.D., Delegates from the General Assembly of the United Presbyterian Church in Great Britain and Ireland, were introduced, and addressed the Assembly, an appropriate response being made by the Moderator.

The Rev. Mattéo Prochet, the Delegate from the Vaudois or Waldensian Synod, was then introduced, and addressed the Assembly. An appropriate response was made by the Moderator.

Took a recess.

After the recess, it was

Resolved, That the resolutions of the General Assembly of 1872, as to the Committee on Benevolence and Finance, remain in force for the ensuing year; except as modified by the action of this Assembly.

The Assembly resumed the consideration of the Report of the Standing Committee on Foreign Missions.

The resolutions were considered seriatim. Pending the consideration of the ninth resolution, as recommended by the Committee,

A call for contributions to remove the debt of the Board of Foreign Missions was responded to by Commissioners, in behalf of themselves or their Presbyteries, and by friends of the Cause present, to the amount of $73,497.

It was resolved, that the contributions now pledged are not to diminish the regular gifts to the Boards and Committees of the Church.

The Moderator was requested to prepare a paper addressed to the churches, from the General Assembly, on the exigencies and opportunities of the Board of Foreign Missions, and informing them of the action of the Assembly.

It was also resolved,

That a Committee of Seven be appointed to report an apportionment of amounts for the current year, to be recommended to the churches, in behalf of the several Boards and Permanent Committees; and that the schedule be so arranged that moneys given for the whole work of the Church may be distributed on an even percentage.

The Moderator appointed as such Committee:

Mr. John Taylor Johnston, Rev. Herrick Johnson, D.D., Rev. Amasa S. Freeman, Rev. John S. Hays, D.D., Mr. Stephen Torrey, Hon. Joseph W. Edwards, and Hon. Truman P. Handy.

Thanks were given to God, through the Moderator, for the outpouring of gifts and pledges this P.M.; after which the Assembly adjourned until to-morrow at 9 o'clock A.M.

FRIDAY, May 23d, 9 o'clock A.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer.

The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

The Judicial Committee presented their Report as follows:

First. Case of Rev. W. M. White vs. the Presbytery of Washington.

From the papers before the Committee, it appears that Mr. White was suspended from the ministry, and excluded from the communion of the church by the Presbytery of Washington at its sessions in November, 1870; that since that time he has resided within the bounds of the Presbytery of Pittsburgh, and that he made application to the Presbytery of Washington, at its sessions in April, 1873, for a dismission, with a certificate of his standing, to the Presbytery of Pittsburgh. This request the Presbytery of Washington declined to grant; and, respecting their decision, have come into the hands of your Committee, 1. A complaint of Rev. W. M. White; 2. A complaint of Revs. David McKinney and Richard Lea, resident in Pittsburgh; 3. A petition, signed by ministers and church members, living in and near the city of Pittsburgh, praying that the decision of the Presbytery of Washington may be reversed, together with the answers of said Presbytery to these Complaints.

The Complaints have not been before the Synod, with which these Presbyteries are connected, for the alleged reason that there has been no meeting of the Synod since the action of Presbytery, and the Complainants prefer not to wait until the session of the Synod in the autumn. Your Committee, however, do not see sufficient cause in this case for departure from the rule of our Book of Discipline, (Chapter 7, Sec. 3,) viz., "Appeals are generally to be carried in regular gradation, from an inferior judicatory to the one immediately superior,"—and, therefore, recommend that all the papers in the case be referred to the Synod of Pittsburgh. Adopted.

Second and Third. Cases of Mr. Jefferson Ramsey and Rev. Andrew B. Cross vs. the Synod of Baltimore.

The persons named appeal from a decision of the Synod, by which a complaint of Mr. Ramsey against the Presbytery of New-Castle, and one of Mr. Cross against the Presbytery of Baltimore, were dismissed as having no ground, on report of the Judicial Committee of the Synod.

Your Committee learn from the Records of the Synod, that one clergyman and one layman respectively from each of these Presbyteries were members of the Judicial Committee; that the Moderator of the Synod was a member of the Presbytery of New-Castle, and the Moderator, pro tem., who was in the chair at the time of the action complained of, was a member of the Presbytery of Baltimore; that the case was not stated in any form to the Synod, but when the Judicial Committee reported, in each case, that there was no ground of complaint, their report was adopted under the call for the previous question. From all these facts, the Committee are of opinion that the cases should be readjudicated by the Synod of Baltimore, and so recommend to the Assembly. Adopted.

Fourth. Case of Rev. J. W. Martin vs. the Synod of Cleveland.

Mr. Martin complains of a suggestion of the Moderator, sustained by vote of the Synod, that the minutes of the previous session need not be read, at the beginning of the sessions in October, 1872, because they had been printed and were in the hands of the members; also that the Moderator refused to hear him speak against this action, and requests the Assembly to express a judgment respecting the authority of Moderators and Church courts, under our Book. The Committee find that the minutes of the previous session had been read and approved by the Synod at the close of that session, and therefore would have been read only for information, which was already in possession of the members in the printed copies; that they have no proof that the complainant was unjustly treated by the Moderator, beyond what often occurs in such cases; and that our Book of Discipline very definitely states the authority and province of Moderators. Therefore, we do not deem the case of sufficient importance to require the action of the Assembly. Adopted.

Fifth. Case of Robert Byers vs. The Synod of Illinois, South.

The papers in this case did not come into the hands of the Committee, until the 4th day of the session, and after parties interested in it had left, having been told that no such papers had come before us within the time prescribed by the Book, and we report no action in the case. Adopted.

Sixth. Case of M. A. Rockefeller, H. N. Waples, and M. E. Starick vs. The Synod of Harrisburg.

These persons complain and appeal, because the Synod decided their case without hearing both sides fully, since their representative was absent on the last day of the hearing; and because of injustice, in that the Synod did not regard the embarrassments of their position, and the irregularity of the action of the Session and the Presbytery, from which they appealed.

The Committee learn from the records of the Synod, to which these appellants refer, as their only testimony, that a full hearing was granted, their representative being heard as long as he desired to speak, and in his absence, after having addressed the Synod, another representative was permitted to serve in his place; and all the provisions of the Book were granted the appellants. Moreover, the decision of the Synod, from which the appeal was taken, contained an injunction upon the Presbytery, to enjoin the Session to invite these members of the church to return to their duties and privileges in the church, with the assurance that, if they would do so, the action against them should be annulled. The Committee, therefore, fail to find ground for their complaint, for either of the reasons they specify, and recommend that the case be dismissed. Adopted.

Seventh. Case of William McElwell vs. The Synod of Toledo.

No evidence whatever has come before the Committee in this case, and they recommend that the appeal be returned. Adopted.

Eighth. Complaint of the President of the General Synod of the Evangelical Lutheran Church.

A member of the West-Pennsylvania Synod of the Lutheran Church, who had been licensed by that Synod, made application for a renewal of his license, according to the usage of that Church, but it was refused on account of immorality. Soon after, he brought what was regarded as a letter of dismission from the Lutheran church of which he was a member, after the act of the Synod refusing to renew his license. This letter certified to his good and regular standing in that church, and upon it he was received into the Presbyterian Church. He afterward made application to the Presbytery of Philadelphia for licensure, and was licensed by that body, as a member of one of their own churches, under no censure. Objection was then made by the Synod of West-Pennsylvania, on the ground that he was under censure of that Synod, but the Presbytery decided that they could not go back of the letter given him by the Lutheran church, by which he had been regularly transferred to their care; as for them to have dishonored that letter would have have been a more serious cause of offence, than to proceed to license him in the circumstances. The Committee are assured, that no breach of courtesy was intended by the Presbytery; and they recommend, as the sentiment of the Assembly, that, while we would ever be scrupulous in the observance of ecclesiastical comity in our relations with other denominations, we cannot regard the action of the Presbytery of Philadelphia as a violation of such comity, as respects the Evangelical Lutheran Church. Adopted.

Ninth. Case of George Fishback vs. The Synod of Illinois, South.

Two papers have been presented to the Committee in this case, which are an appeal from a decision of the Synod of Illinois, South, respecting the action of the Presbytery of Alton, and the session of the church in Carlinville; and a complaint respecting the same decision. The papers are in order, and are accompanied by the evidence in the case; and the Committee recommend that they be taken up by the Assembly in the order prescribed by the Book of Discipline. Adopted, and made the order of the day for Tuesday next, at 10 o'clock A.M.

The Assembly resumed the Report of the Standing Committee on Home Missions.

Pending the discussion, the order of the day arrived, and the Assembly proceeded to the further reception of Delegates from Corresponding Bodies.

The Rev. Hervey D. Ganse, of the General Synod of the Reformed Church in America; the Rev. Kenneth MacLennan, of the Synod of the Presbyterian Church in Canada in connection with the Church of Scotland; the Rev. George Patterson and the Rev. James Bennet, of the Synod of the Presbyterian Church of the Lower Provinces, N. A.; the Rev. George B. Bacon, D.D., of the National Council of the Congregational Churches of the United States; and the Rev. Joseph R. Kerr, of the General Assembly of the United Presbyterian Church of North-America, were introduced and presented the salutations of their several Churches, suitable responses being given by the Moderator.

Took a recess.

After the recess,

The Standing Committee on Finance presented their Report, which was adopted, and is as follows:

The Committee on Finance respectfully report,
That the following papers have been placed in their hands:

1. The Report of the Treasurer of the Trustees of the General Assembly, from April 1st, 1872, to April 1st, 1873, certified to be correct by their Committee on accounts, and showing the receipts, including balance from the previous year, to be $72,359.03, and the expenditures $68,395.74, leaving a balance in Treasurer's hands, of $3963.29.

2. The Balance-sheet from the Ledger.

3. A Specification of the items of the above balance.

4. A Detailed Statement of receipts of Income.

5. A Tabular Statement of Investments.

6. A Statement of Investments of Permanent Funds.

All of the above papers are properly certified.

Your Committee have also been furnished with the account of the Treasurer of the General Assembly, showing a balance in his hands, on the 15th of May, 1873, of $3123.16.

They have also received the account of the Treasurer of the Trustees of the Presbyterian House, and the Nineteenth Annual Report of said Trustees, showing the total receipts for the year, including Balance, ... $8483 43

And total expenditures, ... 7518 19

Leaving a balance, ... $965 24

The permanent Funds, as shown by the Treasurer's statement, amount to $67,183, exclusive of "The Benjamin Fund," of $30,000. The Treasurer's account is certified to be correct, and the securities taken for investments to be in order, by Messrs John C. Farr and William T. Eva, Auditors.

Your Committee recommend the approval of all the above-mentioned Reports and accounts, with the accompanying documents, and that they be published in the Appendix to the Minutes.

They would further recommend, that, as far as practicable under the terms in which bequests have been made, the Trustees of the General Assembly, and the Trustees of the Presbyterian House, severally consolidate into one account trusts or funds of a similar character. This recommendation is general in its character, because the Committee have not the requisite facts before them to present any definite plan, nor do they know that any such changes can be made. The accounts are very numerous, and the Trustees, knowing thoroughly the facts of each case, can judge how far it is possible to carry out this recommendation.

They would further recommend, that the advice of counsel be taken, by the Trustees, with regard to the feasibility of legally uniting the Trustees of the General Assembly and the Trustees of the Presbyterian House, and thus removing one of the few remaining marks that there was once an Old-School and New-School Branch of the great Presbyterian Church.

The term of office of the following Trustees of the Presbyterian House expires during the present session of the Assembly: Samuel C. Perkins, John C. Farr, Rev. Daniel March, D.D., Rev. William T. Eva, and Rev. Thomas J. Shepherd, D.D.

And it is recommended that they be reëlected for the term of two years.

It was made the order of the day for Saturday, at 8 o'clock P.M., to hear the Report of the Standing Committee on Theological Seminaries.

The Standing Committee on Sustentation presented their Report, which was accepted, after which, the Secretary, Rev. Melancthon W. Jacobus, D.D., LL.D., addressed the Assembly.

The Moderator announced the following as the Committee of seven to raise the money to meet the indebtedness of the Board of Education: Messrs. Frederick H. Wolcott, Edwin J. Thompson, James K. Morehead, John Wanamaker, William W. Spence, Samuel T. Freeman, and James Richardson.

The following letter, prepared by the Moderator, in accordance with the resolution of yesterday, was presented and read:

To the churches connected with the Presbyteries represented in the General Assembly assembled in Baltimore, May, 1873:

Dear Brethren:

As Moderator of the General Assembly, I am instructed by the Assembly, to inform you of the urgent need, in which our Board of Foreign Missions is now placed, with a large debt, and increasing opportunities for successful effort. The honor of our Church, the responsibility of its members, and the cause of evangelization are so deeply involved in the immediate relief of this important arm of our Church work, that the General Assembly felt it necessary, to take the extraordinary step of receiving immediate pledges from its members, for themselves, or for their churches, or Presbyteries, of sums of money to liquidate the debt of the Board. The debt being one hundred and thirty thousand dollars, the Assembly received in this way, amid much enthusiasm, and with praise to God, pledges to the amount of seventy-three thousand four hundred and ninety-seven dollars ($73,497) to be paid, over and above all the regular contributions to this and the other Boards. For the balance of fifty-six thousand five hundred and three dollars ($56,503), the Assembly now earnestly, through the Moderator, appeal to the churches, entreating each church, however poor, to do something for this present emergency.

Let no church feel, that it has been loyal to the great Cause represented executively in the Board of Foreign Missions, until it has made a new collection for this special need, and forwarded the same to the Treasurer of the Board.

Urging you strenuously and affectionately to this prompt and faithful movement, by our common relation to the cause of our Lord Jesus Christ, I have the honor to remain, in the name of the General Assembly, HOWARD CROSBY, Moderator.

EDWIN F. HATFIELD, Stated Clerk,
CYRUS DICKSON, Permanent Clerk.

Baltimore, May 23, 1873.

The consideration of the Report of the Standing Committee on Sustentation was continued until the hour of adjournment.

The Committee of Arrangements reported the appointments for next Sabbath.

Adjourned until 8 o'clock P.M.
Closed with prayer.

FRIDAY, May 23d, 8 o'clock P.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer.

The Standing Committee on Ministerial Relief presented their Report, which was accepted, and the Rev. George Hale, D.D., the Secretary of the Relief Fund, addressed the Assembly.

During the discussion of the Report, the Hon. William Pinckney Whyte, the Governor of the State of Maryland, and the Hon. Joshua Vansant, the Mayor of the City of Baltimore, were introduced to the Assembly, and welcomed, by the Moderator, to seats on the platform.

The Report was adopted, and is as follows:

The Committee, to whom was referred the Report of the Trustees of the General Assembly in relation to the Relief Fund for Disabled Ministers and their Families, respectfully report:

They have turned their attention to the subject before them with profound sympathy. The persons, for whose benefit the Relief Fund is organized, constitute a sacred class, having a peculiar claim on the affections of the Church, and to be cherished with tender concern. Each case on the roll represents a history of self-sacrificing devotion to Christ and his cause, regarded, we doubt not, with loving interest by ministering angels. To them, if to any class in the Church, may be applied the words of the apostle Paul, that they "fill up that which is behind of the afflictions of Christ in" their "flesh for his body's sake, which is the Church."

The ministry, which in its very nature implies a surrender of all aims of wealth and honor fairly open to men, further involves, to a large class of those who serve the gospel in the Presbyterian Church, in our land, with all the joys of that service, a straitened condition of domestic life, peculiarly trying to persons of culture and refinement, such as our ministers and their wives ordinarily are; and forbids any savings and accumulation of means, against the vicissitudes which may strand them in disability, or make widows and orphans of those whom they have bound to their own chosen life of poverty; but the wives, those precious helpers of our ministers, sharers in their toils and joys, bear the chief pressure of the manifold domestic straitness, incident to the service of all our home missionary fields, and of many others occupying places not reckoned missionary; and, when such are left in their widowhood, destitute of means, they are given by the Lord to his Church, to be cherished, as our own dear mothers and sisters in the flesh, with a sacred love.

It is a matter of common congratulation, that our Church has come of late, as never before, to recognize this grateful obligation in regard to this ever-present class of sufferers for Christ's sake and the Church's sake. "The poor ye have always with you," our Lord says; and certainly, so long as he shall continue to baptize our sons and daughters with the spirit of consecration, leading them to devote their lives to carrying the gospel of salvation wherever he sends them, whether to heathen lands, or the frontiers of our own land, or through the villages and rural districts of our several States, so long shall we have a living body of aged, infirm, and disabled ministers in real poverty, and of the widows and orphans of deceased ministers left in destitute circumstances, a body given by the Lord to our grateful, loving care.

The financial aspect of the work, as presented by the Report, is in brief this: The total income of the year, including the balance from the preceding year of $783.87, was $81,317.47; while the total expenditures, during the same period, were $81,302.79; leaving a balance, in the Treasurer's hands, of $14.68; but, leaving also installments of appropriations, past due and unpaid, to the amount of $9337.50, showing an actual deficiency of income to meet the calls of the year by $9322.92; and throwing forward the same amount as a load upon the business of the new year.

The amount, which has come into the hands of the Committee of the Trustees charged with the management of the Relief Fund, has been reached in this way:

By contributions of churches and individuals,		$73,511 58
Interest on Permanent Fund,	$5,961 92
Interest on Deposits,	155 10	6,117 02
Money returned,		905 00
Balance from previous year,		783 87
		$81,317 47

The amount disbursed has been expended as follows, viz.:

Payments on appropriations to Beneficiaries of the Fund,	$70,754 50
Passed to the Permanent Fund,	3,624 00
All expenses, including salaries of the Secretary and Treasurer, printing and distributing the Annual Report, expenses of "Monthly Record," printing circulars, advertising, travel, postage, stationery, furniture, care, etc.,	6,917 29
Refunded to a church, $7, and Balance, $14.68,	21 68

The entire number on the roll of Relief for the year has been 379, which exceeds that of any previous year by 45. Of this number 204 were widows, 155 were ministers, and 20 orphan families.

They were recommended to the support of the Relief Fund by 119 Presbyteries, out of 33 Synods. Only two Synods, viz., India and China, have been unrepresented during the year on the roll of Relief.

It is noticed with just satisfaction that, from the inauguration of this scheme, it is not known that there has been an individual or family, fairly entitled to aid, which has ever been denied, when the proper evidence has been furnished with the recommendation of the Presbytery, or of the Presbyterial Standing Committee.

The year has witnessed the passing to their final rest of nineteen who have shared in the benefits of this Fund, two aged widows and seventeen ministers of the Gospel, twelve of whom had passed their seventieth year.

Nineteen other names have disappeared from the roll, nine ministers, four widows, and one orphan, because their wants were otherwise provided for, and application in their behalf was not renewed. In still five other cases, information has been received that no assistance will be asked in their behalf for the present year.

The Relief Committee began the year without any working balance beyond the small sum of $783, and with over-due installments, waiting payment, to between nine and ten thousand dollars. Other installments also were coming due, from time to time, more rapidly than the funds arrived to meet them, and the catalogue received forty-five more names than ever before. Hence the Treasury has been kept in an exhausted condition. Hence, also, the Committee have been unable to adhere to the plan hitherto pursued of paying the semi-annual installments in advance. Hence, also, they have been compelled in many cases—thirty-six at least—to reduce the amount of appropriation previously given, an amount not at all beyond what the circumstances of the applicants seemed to require.

But, notwithstanding this experience, and the fact that the contributions from the churches have fallen so far short of the sum recommended by the last General Assembly, the Committee are able to tell us of some very encouraging features of their work. Thus the people have brought into the Treasury nearly ten thousand dollars more than the previous year, 1871–2; and that year again showed upward of ten thousand dollars advance upon the offerings of the year still previous, 1870–71. This shows steady progress in the hearts of the people. But a still more satisfactory feature is the circumstance that the number of contributing churches for the year exceeds that of any previous year by six hundred, and has reached now twenty-five hundred. This leaves, however, the sorrowful fact, that there remain yet 2300 churches on our roll who make no contribution to this sacred charity. Many of that number, it is certain, are small churches with little means, with little life, and without any stated ministry of the word; but many of them also are in other circumstances, and have failed, we feel assured, only because the attention of the people has not been called to the object and opportunity given them to contribute.

As already stated, the Relief Fund shows an indebtedness, on account of the old year, of upward of nine thousand dollars. For the legitimate work of the new year, independently of this unfavorable balance, it seems that this Fund ought to receive at least ninety thousand dollars. And your Committee think, on full consideration of the facts laid before them, there should be put into the Treasury of the Relief Fund during the year not less than one hundred thousand dollars. Twenty-one thousand dollars will be wanted for over-due and maturing appropriations before the 1st of July next.

The Permanent Fund, of which the interest only can be used, has, since the beginning of the financial year, been increased by several legacies and donations, and by profits on sale of loans and re-investments to the extent of $6292.75; and its present total amount is $104,761.99. The income yielded by this Fund during the year was $5961.92, as before stated.

It has been noticed, in the analysis given of the receipts into the Treasury, an item is stated of $905 money returned. It gives your Committee occasion, to notice the Christian delicacy and disinterestedness, that constantly mark that precious class among whom we seek the beneficiaries of this Fund. It might appropriately have appeared in the account as contributions from disabled ministers and widows. It is made up of several sums returned to the Treasury by ministers and widows, to whom payments had been made on regular appropriations, but who, finding that they could in some way manage to live through the year without using all the allowance given them, considerately returned the balance, not willing to be a charge on the benevolence of the Church for a dollar beyond what was absolutely necessary. Such voluntary surrender of means, in the midst of real poverty, is an illustration of a delicacy of sentiment and Christian independence, hardly to be learned in any school, as in that self-sacrificing devotion to the good of others, in which the most of our ministers and their wives are constantly exercised.

Your Committee would recommend the adoption by the Assembly of the following resolutions:

1. That the Assembly testify their tender interest in the aged, infirm, and disabled ministers of the Church, and in the widows and orphan families of their deceased ministers; and reverently commend them to the grace and care of the Great Head of the Church, in whose service and by whose providence they are brought into their present condition of relative dependence.

2. That in view of the delicacy of sentiment, which restrains many suffering ones and needy ones of the class described from making known their wants and seeking relief, this Assembly reaffirm the recommendation of the last General Assembly, that the Standing Committee of Relief, in the several Presbyteries, "use special diligence to see that no individual or family deserving and entitled to relief, be overlooked; and, further, devise the best means of enlisting the sympathy or the people in the Cause, so that there may be no failure of stated collections to meet the increasing demands on the Fund.

3. That the sum of at least ninety thousand dollars be raised during the year by the churches for the Relief Fund. And that it is desirable, as far as possible, that the offerings for this Fund be sent forward at an early day, that the Committee of the Trustees of the General Assembly, having it in charge, may be able fully to meet the calls for $20,000 accruing before the first of July. And that they may be enabled speedily to return to the payment of the semi-annual installments in advance.

The Committee on Apportionment of Contributions to the Boards and Permanent Committees presented their Report, which was adopted, and is as follows:

The Committee appointed to report an apportionment of amounts to be recommended to the churches in behalf of the several Boards and Permanent Committees, and who were also directed to arrange the same on an even per-centage, beg leave to report the following per-centages and apportionments on a basis of raising $1,500,000 for the current year:

NAME OF BOARD.	PER CENT.	AMOUNT.
Foreign Missions,	40	$600,000
Home Missions,	23½	352,500
Sustentation,	5½	82,500
Education,	7	105,000
Church Erection,	8	120,000
Freedmen	5	75,000
Publication,	5	75,000
Ministerial Relief,	6	90,000
	100	$1,500,000

In order to prevent any possible conflict between any previous action of the Assembly and the recommendations of this Report, they also recommend the passage of the following resolution by a constitutional vote:

Resolved, That any action of this General Assembly inconsistent with the schedule of apportionment reported by the Committee on Apportionment, be and the same is hereby reconsidered and rescinded.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures reported:

1. A Resolution regarding Seamen. The Assembly desire to call the attention of the churches under our care to the fact, that 3,000,000 of their fellow-men are said to be seamen, doing business on the great waters, and, therefore, in a great measure, deprived of the means of grace; that this people are not readily reached by the efforts of the Church to give the gospel to the destitute; and so strong is the claim of these sailors upon our Christian sympathies and aid, that we commend to the churches to seek their salvation through the agency of the American Seamen's Friend Society, which has long been faithfully laboring, and with great success, in this important department of Christian labor. Adopted.

2. On a Memorial from the Presbytery of New-York, and an Overture from the Synod of Baltimore, regarding Life Assurance, recommending the following resolution:

Resolved, That there be appointed, by the Moderator of this Assembly, a Committee of two Ministers and three Elders, whose duty it shall be to inquire into the subject of Life Assurance, and report to the next General Assembly a plan of Life Assurance, which shall be operated through the Agency of the Committee of the Relief Fund, and which shall be adapted to the financial capabilities and urgent needs of our ministry. Adopted.

The Committee were appointed as follows: Rev. Herrick Johnson, D.D., Rev. John Pym Carter, Mr. Louis Chapin, Hon. Edward A. Lambert, and Mr. Henry G. De Forest.

3. An Overture from the Presbytery of Schuyler, regarding the officiating of Ministers at improper Marriages. The Committee report no action necessary. Adopted.

The Rev. John B. Thompson, D.D., the Delegate from the Free Church of Italy, was introduced to the Assembly, and presented the greetings of that body, with a request for a fraternal correspondence, to which the Moderator responded in appropriate terms.

Adjourned until to-morrow at 9 o'clock A.M.
Closed with prayer.

SATURDAY, May 24th, 9 o'clock A.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer.

The minutes of yesterday's sessions were read and approved.

The Committees on the Records of the Synods of Harrisburg, and Indiana North, severally presented their Reports, recommending their approval. Adopted.

A communication was received from the Rev. William Adams, D.D., asking to be excused from the chairmanship of the Committee on Consolidation, and the Rev. Robert R. Booth, D.D., was substituted in his place.

The resolution regarding the mobility of the ministry was called up, and laid on the table.

The Committee on the Cheap Paper presented their Report, which was accepted, and the Rev. William T. Beatty, by vote, was heard for ten minutes on the subject. It was then

Resolved, That hereafter all speeches during the business sessions of this Assembly be limited to five minutes each, except in the case of the Chairmen of Committees, Counsel in Judicial cases, and by express permission of the house.

The Report of the Committee on the Cheap Paper having been amended, was adopted, and is as follows :

The Committee, to whom was referred "the Report of a Special Committee appointed by the last Assembly on the publication of a Cheap Paper for gratuitous distribution among the churches, giving intelligence relative to the operation of the Boards," and the Overture of the Synod of Toledo on the "Consolidation of the Monthly Record and the Foreign Missionary," having conferred with the Secretaries of the Board of Publication, the writer of the Report, and others desiring to be heard on the subject, respectfully present the following :

There seems to be a wide and growing impression, that the Monthly Record and Foreign Missionary would accomplish more acceptably and successfully their design by being united ; and also by omitting the detailed acknowledgments, in each number, of moneys received by the Boards, or by reserving these for a supplement at the close of the financial year. It seems also quite generally supposed, that an earnest, attractive, cheap paper, or even gratuitously afforded, under the supervision of a competent editor, is a great want in the Church, especially in the more sparsely settled parts of the country, and among the humbler classes, who are without information of the work of the Church, or incitements to prayer and effort in its behalf. And the Committee have no doubt, that such a paper would be most useful, if regularly read.

Observation and experience, however, have created an apprehension that a paper gratuitously circulated will not be much valued nor generally read. It is questioned, moreover, how far the desire to enjoy the labor of others, without paying any thing for it, ought to be encouraged. Nor have the Committee at present sufficient evidence that the Church could, coming as it must into competition with papers of long standing, wide circulation, and great popularity, provide such a paper without unreasonable cost. The risk is very great. Large sums have been sunk by such undertakings; and, if not managed with consummate prudence and skill, there is reason to apprehend ruinous loss. The calculations of the Report are based upon the expectation of two hundred thousand subscribers, or else that this number should be given gratuitously. Such enterprises seem to succeed better in private hands, than in the hands of corporations or Boards. An individual, too, may risk what he pleases; but it is questionable how far this should be permitted to a Board.

But even if subscribers or readers could be obtained, and a competent, able, popular editor procured, yet may it not be feared, that the greater the success and the power of such a paper, the greater will be the danger of its creating, in exciting times, suspicions and apprehensions of its being used for party purposes. The power of the press, if open to competition, is legitimate and healthful; but if concentrated and sustained by official patronage and influence, it may be injurious.

Desirable, therefore, as the Committee feel the aim of the friends of such an enterprise to be, it is nevertheless involved in so much doubt and difficulty, that they cannot with their present light recommend the Assembly to authorize the Board of Publication to issue such a paper. The plan is at least not sufficiently developed and matured, to justify any steps for its immediate undertaking.

The Committee, therefore, recommend the following:

Whereas, In the judgment of this Assembly, it is expedient that a cheap religious paper should be published, if it can be done consistently with the interests of the Presbyterian Church; Therefore, it is recommended that a Committee of five be appointed to confer with the Boards, and to inquire generally, whether it is not practicable to meet the evident demand for something of the kind asked for in the Report before the Committee, and report to the next Assembly.

The Committee were appointed as follows:

Rev. William T. Beatty, Rev. William Howell Taylor, Rev. John L. Withrow, D.D., Hon. Chauncy N. Olds, and Mr. Robert Carter.

The Standing Committee on Church Erection presented their Report, which was accepted. The Assembly were then addressed by the Rev. Henry R. Wilson, D.D., the Secretary of the Board of Church Erection. After which, the Report having been amended was adopted, and is as follows:

The Standing Committee on Church Erection would respectfully submit the following Report:

The report of the Board of Church Erection for the year has been placed in the hands of your Committee and carefully examined, together with the record of its proceedings. In acquainting ourselves with the work done by the Board, during the year, your Committee have been impressed with the greatness and importance of the work accomplished, and the evidences we have had of the earnest fidelity with which the Board and its Secretary have managed all of the interests intrusted to their care.

Your Committee would call the attention of the General Assembly to these facts suggested by the Report of the Board:

1. Its Receipts. These receipts, by collections from the churches, individual contributions, legacies, interest on Permanent Fund, and sale of real estate in Missouri, amount to the total sum of $110,774.88. This is an increase, upon the sum raised last year, of several thousand dollars. The raising of this sum, during the period of peculiar stringency in all matters pertaining to money, which has characterized the past year, seems to show the hold which this Cause is getting upon the confidence and hearts of our people, and the efficiency with which its claims are presented.

There has been a large increase in the number of churches contributing to Church Erection. This increase is 166; but the sums received from the most of these churches have been small; still we rejoice in these new beginnings, believing that, when the importance of this work is understood, these small sums will give place to those which will better represent both the ability of these churches and their interest in those who, without aid, are not able to have a house in which to worship God. The whole number of churches contributing to Church Erection during the year is 1903, leaving 2827 of the churches under our care, who have had no part nor lot in this good Cause—at least as far as contributing to the Board of Church Erection is concerned.

Your Committee, on inquiry of members of the Board, have found that a collection can be taken up for a specific church, and sent to that church, through the Board of Church Erection, without prejudice to a further appropriation to the same church.

2. Its Appropriations. Aid has been given during the year to 160 churches, and the sum thus granted is $88,091.85, which is an average of $550 to the churches aided. These grants have been made to churches located in 24 different States; some in the Southern States, and others as far West as California and Washington Territory. The most of the churches aided are in the Middle and Central States. The reasons for this large preponderance of aid in the thickly settled regions of our country are given in the Report of the Board; but, while owning the cogency of these reasons, your Committee wish, that some means could be devised whereby churches in the far West that are feeble could be aided, in the beginnings of their endeavors to have a house wherein to worship God.

Appropriations amounting to $3200 have been withdrawn because not called for within the two years allowed for that purpose.

Your Committee, in closing, would recommend the following action to be adopted:

1. That Presbyteries be urged to coöperate earnestly with the Board of Church Erection, especially by seeing that the sums raised by the churches within their bounds be placed under the control and direction of the Board.

2. That the Assembly renew the expression of their sense of the need and importance of this work, their gratitude to those who have had it in charge, and an earnest plea to the churches to give the Board their confidence, and sustain their cause by their sympathy, prayers, and benefactions.

3. That the Board be requested to limit the sums appropriated to an amount not exceeding $1000, to any individual church, so that as many churches as possible may be aided by the funds which shall come into their hands.

4. That the Assembly do elect the following persons to supply the class whose term now expires:

Rev. Alexander Reed, D.D., Rev. Marvin R. Vincent, D.D., Rev. George S. Bishop. Elders—Winthrop S. Gilman, Nathan Lane, Hezekiah King, and Charles Collins.

To fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Rev. Theodore L. Cuyler, D.D., Mr. Remington F. Randolph.

To fill the place of Mr. Albert N. Brown, resigned, Mr. James Frazer.

An invitation to visit the Asylum for the Blind to-day, at 2½ o'clock P.M., was received, and accepted by the Assembly with thanks.

The Report of the Committee on the Narrative was made the order of the day for Monday, at 11 o'clock A.M.

The Standing Committee on Church Erection presented a Supplemental Report on the Report of the Committee on Manses, which was accepted.

The discussion of the Report was continued until the recess.

After the recess,

The Standing Committee on the Polity of the Church made a Report,

Recognizing the formation of the new Presbytery of Oroomiah in Persia, and recommending, in accordance with an Overture from the Presbytery of Genesee, that it be attached to the Synod of Western New-York:

And that the Rev. Benjamin Labaree, Jr., in accordance with his Commission from the Presbytery of Oroomiah, be enrolled as a member of this Assembly.

The Report was adopted.

The Standing Committee on Freedmen presented their Report, which was accepted. After which, the Rev. A. Craig McClelland, the Secretary of the Committee of Missions for Freedmen, addressed the Assembly.

The Report, after further discussion, was adopted, and is as follows:

Your Committee beg leave to submit the following Report:

Eight years ago, the Church of God in the United States was called to a new work of missions. Of its gravity and its difficulty some impression is gained by a review of the work done by this Assembly's Committee of Missions for Freedmen for the year just closed. Its field of operations is a part of our land, largely disorganized in its social and political life. The people for whom it labors are peculiar in character, and their social status not yet accurately defined; or, if defined by law, not recognized by many of their fellow-citizens of the South. And there should be added the fact, that the early enthusiasm in behalf of the emancipated people has, in process of time and the change of circumstance, very materially declined in all parts of the land. In view of all this, your Committee are profoundly impressed with the magnitude of the work undertaken, and the greatness of the success achieved by the Assembly's Committee for Freedmen. We admire only less than we give thanks to God, who has rewarded the zeal and fidelity with which the work has been conducted, and brought to such a hopeful stage of progress.

A review of the Annual Report of the Committee of Missions for Freedmen shows careful management of all interests, and substantial progress in both departments of the Church work proper, and also of Education.

In four States mainly there are of churches 103, of schools of all grades a large number, five of a high order, which are fully described, as they were a year ago in the Report rendered to the last Assembly. Besides the large number of children under instruction, there are in training nearly 500 students of maturer years, many of them teachers, and 54 of this number are preparing to preach the gospel. In the conduct of this work there are employed 124 commissioned laborers, male and female. Of these, 32 are ordained ministers, 18 of them colored men. In this band of faithful workers for the elevation of the Freedmen are numbered women of culture, who have left all and followed Jesus in his ministry to the lowly; and men who have counted it to be no hiding of talent, no sacrifice of fortune, to lay all on the altar of this Christ-like service. Of those employed in home or foreign work, none are more worthy of sympathy, none more justly receive the honors of a self-sacrificing philanthropy.

The number of churches contributing to the support of these laborers is 1454, and although this number is larger by over 300 than last year, the sum contributed has been increased by but $5000, while the income of the Committee from the Government and the Boards of the Church has gradually diminished from year to year, until now it is practically nothing. By this statement we are shown the meagreness of our resources for such a work, and your Committee are constrained to put upon record their conviction that, as a Church, we have not fulfilled our obligations to these missions.

We must frankly admit that, if this work has not failed in important respects, as it surely has not, we owe it to the untiring energy of the workmen, both in the field and in the offices of the Committee, their unfaltering faith being rewarded by the blessing of God, who will not suffer his faithful ones to fail. But a review of the work of this Committee is incomplete, unless we pay special regard to the peculiar responsibility under which the whole Church is laid for its prosecution. In the providence of God the elevation of a race is committed to us. It is a nation at our own doors, strangely distinct from us, and yet one with us, bound to us by a tie which can neither be ignored nor broken. This people hold us under bonds for a debt which we can pay, not merely by granting them political equality, we must give them also a civilization which, in all its essentials, shall be the peer of our own; and to the discharge of this obligation we are now summoned by the voice of humanity. The whole world looks on to see what is to be the fate of this people. The continent which claims them as its children is calling aloud for their return, not as slaves emancipated at length, but as freemen of the Lord, who shall bring light and liberty with them, the wages of their years of exile, the harvest which is God's bestowment, compensating for the sorrows of slavery.

And, if our own manliness and love of fair dealing do not stimulate us to all proper urgency in this work; if our Christian sensibility be not quick enough to feel the push of this crisis in the history of the Freedmen, then let us be reminded that we are called to this great work by the word and the justice of that God, who holds over the nations the same hand with which he beckons them, in the fullness of time, to his judgment bar.

Your Committee, therefore, offer for adoption by this Assembly the following resolutions:

1. The Assembly commend these Missions for Freedmen to the sympathies and hearty support of the whole Church, on the grounds, first, of duty to our fellow-men, in whose welfare our own prosperity is most intimately concerned; but, most of all, on the ground of duty to God, who has led us into this work, and made it at once a test of our faith in him, and of our trust in the triumphs of his grace in our common humanity.

2. The Assembly direct the attention of the churches, and of all who are in sympathy with us in this work, to the following sources from which the increase of contributions may be expected, viz., information given regularly to the people by pastors and stated supplies; the encouragement of gifts by individuals to the established schools and churches among the Freedmen; the support of churches and schools by Sabbath-schools; and the development, prudently and with patience, of beneficence to this work among the Southern people, both white and black, as God shall prosper them.

3. To the faithful, self-sacrificing men and women who are toiling in this work, the Assembly offer the sympathy and appreciative gratitude of the whole Church herein represented, pledging to them all due support and coöperation, and invoking upon them and upon their work the richest blessings of heaven.

4. The Assembly commend the fidelity and economy of their Committee of Missions for Freedmen in securing, with so small a sum as $59,000, results so satisfactory and full of promise; and the Assembly enjoin upon the churches the duty of raising for the Freedmen's Committee the full sum of $75,000, named in the act of Apportionment.

5. We recommend, also, that the Annual Report of the Committee be printed under their direction, that the Committee's Minutes be approved, the Committee continued, and that R. S. Davis and Robert Beer be appointed by the Assembly to fill vacancies in the Committee.

The Committee on Leave of Absence reported the following Commissioners as excused, viz.:

Elder Alexander Marcy, of the Presbytery of West-Jersey.
Rev. William H. Cooper, of the Presbytery of Long Island.
Rev. John Newton, of the Presbytery of New-Orleans.
Elder Lucien Webster, of the Presbytery of Niagara.
Elder J. S. Campbell, of the Presbytery of Cairo.
Rev. R. Hamill Nassau, M.D., of the Presbytery of Corisco.
Rev. Horatio N. Brinsmade, D.D., of the Presbytery of Newark.
Elder James Richardson, of the Presbytery of St. Louis.
Elder Peter E. Hope, of the Presbytery of Philadelphia, North.
Rev. John James, of the Presbytery of Albany.
Elder Stephen G. Gould, of the Presbytery of Newark.
Elder William Woodcock, of the Presbytery of Elizabeth.
Elder Theodore Strong, of the Presbytery of Lackawanna.
Elder John B. Gest, of the Presbytery of Philadelphia.
Rev. Robert McMillan, of the Presbytery of Shenango.
Rev. Robert M. Overstreet, of the Presbytery of Emporia.
Elder John Taylor Johnston, of the Presbytery of New-York.
Elder Henry G. De Forest, of the Presbytery of New-York.
Elder T. Charlton Henry, of the Presbytery of Philadelphia, North.
Elder James G. Long, of the Presbytery of Chester.

The Rev. Philip Schaff, of the Presbytery of New-York, excused from Saturday until Tuesday; and the Rev. Joseph W. Torrence, of the Presbytery of Crawfordsville, after Tuesday next.

The Report was adopted.

The Report of the Committee on Sustentation was made the order of the day for Tuesday, at 9 o'clock A.M.

The Report of the Committee on the Book of Praise was made the order of the day for Monday, at 9 A.M.

The Standing Committee on the Polity of the Church reported,

1. A Memorial from the Presbytery of Columbus, asking this General Assembly to define the action of the last General Assembly "in limiting the term of Licensure (Min. p. 87) as not referring to the cases of Laymen, who are licensed with a view of their higher usefulness, and not with a view to ordination."

The Committee recommend this minute as an answer, viz.: The General Assembly cannot sanction the practice of licensure as a means to attain a higher measure of usefulness merely, without aiming to reach ordination; as this would be virtually to make two grades of preaching officers. But the rules adopted by the last Assembly, to which the Memorial refers, should not be construed as abridging the power and discretion of the Presbyteries to license probationers "in extraordinary cases." Form of Govt. XIV. 6. Adopted.

2. An Overture from the Synod of Geneva, asking the General Assembly to transfer the Presbytery of Syracuse from its connection with the Synod of Utica to that of Geneva.

The Committee recommend that this request be not granted; because it is not evident that such a transfer can be made, at present, without objection by the Synod of Utica; and some danger of grievance, which might overbalance any advantage gained by the change; but that these Synods be advised to confer with each other, in order to readjust the boundary line between them, for the action of some future General Assembly. Adopted.

3. An Overture from the Synod of Utica, asking the General Assembly to change its name from the "Synod of Utica" to the "Synod of Central New-York."

The Committee recommend that this request be granted. Adopted.

4. A Memorial from the Presbytery of Albany, in which Commissioners from other Presbyteries in the Synod of Albany unite, to ask this General Assembly that the time fixed for the next meeting of that Synod be changed, in consequence of the meeting of the Evangelical Alliance in October next; and that the time appointed now and here be the second Tuesday of September next, at the same hour and place as already designated by the Synod.

The Committee recommend that this request be granted. Adopted.

5. An Overture from the Presbytery of Bloomington, requesting the General Assembly to consider the propriety of using the term "Sabbath" instead of "Sunday" in designating our schools which are held on the Lord's day, as often as the name occurs in our official documents; because many conscientious Christians object to the use of heathen terms, when purely Scriptural terms may be had.

The Committee judge it inexpedient for the General Assembly to take action on this subject, or attempt to control the conventionalities of language in a Christian country, by any formal deliverance here. Adopted.

6. An Overture from the Presbytery of Austin in Texas, asking to be detached from the Synod of Tennessee, and made a constituent part of the Synod of Kansas; because of the great distance and inconvenient access to that part of Tennessee where the Synod usually meets, which have thus far hindered the Presbytery altogether from attending; and on the other hand, the direct communication with Kansas now established by railroad connections.

The Committee recommend that this request be granted; and that the Presbytery of Austin be a part of the Synod of Kansas, until a Synod be organized in Texas. Adopted.

7. A Memorial from David M. Wilson, of the Presbytery of Kingston, Synod of Tennessee, praying this General Assembly to give an authoritative deliverance in reference to the right of a Synod to organize a colored Presbytery territory included in Presbyteries already existing.

The Committee recommend that this request be granted; and that the authoritative deliverance be made, according to the definition of a Presbytery, in 10th Chapter and 2d Section of our Form of Government, viz.: "A Presbytery consists of all the ministers and one ruling elder from each congregation within a certain district." The General Assembly must forbid the organization of more Presbyteries than one upon the same ground; allowing no distinctions of race, or color, or language, to interfere with the unity and simplicity of that oversight which the constitution of this Church requires. Adopted.

8. Memorials, etc., relating to "W. C.s."

Pending the discussion of this Report, the hour for devotional exercises arrived. After which, the Assembly adjourned until 8 o'clock P.M.

SATURDAY, May 24th, 8 o'clock P.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer.

An Overture from the Presbytery of Ottawa was referred to the Committee on Bills and Overtures.

The Committee appointed to ascertain the answers of the Presbyteries to the Overtures sent down to them by the last General Assembly, presented their Report, which was adopted, and is as follows:

1. The Overture on the subject of limiting Appeals to the Synods, known as Overtures 2, 3, 4, on pages 93 and 94 of the Minutes of 1872, has been answered by 112 Presbyteries as follows:

69 Presbyteries answer in the affirmative,
43 do. do. do. negative.

There are 62 Presbyteries from whom no answer has been received.

The Presbyteries that reply in the affirmative are as follows: Champlain, Troy, Catawba, Chillicothe, Dayton, Portsmouth, Cleveland, Mahoning, Steubenville, Wyoming, Athens, Wooster, Clarion, Cayuga, Chemung, Wellsboro, Bloomington, Freeport, Rock River, Alton, Cairo, Muncie, Indianapolis, New-Albany, Vincennes, Cedar Rapids, Nassau, Detroit, Kalamazoo, Monroe, Montana, St. Paul, Winona, Ozark, Palmyra, St. Louis, Corisco, Elizabeth, Morris and Orange, Newark, New-Brunswick, West-Jersey, New-York, West-Chester, Los Angeles, Sacramento, San Francisco, San José, Lehigh, Philadelphia Central, Westminster, Pittsburgh, Redstone, Washington, Holston, Kingston, Union, Bellefontaine, Huron, Maumee, Binghamton, Utica, Buffalo, Rochester, Lake Superior, Wisconsin River, Iowa, Mankato, and Zanesville:—69.

The Presbyteries that answer in the negative are as follows: Baltimore, New-Castle, Washington City, Cincinnati, St. Clairsville, Colorado, Santa Fé, Columbus, Allegheny, Butler, Shenango, Kittanning, Geneva, Lyons, Carlisle, Huntingdon, Northumberland, Ottawa, Mattoon, Crawfordsville, Logansport, Dubuque, Council Bluffs, Des Moines, Ebenezer, Louisville, Brooklyn, Long Island, Jersey City, Monmouth, North-River, Chester, Lackawanna, Philadelphia, Blairsville, Austin, St. Lawrence, Syracuse, Genesee, Chippewa, Milwaukee, Winnebago, and Schuyler:—43.

2. The Overture relating to the Demission of the Ministry, has been answered by 119 Presbyteries, as follows:

45 Presbyteries answer in the affirmative,
65 do. do. do. negative,
9 do. decline to act.

Two Presbyteries (Monroe and Schuyler) answer the first section of the Overture affirmatively, which your Committee place among those that decline to act.

There are 60 Presbyteries which have sent no response whatever.

The Presbyteries that answer in the affirmative are as follows: Champlain, Troy, Chillicothe, Portsmouth, Steubenville, Allegheny, Clarion, Shenango, Northumberland, Bloomington, Freeport, Ottawa, Rock River, Cairo, Mattoon, Indianapolis, Vincennes, Cedar Rapids, Dubuque, Council Bluffs, Neosho, Topeka, Detroit, St. Paul, Winona, Ozark, St. Louis, Elizabeth, West-Jersey, New-York, Los Angeles, Sacramento, San José, Lehigh, Westminster, Pittsburgh, Huron, Maumee, Syracuse, Genesee, Rochester, Lake Superior, Milwaukee, Wisconsin River, and Iowa :—45.

The Presbyteries that answer in the negative are as follows: Catawba, Baltimore, New-Castle, Washington City, Cincinnati, Dayton, Cleveland, Mahoning, St. Clairsville, Colorado, Santa Fé, Wyoming, Athens, Columbus, Wooster, Butler, Kittanning, Cayuga, Lyons, Carlisle, Huntingdon, Wellsboro, Peoria, Alton, Crawfordsville, Logansport, Muncie, New-Albany, Des Moines, Nebraska City, Omaha, Ebenezer, Louisville, Transylvania, Brooklyn, Long Island, Nassau, Kalamazoo, Montana, Osage, Palmyra, Potosi, Jersey City, Monmouth, Morris and Orange, New-Brunswick, North River, West-Chester, San Francisco, Chester, Lackawanna, Blairsville, Redstone, Austin, Holston, Union, Bellefontaine, St. Lawrence, Utica, Buffalo, Chippewa, Winnebago, Chicago, Mankato, and Chemung :—65.

The Presbyteries that decline to act are as follows: Columbia, Geneva, Monroe, Newark, Philadelphia, Washington, Kingston, Binghamton, and Schuyler :—9.

Of these Presbyteries that decline to act, Columbia declines to act owing to the form in which the Overture is presented; Monroe and Schuyler accept the first section of the Overture; Newark thinks the Overture too ambiguous; Washington thinks it too indefinite, and requests the General Assembly to renew the Overture.

Of the Presbyteries that vote in the affirmative, Genesee requests the General Assembly, to define with greater clearness the status of a minister whose office is demitted; Detroit requests that there be a more exact statement of the status of the demitted minister as to membership in a local church, either by providing to what church he shall be considered as returning into membership, or by a letter of dismission from Presbytery to a local church.

Of the Presbyteries that vote in the negative, Cleveland objects on account of the methods proposed; Columbus and Wooster favor a judicious and practicable method by which the office of the ministry may be demitted; Osage is in "favor of the principle involved, but desires it expressed in a more intelligent way;" Monmouth thinks the Overture too indefinite; San Francisco thinks its form objectionable.

The Committee find, and therefore report, that none of the Overtures sent down by the last General Assembly have been adopted; that, in the case of the Overture relating to the Demission of the Ministry, there has been some objection to its indefiniteness and ambiguity, and that requests have come to this Assembly to have the same subject overtured again to the Presbyteries. Your Committee would recommend that these requests be referred to the Committee on Bills and Overtures.

The Standing Committee on Education presented the following report:

The Committee on Education, to whom was referred the paper of "The Trustees of Donations for Education in Liberia," find the objects therein set forth too indefinite for action by the General Assembly. They recommend, therefore, that no action be taken." Adopted.

The Committees on the Records of the Synods of Colorado and Toledo presented Reports, recommending their approval. Adopted.

The Standing Committee on Theological Seminaries presented their Report, which was adopted, and is as follows:

We have received Reports from twelve Theological Seminaries, and also several Memorials and Requests, all of which have received careful attention, and will now be reported to the Assembly in detail, together with the recommendations of the Committee in relation to them.

1. Princeton Seminary.

Reports from the Board of Directors and the Board of Trustees have been considered. These Reports will be found in full in the Appendix of the Minutes of the Assembly.

During the year, fifty-four students have been matriculated. The entire number of students in attendance, including three resident licentiates, has been 118. Thirty-six young men have received certificates of graduation. A large proportion of these have already received calls to vacant churches, or have determined upon definite fields of labor. Three have been appointed as missionaries to foreign lands. The attention to study and the conduct of the students are reported highly commendable.

The Board has elected the following persons to fill vacancies occurring in May, 1873: Ministers—William D. Snodgrass, D.D., George W. Musgrave, D.D., LL.D., Robert Hamill, D.D., Joseph T. Smith, D.D., Robert Davidson, D.D., William Adams, D.D., LL.D., Joseph T. Duryea, D.D. Elders—Robert Carter, Hon. George Sharswood, LL.D., John K. Finlay.

Also as a Director, to fill the term of the Rev. William B. Sprague, D.D., LL.D., resigned, which term ends in May, 1875, the Rev. Henry J. Van Dyke, D.D.

And to fill the term of Mr. James Donaldson, deceased, ending in May, 1875, Aaron B. Belknap, Esq.

In the Report of the Trustees, a list of the scholarships appertaining to the Seminary is included; and the Committee recommend that this list be published in the Appendix of the Minutes in connection with other statistics of this Institution.

The Trustees also report valuable additions to the library, and improvements in the library building, by means of which 14,000 additional volumes can be properly placed.

2. Auburn Seminary.

This Seminary is under the control of a Board of Trustees and a Board of Commissioners. The latter is composed of three members from each Presbytery of the Synods of Albany, Utica, Geneva, and Western New-York. At the regular annual meeting of these Boards, final action was taken, giving the Assembly a veto power in the election of Professors.

There is one vacancy in the Faculty, caused by the resignation of Rev. Jonathan B. Condit, D.D., Professor of Sacred Rhetoric and Pastoral Theology. Dr. Condit has, however, given instruction in this department during the year.

Seventeen students have been received into the Institution since the last Report. The whole number in attendance has been forty-five. Eighteen have completed the course, and have received the usual diplomas.

The complete endowment of the Seminary is now engaging the attention of the Board of Commissioners. A generous offer has been made by the Hon. Edwin B. Morgan, of Aurora, which will secure this, either in the present or in another location.

The Committee recommend to the Assembly the following action: The General Assembly welcome the action of the Board of Commissioners and the Board of Trustees of Auburn Theological Seminary, in placing that Institution upon the Assembly's plan of control, and hope that the projected endowment may be so prosecuted, as to secure enlarged usefulness and prosperity for an Institution so deservedly dear to the Presbyterian Church.

3. Union Seminary, New-York.

The Report of the Professors of this Institution shows that several changes have been made in the Faculty during the year. The Rev. Philip Schaff, D.D., has resigned the chair of Apologetics, Symbolics, and Polemics, and has been elected to the Brown Professorship of Hebrew. The Rev. George L. Prentiss, D.D., has been elected to a Professorship which has been founded and named "The Skinner and MacAlpin Professorship of Pastoral Theology, Church Polity, and Missionary Work." This chair has been fully endowed. The Rev. George W. Sheldon, after several years of successful service, has resigned the post of Instructor in Hebrew and the Cognate Languages. The old Davenport Professorship of Sacred Rhetoric and Pastoral Theology, made vacant two years ago by the death of the Rev. Thomas H. Skinner, D.D., LL.D., is now, by the action of the Board of Directors, simply a Professorship of Sacred Rhetoric. The Professorship of Apologetics, Symbolics, and Polemics, made vacant by the resignation of Dr. Schaff, is to remain in abeyance for the present. The vacant chair of Sacred Rhetoric will be filled as soon as a suitable man can be obtained for it. During the past year, the Rev. William M. Paxton, D.D., has lectured to the Senior Class on Homiletics, and the Rev. George L. Prentiss, D.D., to the middle class on Pastoral Theology.

The Annual Catalogue shows on its roll one hundred and twenty students, of whom forty have graduated. Four of these will be Foreign Missionaries, four have given themselves to the Home Mission work, and of the rest nearly half have already found places of labor.

The Library of the Seminary now contains about 33,000 volumes, chiefly rare and valuable works. Lectures on Health have been delivered by Willard Parker, M.D., on a foundation established by himself. The spiritual condition of the Seminary is reported as particularly good during the year.

Aside from the endowment of the Skinner and MacAlpin Professorship to which Dr. Prentiss has been elected, no progress has been made toward the more perfect endowment of the Seminary. For the present it will remain in its present location, but the removal to the new site on St. Nicholas Avenue will take place as soon as the necessary funds can be secured.

The Committee would recommend that the Assembly approve the election of the Rev. Philip Schaff, D.D., to the Brown Professorship of Hebrew, and of the Rev. George L. Prentiss, D.D., to the Skinner and MacAlpin Professorship of Pastoral Theology, Church Polity, and Missionary Work.

4. Western Theological Seminary.

Since the last Annual Report, twenty-four students have been matriculated. The Report of the Directors does not state the whole number who have been in attendance during the year. Twenty young men have completed the three years' course, and have received their diplomas.

The health of the students has been good, and their attention to study commendable.

In the absence of the Rev. Dr. Jacobus, during a part of the year, the Rev. Samuel M. Henderson, of Wilkinsburgh, has acted as Assistant in Biblical Literature and Exegesis. Professor Crane, of the Western University, has given instruction in Hebrew. The Rev. Dr. Halsey has also lectured a part of the year, on Practical Theology; and the venerable and Emeritus Professor, Rev. Dr. Elliot, has given instruction as his health permitted, and has performed valuable Pastoral work among the students.

The Board of Directors have decided that it is inexpedient to appoint a fifth Professor at the present time.

The death of two members of the Board is reported—the Rev. John Eagleson, D.D., and Mr. Matthew Scott.

On the 17th of April, the new fire-proof Library Hall was opened with appropriate services. It adjoins Beatty Hall on Ridge Avenue, and is fitted to accommodate 50,000 volumes.

5. Lane Seminary.

The Report of the Board of Trustees states, that the whole number of students in attendance has been forty-one; five of these graduated on the 8th inst.

There are five Professorships in this Institution. The endowment of the fifth chair has received pledges to about half the amount needed. It is expected that the balance will be secured during the present year.

The Seminary needs, in addition to its present recources, at least $75,000, for the completion of its endowment, and for the erection of new buildings.

6. Danville Seminary.

Reports have been received from the Directors and Trustees of this Institution. The Directors report, that, the difficulties in the way of their adoption of the plan of control recommended by the Assembly being removed, they have approved and adopted said plan, subject to the approval of the Assembly. The necessary changes in the present plan of the Seminary are presented, and will appear in the Appendix, and after close and careful scrutiny of them, the Committee recommend to the Assembly, that they be approved, and that the guardianship and control of the Danville Theological Seminary be remitted to the Board of Directors, as soon as the existing vacancies shall have been filled; the Assembly being still considered as the patron of the Seminary, and the fountain of its powers, and retaining a veto power in the election of its Directors and Professors, and over all the acts of the Directors in financial affairs.

The following persons comprise the class whose term of office in the Board of Directors expires at this time (May, 1873).

Ministers.	Elders.
Heman H. Allen,	William A. Downton, M.D.,
Gilbert H. Robertson, D.D.,	John G. Barrett,
John C. Randolph,	S. C. Bull,
George J. Reed,	J. B. Kinkead,
Samuel J. Niccolls, D.D.	Ormond Beatty, LL.D.

Of these persons, Dr. W. A. Downton has deceased during the year.

The Committee recommend that the following persons be chosen to fill the new term of office.

Ministers.	Elders.
Heman H. Allen,	G. W. Wiseman,
George J. Reed,	John G. Barrett,
William Torrence,	S. C. Bull,
John H. Hays, D.D.,	Ormond Beatty, LL.D.,
John C. Randolph.	John M. Crawford.

During the last vacation, at a regularly called meeting of the Board, three of the Professors, viz., Rev. Stephen Yerkes, D.D., Rev. George D. Archibald, D.D., and Rev. Samuel H. McMullin, tendered their resignations, which were accepted, the Board having waived the six months' previous notice, prescribed in the plan of the Seminary. The resignation of these Professors rendered it necessary, in the view of the Board, to close the Seminary until the meeting of the next Assembly. While the facts which led to this decision are not detailed, the records of the Boards are placed within the reach of the Assembly, and have been before your Committee.

In view of the proposed change in the plan of the Seminary, no action is recommended by the Committee in relation to the vacant Professorships.

The Committee recommend the following resolution:

Resolved, that, approving the action of the Board of Directors, and committing Danville Seminary to their control, the Assembly would affirm a deep and unabated interest in its future welfare; and, in view of the action already taken in regard to the questions at issue between the Presbyterian Churches North and South, the Assembly would express the hope, that the time may not be far distant, when all the Presbyterian churches of Kentucky may unite in their support of this Institution.

7. Seminary of the North-West.

During the year, twenty-three students have received instruction in the Seminary; of these, fifteen were new students. Five have completed their courses of study, and have received diplomas. Emphasis is laid, in the Report, upon the faithfulness and progress which have attended the work of the year.

The Directors have been enabled to increase the salaries of the Professors to a limited extent. The provision, however, is still inadequate, and the attention of the Church is called to the importance of making a suitable provision for this purpose.

During the year, the Leander P. Phelps scholarship has been endowed in the sum of $3000, yielding an income of ten per cent.

The Seminary needs the new buildings which have been referred to in former Reports, particularly a fire-proof Library and a Chapel. All the chairs of the Seminary are now efficiently filled. It is proposed to establish, upon a complete endowment, a chair of Apologetics, with the expectation that it will be filled by one of the ablest and most learned ministers of our Church.

8. North-Western Theological Seminary, German.

The Board of Directors have presented their Annual Report. Seventeen students have received instruction during the year, of whom four have been received as new students in the preparatory department. Five others have graduated and entered the work of the ministry.

The Rev. John Bantley having declined the Professorship to which he was elected a year ago, the department of Oriental and Biblical Literature has been acceptably filled by the Rev. Lesko Triest; and, at a late meeting of the Board, Mr. Triest was elected to fill the chair. It is recommended, that the Assembly approve his election. Mr. Jacob Stark, an acting Instructor, has also resigned his position.

The Report calls attention to the urgent need for an increase of the Library. But little has been accomplished during the year in the way of increasing the endowment fund; only the sum of $6882 has been added, making the present endowment $17,301. Arrangements are being perfected for the more vigorous prosecution of this matter during the coming year.

The Committee recommend to the Assembly, that the large increase of the German population in our land, and especially in the North-West, calls for the proper endowment and hearty support of this Seminary; and the Assembly earnestly commends its claims to the liberality of the Churches.

9. Newark Theological Seminary, German.

The number of students has increased from eleven to eighteen. The course of study has been readjusted, and now is intended to cover a period of five years, two in the Academic and three in the Theological department. Arrangements have been perfected for the removal of the Seminary from Newark to Bloomfield, N. J., where a suitable building has been provided and partly furnished. The endowment fund has now reached the sum of $30,000, and provision has been made for the current expenses of the year. With the spiritual blessings of the year, the increasing interest of the churches, and their increasing pecuniary contributions, and the spirit and devotion of the students, in mind, the Board express the lively hope, that this growing Institution may do much to realize our Lord's prayer, which has been adopted as the legend of the corporate seal, "that the world may believe."

10. Lincoln University, Theological Department.

By direction of the Board of Trustees, the Theological Faculty present to the Assembly their Third Annual Report.

Of one hundred and eighty students in the University, sixty are pursuing a course of preparation for the ministry.

The number of graduates is not stated.

The students are reported to have been diligent and successful in their studies. A society of evangelistic work has been established, to bring under the notice of the young men all the agencies, by which the Church is fulfilling her great commission in the world. This is virtually supplying instruction in Mission work. The whole course of instruction covers substantially the ground of other Theological Seminaries.

The Committee observe with pleasure the evidences of efficiency, progress, and prosperity, which have attended the history of this Institution; and regard it as of the utmost importance in relation to the interests of the African race in our land.

The Rev. Clement C. Dickey has been elected Professor of Hebrew and Old Testament Literature, during the year, and the Committee recommend that the Assembly approve the election.

11. San Francisco Theological Seminary.

The second year of this Seminary commenced on the 12th of August, 1872, and closed on the 15th of the present month. Six students have been in attendance. Two of these have already entered the ministry.

The Professors are as yet acting only as a Provisional Faculty. There being no salary provided for either of the four chairs, their services are given gratuitously.

The Directors have made some efforts for the endowment of the Seminary. A conditional pledge has been made by the First Presbyterian Church of Oakland, for the endowment of the Chair of Ecclesiastical History. The Rev. William Wallace Brier has been acting as Agent on the Pacific coast during part of the year, and reports collections and subscriptions to the amount of $16,542. This is exclusive of the donation of the First Church of Oakland, which is supposed to be about $5000.

The Rev. Dr. Cunningham has devoted several months to the same object, chiefly in Baltimore and Philadelphia, and reports collections and subscriptions to the amount of about $50,000. Dr. Cunningham is expected to continue his efforts in this section during the fall, and the Directors express the hope, that at least $50,000 more may be secured, which entire sum will enable the Seminary to enter vigorously upon its great work.

Several hundred volumes have already been gathered as the nucleus of a Library.

The Committee would recommend that the Assembly express its deep sense of the importance of a prompt and generous endowment of this infant Institution on the Pacific Coast, and commend its appeal to the confidence and liberality of our churches.

12. Blackburn University, Theological Department.

Ten students have been connected with the theological course during the present year. Three of this number are expected to gradnate in the course of the next month. They have been already licensed by the Presbytery of Alton. The number of Professors in this Department is at present two, viz., Rev. John W. Bailey, D.D., Professor of Theology, and Rev. Albert P. Bissel, A.M., Professor of Hebrew and Church History. The studies of the entire course are divided between these two teachers. In addition to the present endowment of this University, which amounts to two hundred thousand dollars, it is estimated, that at least one hundred thousand more are required to enable it to do its work well. Measures will be taken to secure this amount speedily. The general interests of education, and the special interests of the Presbyterian Church in Central and Southern Illinois, demand that the University should be properly and promptly endowed.

The attention of the Committee has been directed to the claims of the Biddle Memorial Institute.

This Institution is located at Charlotte, North-Carolina, and is designed for the training of colored preachers, catechists, and teachers, for their own race.

It is at present under the control of the Assembly's Committee for Freedmen; but the desire has been strongly expressed, that it may receive the recognition of the Assembly, and be placed on its list of Theological Seminaries.

The Institute is the only one of its grade under the care of our Church, as yet founded in the Southern States; and its position is one of great importance, as the field before it is broad and needy in the extreme.

Its claims seem to be substantiated by the fact, that, in the Synod of Atlantic alone, there are already 82 churches, nearly all colored, averaging 90 members apiece, and as yet there are but about a dozen colored ministers to supply them.

The Faculty consists of Rev. Stephen Mattoon, D.D., Rev. John H. Shedd, and Mr. S. J. Beatty, Professors, and Mr. F. H. Robinson, Instructor in the Primary Department. Ninety-six students have been in attendance this year, twelve of whom are in the theological course.

The urgent wants of the Institute are, especially, endowments and buildings. The present endowment amounts to only $8500.

The Committee recommend, that the Assembly commend this Institution to the generous liberality of our churches, and include it in its regular list of Theological Seminaries, as soon as the official action of its Board of Trustees to this effect is presented to the Assembly.

Memorials and Requests.

Several Memorials have been referred to your Committee, asking for the establishment of a Missionary Professorship in each of our Theological Seminaries. From all these papers it is made evident, that there is a deep and wide-spread interest in regard to this subject. And your Committee find that Union Seminary, New-York, has already connected instruction in Mission work with a recently established Professorship. Auburn has long maintained a Society of Inquiry furnishing monthly news, directly from mission fields, as to the best method of conducting the work. Moreover, the occupants of the chairs of Church History and Pastoral Theology have been always accustomed to give instruction on this subject. The Faculty of Lane express their entire willingness to give all the instruction in this Department, which is consistent with their other duties.

San Francisco is ready to do the same, until such time as the means shall be provided for a special Professorship. No doubt, other Institutions are already engaged in the same line of teaching, as far as in their power at present. Now, while we cannot reasonably expect all our Seminaries to establish separate Professorships for Missionary Instruction, yet we deem it highly important, that all should give some special instruction on the subject, in the time and way most accordant with their course of study.

Therefore the Committee recommend, that the General Assembly hereby approve the efforts now making in several of our Theological Seminaries to provide special instruction on all the practical subjects, involved in the successful prosecution of the Mission work, and recommend all the Seminaries under the charge of the Assembly to provide for this matter, as fully as the means at their command will allow.

An Overture has also been referred to your Committee, asking that the Assembly recommend to our Theological Seminaries, to give instruction to their students in the ordinary rules of parliamentary law. The Committee recommend, that the Assembly comply with the request, and that Instructors in our Seminaries be directed to give the subject suitable attention.

The General Assembly are also requested to call the attention of our Theological Professors to the deficiency of many candidates for the ministry in a knowledge of the shorter Catechism, and to their inability, in many cases, to give proofs in the language of Scripture to establish the doctrines of religion.

The Committee recommend that the Instructors in all our Seminaries be directed to impress the importance of such catechetical and Scriptural knowledge upon their students, and to examine them with special reference to these points.

In view of the great diversity existing at present in the method of rendering the Annual Reports to the Assembly, the Committee recommend that the Assembly call attention to this diversity, and invite those interested in making the Reports, to consider whether some uniform plan can be devised.

The Committee notice with pleasure the testimony given, in most of the Reports, to the unusually high scholarship and character of the students now in our Theological Seminaries.

The Committee on Correspondence presented the Report of the Rev. Edwin F. Hatfield, D.D., and Rev. J. Hatfield Frazee, the Delegates to the General Synod of the Reformed Church in America;

Also, the Report of the Rev. Emilius Grand-Girard, the Delegate to the Reformed Synod of France;

Also, the Report of the Rev. Tryon Edwards, D.D., Rev. T. Carter

Kirkwood, and Elder W. P. Lynde, the Delegation to the General Assembly of the Welsh Calvinistic Presbyterian Church; which were accepted and placed on file.

Also, a communication from the Delegation of the General Assembly of the Canada Presbyterian Church, expressing their inability to attend, and conveying the fraternal salutations of that body; which was read and placed on file.

The consideration of the Report of the Committee on the Polity of the Church, relative to the Designation of Ministers, was resumed, and, after discussion, was referred to a Special Committee (the Moderator being the Chairman), consisting of the Rev. Robert R. Booth, D.D., Rev. Herrick Johnson, D.D., Rev. James M. Platt, Rev. James W. Hanna, and Rev. John H. Shedd.

The Committee on Correspondence presented a Report, nominating Delegates to Corresponding Bodies, which, after slight amendments, was adopted as follows:

1. To the General Assembly of the Free Church of Scotland—the Rev. William C. Roberts, D.D., Rev. Henry C. McCook, Rev. David A. Cunningham, Elder William C. Canfield.

2. To the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland—the Rev. Robert R. Booth, D.D., Rev. Alexander Reed, D.D., Rev. John Ewing, Elder Robert Carter.

3. To the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in Ireland—the Rev. John McMillan, D.D., Rev. William Hutton, Rev. Henry E. Niles, Elder J. C. Gallup, M.D.

4. To the Synod of the Presbyterian Church of Great Britain and Ireland—the Rev. Henry J. Van Dyke, D.D., Rev. David X. Junkin, D.D., Rev. George F. Wiswell, D.D., Elder Redick McKee.

5. To the General Assembly of the Canada Presbyterian Church—the Rev. John James, Rev. Wolcott Calkins, Rev. Robert Morton, Elder Louis Chapin.

6. To the Synod of the Presbyterian Church in Canada in connection with the Church of Scotland—the Rev. William Hogarth, D.D., Rev. George D. Baker, Elder Hon. Jacob S. Farrand.

7. To the General Synod of the Reformed Church in America—the Rev. William Adams, D.D., LL.D., Rev. William M. Paxton, D.D., Rev. Arthur T. Pierson, Elder William H. Jessup.

8. To the General Assembly of the United Presbyterian Church of North-America—the Rev. Robert W. Patterson, D.D., Rev. James R. Miller, Rev. J. Lovejoy Robertson.

9. To the General Synod of the Evangelical Lutheran Church of the United States—the Rev. Henry Smith, D.D., Rev. Thomas H. Skinner, D.D., Rev. Oscar A. Hills, Elder Hon. Edward D. Mansfield, LL.D.

10. To the Synod of the Presbyterian Church in the Lower Provinces of British North-America—and to the Synod of the Presbyterian Church in the Lower Provinces in connection with the Church of Scotland—the Rev. L. Merrill Miller, D.D., Rev. Charles L. Thompson, Rev. Charles H. Bulkley.

11. To the General Assembly of the Welsh Calvinistic Presbyterian Church in North-America—the Rev. Henry L. Hitchcock, D.D., Rev. William E. Moore, Rev. Jeremiah P. E. Kumler.

12. To the General Assembly of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church—the Rev. Charles A. Dickey, Rev. John S. Hays, D.D., Rev. Robert M. Overstreet.

13. To the General Synod of the Reformed Church in France—the Rev. Nathaniel W. Conkling, D.D., Elder Hon. William E. Dodge.

14. To the Synod of the Free Church of Italy—the Rev. Nathaniel C. Burt, D.D.

15. To the Synod of the Waldensian Church—the Rev. Philip Schaff, D.D., Rev. Edward B. Walsworth, D.D.

16. To the National Council of Congregational Churches in the United States of America—the Rev. Howard Crosby, D.D., LL.D., Rev. Joseph Fewsmith, D.D., Rev. Hanford A. Edson, Elder Hon. Horace Maynard.

The Committee would repeat the recommendation of the last Assembly, that the Committee of Arrangements be requested to set apart the evening of the second Thursday of the Assembly's sessions to the reception and hearing of Delegates from Corresponding Bodies, in order that such Delegates may know in advance when they are expected to appear.

And the Committee further recommend, that any vacancies occurring, where brethren, designated to represent our Assembly before Corresponding Bodies, are unable to meet their appointments, may be filled by other appointments, made by a Committee, consisting of the Moderator of the Assembly, with the Stated and Permanent Clerks.

The Committee would further report, that communications have been received from the following Delegations to Corresponding Bodies:

1. From the Delegation to the several Corresponding Assemblies of the Free Church of Scotland, Church of Scotland, Presbyterian Church in Ireland, and the Synod of the United Presbyterian Church of Great Britain and Ireland;

2. From the Delegation to the General Synod of the Reformed Church in America;

3. From the Delegation to the General Assembly of the Canada Presbyterian Church, and to the Synod of the Presbyterian Church in Canada in connection with the Church of Scotland;

4. From the Delegation to the General Synod of the Reformed Church in France;

5. From the Delegation to the General Assembly of the Welsh Presbyterian Church.

In every case, these brethren appointed to represent our Assembly in Corresponding Bodies report, that they have been most kindly and cordially welcomed; and in some cases they have been met with enthusiasm, and steps have been taken in response which justify the hope of closer fraternal and organic union with these sister Bodies.

A resolution, relative to the increase of the number of Candidates for the Ministry, was presented and referred to the Committee on Bills and Overtures.

Adjourned until Monday next, at 9 o'clock A.M.
Concluded with prayer.

MONDAY, May 26th, 9 o'clock A.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer.

The minutes of the sessions of Saturday were read and approved.

The Committee on the Narrative of the State of Religion presented their Report; and the Record of Ministers deceased during the year was presented by the Stated Clerk, followed by prayer. The Report was adopted and ordered to be printed, duly certified, in the Appendix to the Minutes of the Assembly.

The Special Committee, to whom was referred the Report of the Committee of 1871 on the Book of Praise, submitted a Majority and also a Minority Report.

After considerable discussion, the Majority Report was adopted as follows:

The Special Committee to whom was referred the Report of the Committee on the Book of Praise would respectfully submit:

That they have examined the matter submitted to them, and made careful inquiry into their plans and operations, and, as far as they can judge, have reason to believe they are progressing as fast as possible toward the production of a collection of Sanctuary Songs that shall meet the great want of the Presbyterian Church. That they have great confidence in the taste, ability, and zeal of the Committee engaged in its production. Therefore,

Resolved, That we approve of the plan and progress of the work, and recommend that they be instructed to proceed with its compilation; and, under the direction of the Committee, the Board of Publication stereotype and publish the same.

It was also resolved,

That the Committee be instructed to select and include at least twelve Psalms from the Revised Version of Rouse, as used in the United Presbyterian Church.

Also, to publish an edition without tunes.

The Standing Committee on Publication, to whom was referred an Overture from the Presbytery of Freeport, respecting the Colportage Work of the Board of Publication, reported, recommending that the Overture be answered as follows: 1. That the Assembly have already taken all needed action in regard to detailed statements of the expenditures of the several Boards. 2. That the value of the statistics required does not warrant the expense of procuring and publishing them. Adopted.

The consideration of the Report of the Standing Committee on Church Erection, in respect to Manses, was resumed.

After discussion, it was resolved,

That the Report on Manses be returned to the Standing Committee on Church Erection, with instructions to report as follows:

1. To discharge the Committee on Manses with a just tribute to their very valuable services, and heartiest thanks of this Assembly.

2. To pay all the obligations of the Assembly to this Committee up to the present time.

3. To transfer the work of this Committee to the Board of Church Erection, with positive instructions that it be efficiently prosecuted.

The Standing Committee on the Polity of the Church presented a further Report, as follows:

10. A Memorial from the church of Reem's Creek, in the Presbytery of Catawba, Synod of Atlantic, setting forth the extreme inconvenience of their geographical connection with the Presbytery to which they belong, and praying to be set over to the Presbytery of Holston in the Synod of Tennessee.

The Committee, finding no objection made on any side to this request, and deeming it necessary for this church to have connection with a Presbytery they could attend, recommend that it be granted. Adopted.

11. An Overture from the Synod of Pittsburgh, asking the General Assembly to transfer the church of Homer, in the Presbytery of Kittanning, Synod of Erie, to the Presbytery of Blairsville, Synod of Pittsburgh, because that church desired to unite in one pastoral charge with the church of Black Lick, in the territory of Blairsville.

The Committee receiving information that the reason for this Overture has ceased to exist since it was ordered by the Synod, and that objection would be made on the part of Commissioners from the Presbytery of Kittanning, recommend that it be not granted for the present. Adopted.

12. A Memorial from the Eastern Convention of German Presbyterian Ministers and Elders, convened in Allegheny, Pennsylvania, representing the lack of organization among German Presbyterians, the defect of missionary operations, the want of prompt and adequate attention to emigrants when they arrive, and the importance of more Church periodicals and Sabbath-school papers in the German language.

The Committee would give the same reply to the application for a German Presbytery, that was given to the application for a colored Presbytery, and would refer the application for more efficient denominational work among the emigrants at the great points of immigration, viz., Castle Garden, Baltimore, etc., to the Boards of Home Missions and Publication, recommending the special attention of these Boards to this call. Adopted.

13. A Memorial from the Synod of Illinois, Central, and one from the Presbytery of Ottawa in connection with the Synod of Illinois North, requesting that the boundary line between these Synods be changed, so as to include the two townships of Osage and Groveland, in the County of La Salle, within the territory of the Synod of Illinois, Central.

The Committee recommend that this request be granted. Adopted.

14. On the subject of Unemployed Ministers, in connection with the Report referred to them by the Assembly, the consideration of which was postponed until to-morrow, that it may be printed in the Assembly Journal.

15. An Overture on imperfectly organized churches, presented by one of the Commissioners from the Presbytery of Champlain, asking the Assembly to adopt the following Preamble and Resolution :

Whereas, at the time of Reunion, the General Assembly declared their expectation that the imperfectly organized churches, brought thereby under its supervision, should endeavor to perfect their organization within the term of five years ; and

Whereas, that term being now near its close, it is deemed preëminently desirable, that all necessary action should be undertaken as soon as possible in such churches, toward their proper coöperation in every department of Presbyterial work ; therefore,

Resolved, That the Presbyteries, within whose bounds such churches with imperfect organization are found, be and are hereby called upon to consult and coöperate with the ministers and members of such churches, as to those measures which may speedily be undertaken for the harmonious completion of their organization, whereby they may be brought into full organic union with the Presbyterian Church.

The Committee recommend that this paper be adopted as a minute of this General Assembly. Adopted.

16. Preamble and Resolution relative to a union with the Reformed Church in America.

Pending the discussion, the hour of twelve arrived, and, in order to visit Annapolis, according to invitation and a previous resolution, the Assembly adjourned until to-morrow, at 9 o'clock A.M.

Closed with prayer.

TUESDAY, May 27th, 9 o'clock A.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer.

The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

The Judicial Committee presented the following Supplementary Report.

10. Case of C. J. Abbott. In the year 1860, Mr. Abbott was tried, on what was declared to be a charge of common fame, by the Presbytery of St. Louis, and deposed from his office as a minister of the gospel. The Synod, at a meeting in the same year, confirmed the action of the Presbytery. Mr. Abbott gave notice of an appeal to the General Assembly, and the papers were properly authenticated, and sent to a minister who had been elected a Commissioner to the next Assembly, who promised to present them ; but he was taken sick, so that he could not attend, and neglected to forward them. Soon after, Mr. Abbott had paralysis, and ever since has been feeble and poor, so that the case was not prosecuted before the Presbytery of St. Louis withdrew from the jurisdiction of the General Assembly, and the Synod was no longer in existence as at the time of his trial.

Mr. Abbott declares his personal allegiance to this Assembly, as far as he can be permitted to express allegiance, and that, had he remained a member of the Presbytery, he should not have gone with the majority ; and now brings this statement, and various papers accompanying it, to this Assembly, for consideration with a view to his relief.

From these papers your Committee learn the following facts respecting his trial before the Presbytery:

1. While the charges were based on Common Fame, efforts were made for more than a year to obtain some basis of complaint; and on one occasion, on receipt of an anonymous letter offering to give information, a Committee was appointed "to ferret out" the matter and learn grounds for a charge.

2. The grounds of the principal charges were matters of from eight to ten years' standing.

3. Witnesses were called and allowed to testify, whose names had not been given the defendant in the citation, and against his protest. In one instance, these were several in number.

4. Persons prominent in the prosecution were notoriously prejudiced against the defendent.

5. Efforts were made to intimidate those who might be inclined to sustain the defendant.

All these items the Committee think to be distinctly opposed to the instructions of our Book of Discipline. Moreover, the trial was at an adjourned meeting, when comparatively few members were present; and it was prosecuted, notwithstanding his physician certified that Mr. Abbott was too ill to attend with safety; and questions deemed important to the cause of the defendant were repeatedly ruled out.

For these reasons, the Committee recommend that Mr. Abbott have a rehearing, and that he be referred to the Presbytery of Cleveland, within the bounds of which he now resides, with instructions to that Presbytery to adjudicate the case.

The Report was adopted.

The Committee on Concerts of Prayer presented the following Report and Recommendations, which were adopted.

The Committee on Concerts of Prayer respectfully report the following recommendations, which are for the most part simply the reaffirmation of the action of previous Assemblies, for adoption by this body:

The Assembly earnestly recommend, that all our churches unite in the observance of the week, beginning with the first Sabbath of the year 1874, as a special season of united prayer throughout the Christian world, and among Christians in Mohammedan and Pagan lands, in behalf of the universal interests of the Redeemer's kingdom.

In the memorable year 1857, eight beloved and useful Presbyterian missionaries in Northern India, Messrs. Freeman, Campbell, McMullin, and Johnson, with their wives and the two children of Mr. and Mrs. Campbell, were massacred by the bloodthirsty Nena Sahib. The surviving missionaries in that far-off land, undismayed by the fate of their brethren, proposed, as a kind of memorial to these martyrs, that a week in January of each year be devoted to united supplication for a lost world. It will be observed, therefore, that in its original design the week of prayer had primary and principal reference to the progress of missions among the heathen. It is to be feared that, in the course of these last six years, this grand original design has in a measure been lost sight of, and that the subjects and objects of prayer during this sacred week have, in becoming general, become also vague and indefinite. While regard may be properly given to all means for converting the world, and to all fields of Christian labor at home and abroad, it is to be hoped that, during this week of prayer, we shall give greater prominence to those specific objects originally contemplated in the appointment of such a week, and not lose sight of those beloved and faithful men and women, who have given their lives to the work of preaching the gospel in benighted lands, and of establishing churches and schools where the name of Christ was hitherto unknown. In view of the grand and glorious results which have thus far attended and followed this observance, the Assembly regard its claims upon our churches as of the highest importance.

2. The Assembly further recommend that the Day of Prayer for Colleges, Seminaries, and Schools be the last Thursday of January, according to the action of the two previous Assemblies.

3. That the churches uniformly observe one evening each month as a Monthly Concert of Prayer for the Conversion of the World, and, as far as practicable, the first prayer evening of each month.

4. That the request of the International Young Men's Christian Association be complied with, making the second Sabbath of November of each year a Day of Special Prayer for Young Men, their deliverance from temptation, and their consecration to Christ.

5. That the Wednesday evening, immediately preceding the opening of each Assembly, be recommended as a Concert of Prayer for the blessing of God on the deliberations and decisions of our highest church court.

6. That the first Tuesday evening of the Assembly's sessions be observed throughout the Church as a Concert of Prayer on behalf of Home Missions; and the first Wednesday evening of the sessions be similarly appropriated to a Concert of Prayer for Foreign Missions; inasmuch as, on these respective days, the Assembly is to be occupied with the consideration of the great claims of these respective objects.

The consideration of the Report of the Standing Committee on Sustentation was resumed, and after discussion was adopted as follows:

The Committee, to whom was referred the Report of the General Assembly's Committee on Ministerial Sustentation, have examined that Report carefully, and take pleasure in commending it to the particular attention of this Body. We find in it new evidence of the wisdom of the Assembly in organizing, and of the Committee in administering, the Sustentation scheme. And, in the facts which that Report embraces, your Committee discover a sufficient answer to those objections which this enterprise has encountered. Theories may be propounded of very plausible character, favorable to the Sustentation plan, or unfavorable; but what the Church wants to know is, how the plan is actually working? What is it now doing, and what has it done? And these questions, as it seems to us, are very fully answered in the Committee's Report.

In considering these statements, however, we ought to remember that this scheme is comparatively a new one; that, with our reverence for what is established, we naturally meet every new enterprise with something of doubt; and that, for a large part of the past year, such doubts have so been pushed, as to create a widespread impression that, at this meeting of the General Assembly, the Sustentation scheme would be either merged in some other work, or essentially modified, if, indeed, it were not quite abandoned. It would not be strange, therefore, if, for the year just closed, your Committee had found themselves seriously embarrassed in their work.

In spite of these difficulties, however, 308 ministers have sought and obtained the relief which this scheme contemplates, and the receipts of the Treasury from the churches have been a little more than $60,000. This amount, it is true, was not sufficient to meet the whole outlay of the Committee for the year, but it was sufficient to show that the cause was not forgotten; and a surplus of about $22,000, reported a year ago, relieved the Treasury, so that we are happy to state, that the Committee enter upon a new year with a working capital of about $12,000.

The working of this scheme, in one direction at least, may be judged by the following excerpts from the reports of men under the care of this Committee: Rev. John A. Brown, West-Liberty, Virginia, says, "We shall be self-supporting in one year more." Rev. George S. J. Browne, of Morrow, Ohio, "We have reached self-support already"; and Rev. David Deruelle, of Audenried, Pennsylvania, says, "Salary doubled, contributions to the Boards increased 200 per cent, besides $200 to our Sabbath-school." One church, that of Rev. J. King Gibson, of Jackson, Ohio, reports, "Self-supporting for the first time, the church being thirty-seven years old, and will contribute liberally to all the Boards, never done before." Several pages of the Committee's Report are filled with brief statements of this character; and, beside this individual testimony, we have various ecclesiastical bodies, Synods, or Presbyteries, certifying to their approbation of the scheme. Among these is the Presbytery of Lackawanna, five of whose churches have been provided with settled pastors under this plan, which says, "These churches collectively pay about 40 per cent more for the support of the ministry among themselves than before; . . . and their contributions to the Church Boards have, in the aggregate, become about three times as much as before."

The Committee on Sustentation have received reports from about 200 of the churches under their care, showing that by the working of this scheme there has been a great advance in both these particulars. These 200 churches raised for the support of the ministry among themselves, during the year previous to adopting this plan, $85,000; but, their first year under this plan, they raised $110,000. The same churches, the previous year, raised for the Boards of the Church $6000, and, for the first year under the scheme, $20,000. And, if the churches, from whom reports are yet to be received, shall maintain this average, as there is no reason to doubt, the net increase for a single year, on the field occupied by this Committee, will be about $58,500, or within less than $2000 of all the money the 308 men in the service of the Committee have drawn from the Treasury.

Such is the financial working of this scheme. So much is tangible, visible, capable of being measured; but there are other results not less important. We are more than gratified in looking down the column of "hopeful conversions" in the Report, to observe in so many cases evidence of the presence of the Holy Spirit in these churches. And, when we think of the pastorates happily constituted, and the relief carried to so many of our brave but suffering ministers by this agency, we still again thank God and take courage.

As the result of our study of this Report, therefore, we are unanimously of the conviction, that this scheme is one of the very highest importance to our Church; that its administration has been prudent and able; and that it should no longer be regarded in the light of an experiment, but fully established as a part of the settled policy of the Church.

We recommend the adoption of the following Resolutions, as expressing the mind of this Assembly:

1. That the Sustentation scheme has the confidence of this Assembly, as a wisely formed and well-conducted plan, and that it is no longer to be regarded as a mere experiment.

2. That our churches are required to make regular annual contributions to its Treasury.

3. That the thanks of this Assembly are due to the Rev. Melancthon W. Jacobus, D.D., LL.D., for his gratuitous, self-denying, laborious, and very efficient services during the year as Secretary of the Sustentation Committee; and that he is hereby reappointed to that office.

4. That the surviving members of the Committee, viz., Rev. Melancthon W. Jacobus, D.D., LL.D., Rev. James McCosh, D.D., LL.D., Rev. Franklin A. Noble, D.D., Rev. James Allison, D.D., Rev. Sylvester F. Scovil, Hon. James K. Morehead, David Robinson, and Jacob D. Vermilye be reappointed; and in place of Hon. Hugh N. McAllister, deceased, Henry Ivison, of New-York; also that Mr. J. B. Roberts be added to the Committee.

The Joint Committee of Home Missions and Sustentation presented a Report, which was adopted as follows:

At a meeting, in Joint Committee, of the Standing Committees on Home Missions and Sustentation, the following action was taken in regard to the Overture of the Board of Home Missions to the General Assembly, and referred to this Committee:

Inasmuch as the difficulty found in the particular relations of the Board of Home Missions, and the Committee on Sustentation, which has been referred to this Committee, hinges mainly upon this point, viz., the breaking up of the grouping of churches under one minister:

Therefore, this Committee recommend the following resolutions:

1. That each Presbytery be enjoined to use the utmost care in all cases where groupings of churches are to be broken up; and that, so far as practicable, the Presbyterial Committees on Home Missions and Sustentation consult together as to all such cases before action of the Presbytery.

2. That the Stated Clerk of Presbytery be enjoined, in cases of any transfer from either Board, to notify promptly the Board from under whose care the church is taken.

The Report of the Special Committee on Union with other Evangelical Churches was made the order of the day for 7½ o'clock P.M.

The Committee on Mileage presented their Report, which, after amendment, was adopted as follows:

The Committee on Mileage respectfully report as follows:

First. Out of one hundred and fifty-three (153) Presbyteries, which number excludes a part of the Freedmen and Foreign Presbyteries, one hundred and fifty-three (153) have reported themselves to your Committee, and paid their assessments in full, leaving not a delinquent Presbytery, nor a single deficient dollar. And two of these Presbyteries, Boston and Oregon, the farthest East, and the farthest West, have overpaid their assessments—an irregularity which your Committee assumed to permit without express authority.

Second. One hundred and fifty-eight (158) Presbyteries, which number includes the Freedmen and a few Foreign Presbyteries, have presented to your Committee claims for mileage, amounting to the sum of $23,741.20, which claims have been paid in full.

Third. The Treasurer of the Assembly requires of your Committee, in addition to the balance in his hands, and the amount likely to be received from the sale of Minutes, the sum of $3377, with which to meet the current expenses of the year, and this sum has also been provided for, leaving a net balance of $568.30.

Fourth. The following is a summary of your Committee's receipts and disbursements:

Received from Presbyteries,		$27,693 50
Paid Commissioners,	$23,741 20
Incidental Expenses,	7 00
Total Expenditures,		23,748 20
Balance,		$3,945 30

Fifth. In view of these satisfactory statements, wherein it appears, and for the first time since the adoption of our present system of mileage assessments, that every Presbytery has come square up to the front, and made for itself a clean record, it may seem quite unnecessary for your Committee to express their abiding confidence in the system itself. And yet, inasmuch as they have heard, from one or two brethren of position and influence, casual expressions, which would seem to indicate a desire to get back to the old-fashioned plan of letting each Presbytery take care of itself, and defray the expenses of its own Commissioners, your Committee would take this opportunity of saying that, in their opinion, and as they believe in the opinion of a very large majority of this Assembly, and of the Church, our present system of Presbyterial assessments, whereby to provide for the traveling and contingent expenses of the General Assembly, is by far the wisest and best ever yet devised by our own, or any similar body. And they are informed, that the higher judicatories of some of our sister churches are adopting a like plan and with great success.

Sixth. There is yet, however, an apparent defect in this system, which, if not remedied, may tend to bring it into disfavor, although the real source of the difficulty lies not so much in the system itself, as in the Assembly, and in the plan and basis of representation upon which it is constituted. Some of our Western and Southern Presbyteries are exceedingly small; for instance, the three which, according to our last statistical record, composed a certain synod, contained in all but five hundred and sixty communicants. The churches of the city of Philadelphia might be organized into twenty-seven such Pres-byteries, and nine Synods, and each of such Presbyteries would compose a membership more than ten times as large as the smallest of these three. And these small Presbyteries are entitled, of course, to their full representation in the Assembly; but their bills of expenses are necessarily large, and large in almost an inverse proportion, and they form no inconsiderable item in the aggregate account. As paid by the Assembly, under our present system, these bills attract attention and excite comment; but if paid by the Presbyteries, or by the Commissioners themselves, it would be but shifting the burden and keeping it out of sight, whilst the actual tax on the Church will be just as real and just as heavy, although not quite so apparent. The true and radical remedy for this state of affairs might, perhaps, be found in a modification of our representative basis, or of our entire representative system, or in some restriction upon the multiplication of these small Presbyteries; but all such questions as these lie entirely beyond the jurisdiction of this Committee; they merely suggest them, hoping that, at this or some future Asssembly, they may be referred to some proper Committee, and receive due consideration.

A partial and temporary remedy, or rather relief, may, however, be found in limiting the amount which any one Commissioner to the Assembly shall receive from the mileage fund.

Seventh. Your Committee feel that it would be unwise and unsafe to make any reduction in the rate of assessments for the ensuing year. The receipts of the Assembly of 1872, after the payment of the entire expenses of the year, left a balance of some $3000 in the hands of the Treasurer: and were it not for this balance, the receipts of the present Assembly, though larger than ever before by $2808.38, would have been insufficient, and your Committee would have been under the unpleasant necessity of deducting a percentage from the Commissioners' claims.

Eighth. Your Committee would therefore present the following resolutions and recommend their adoption:

Resolved 1. That the mileage assessment, for the General Assembly of 1874, be and is fixed at seven cents per member.

Resolved 2. That the suggestions and directions of the Assembly of 1870 (Minutes, pp. 59, 60), and of the Assembly of 1872 (Minutes, pp. 84, 85), are by this Assembly confirmed and renewed, and a prompt and faithful compliance therewith in the future, after their own present example, is earnestly urged upon the Presbyteries and churches.

Resolved 3. That the Mileage Committee be, and are hereby, directed to pay to the Treasurer the balance remaining in their hands.

The thanks of the Assembly were cordially tendered to the Mileage Committee, for their faithful, abundant, and successful labors.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures presented the following Report:

Class No. 2. Overtures from the Presbyteries of New-Brunswick, Chippewa, and Philadelphia, asking that an Overture be sent to the Presbyteries to amend Chapter XIII., Section 2, of the Form of Government. The proposed amendment has reference to the limited term service in the eldership.

It is recommended that the following Overture be sent down to the Presbyteries for their action:

Shall Chapter XIII., Section 2, of the Form of Government be changed, so as to read as follows: "Every congregation shall elect persons to the office of Ruling Elder and to the office of Deacon, or either of them, in the mode, and for the term of service, most approved and in use in that congregation"?

After discussion, the Report was recommitted to the Committee on Bills and Overtures to report after the recess.

The Preamble and Resolution, under consideration yesterday, relative to a union with the Reformed Church in America, were then unanimously adopted, as follows:

Whereas, We have long enjoyed fraternal relations with the General Synod of the Reformed Church in America, commonly known as the Reformed (Dutch) Church, a Body holding the same doctrines and polity with ourselves; and whereas we have reason to believe that an organic relation with said Church would be to the honor of Christ, our one Lord and Head, the extension of his visible kingdom, and the better establishment of our common Presbyterianism, therefore be it

Resolved, That a Committee of nine be appointed to meet a similar Committee from the General Synod of the Reformed Church, in case such Committee shall be appointed by that body at its approaching sessions, for the purpose of conferring in regard to the desirableness and practicability of union between the two Churches, and report to the next General Assembly.

The Moderator announced the Committee as follows: the Rev. William Adams, D.D., LL.D., the Rev. George W. Musgrave, D.D., LL.D., the Rev. Henry Darling, D.D., the Rev. Melancthon W. Jacobus, D.D., LL.D., the Rev. Arthur Mitchell, and the Elders George Junkin, Esq., Winthrop S. Gilman, William Rust, and Albert Small.

The Assembly took a recess.

After the recess,

The Committees on the Records of the Synod of Cincinnati, and the Records of the Synod of Philadelphia, severally reported, recommending that they be approved, as far as written. Adopted.

A Memorial from the Presbytery of Elizabeth, on The Sabbath, was referred to the Special Committee on The Sabbath.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures reported the Overture on the Eldership without any change from its original form.

The following substitute for this Report of the Committee on Bills and Overtures was adopted:

Resolved, 1. That all Overtures and Papers concerning the office of Ruling Elder be referred to a Committee of Seven, who shall report to the next General Assembly an Overture to the Presbyteries proposing a change in the Form of Government.

2. That members of this Assembly, and all persons interested in the question, are invited to submit their opinions and arguments, in writing or in print, to this Committee, through their Chairman, previous to January 1st, 1874.

The Assembly proceeded to the consideration of the Judicial Case reported by the Judicial Committee, and made the order of the day for this morning; when, after considerable discussion and deliberation, it was Resolved, That the case be remitted to the Synod, with instructions to issue the case.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures reported the following answer to Overtures from the Presbyteries of Elizabeth and Erie with regard to the column in the Minutes reporting ministers' salaries:

That it is inexpedient at present to make any change.

The following was adopted as a substitute for the Committee's Report:

Resolved, That hereafter the column for ministers' salaries be omitted from the Minutes.

The following additional resolutions were adopted:

1. That the column for Miscellaneous Contributions be restored.

2. That, in the enumeration of Sabbath-school membership, officers and teachers be included.

3. That the directions for making out Statistical Reports, on page 589 of the Minutes of 1871, be printed in full on the blanks issued to our Presbyteries and Churches.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures presented the following Reports:

Nos. 8, 9. In response to an overture from the Presbytery of Alton, and another from the Presbytery of Northumberland, on the subject of a New and Final Court of Appeals, the Committee on Bills and Overtures recommend the appointment, by the Moderator, of a Committee of Seven, to whom the whole matter shall be submitted, with directions that they complete their report, and have it printed in the religious papers of our body, sixty days before the meeting of the next General Assembly; and, also, that they present the same within the first two days of the meeting of that Body.

The Committee were appointed as follows: Rev. George W. Musgrave, D.D., LL.D., Rev. Henry A. Nelson, D.D., Rev. Francis L. Patton, Rev. James O. Murray, D.D., Hon. Joseph Allison, LL.D., Hon. Truman P. Handy, and Henry Day, Esq.

No. 10. An Overture from the Presbytery of Emporia with regard to Church Work. It is recommended that this Overture, and a similar one from the Presbytery of Topeka, be referred to the Committee on the Consolidation of the Boards, for their consideration. Adopted.

Nos. 12 and 13. From the Presbyteries of Genesee and Buffalo, with reference to the relations between the Boards of Home Missions and Sustentation. As the Assembly has already taken action on this subject, no further deliverance is now necessary. Adopted.

No. 11. From the Presbytery of Emporia, in reference to the preparation of a work for the Centennial. It is recommended, that it be answered by referring the Presbytery to the action already taken in reference to the Centennial Celebration. Adopted.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures, also, presented the following resolution, which was adopted:

Resolved, That all Committees appointed by this Assembly to report to the next Assembly, be instructed to publish in the religious papers, at least six weeks previous to the meeting, such reports or parts of reports as may be of public interest; and in all cases to be ready to report promptly on the first day of the Session.

The Committee of the last Assembly, on a Formula for receiving Church Members, presented their Report, which was accepted, and the further consideration of it referred to the next Assembly. The Stated Clerk was instructed to print the Report in the Appendix to the Minutes of this Assembly.

After the usual devotional exercises, the Assembly adjourned until 7½ o'clock P.M.

TUESDAY, May 27th, 7½ o'clock P.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer.

The Committee on the Fraternal Appeal for Denominational Union presented their Report, which was adopted as follows:

The Committee to whom was referred the "Fraternal Appeal on Christian Union," signed by fifty ministers representing seven leading denominations, our own among the number;

Also, the Report of the Presbytery of Topeka requesting the General Assembly to consider the same;

Also, the letter of the Rev. S. S. Schmucker, D.D., in behalf of the signers of the Appeal with a similar request, would report as follows:

The subject of Christian union, always one of deep and vital importance to the Church at large, is one of especial interest at the present time, in view of the meeting of the Evangelical Alliance to be held the 2d of October next, in the city of New-York.

To the signers of this Appeal we would say, that the subject of Protestant and Evangelical Union is one with which, as Calvinists and Presbyterians, we have long been familiar. If there was one thing in reference to the Church of Christ, that the illustrious Calvin had more deeply at heart than any other, it was the unity of the Spirit. So with the equally illustrious John Knox, the chosen friend of Calvin, and his fellow-laborer; so with Alexander Henderson, in the Westminster Assembly; and with Samuel Davies and other fathers and founders of the American Presbyterian Church at a later day. In full and cordial sympathy with the catholic spirit of Whitefield, they were no bigots, they were no sectarians, their opinions were without intolerance, their preferences without exclusion. Whom Christ received they received. To them all Christians were like the sons of Jacob, the sons of one Father; different tribes, but one Israel; the tents many, but the camp one; the "Church visible," according to their standards, is "catholic or universal, and consisting of all those throughout the world that profess the true religion—the house and family of God."

There is nothing in our system of Doctrine or Form of Government to prevent the fullest expression and interchange of Christian union with all other evangelical denominations; neither is there any thing in our Polity. For a long series of years we have been in fraternal correspondence with various other ecclesiastical bodies, sending to and receiving Delegates from them in the name of our common Master and Head; and, in our mutual greetings, as already at the sessions of the present Assembly in Baltimore, the "delicious aroma of Christian union" has filled the whole house, like that of the box of costly spikenard broken by the loving Mary in the house of Simon at Bethany.

Perhaps it is not too much to say, on the part of all our brethren, both ministers and elders, that, if there is one reason more than another why we are still so much attached to our beloved Church, it is because the civil, religious, and Christian liberty we enjoy among ourselves, we so freely and fully accord to every other portion of that flock of which there is but one Shepherd and one Fold. If ever the time should come in our history as a Church, when we should fail to respond aright to our Lord's most touching petition in his great prayer of intercession, that "they all may be one, as thou, Father, art in me, and I in thee, that they also may be one in us, that the world may believe that thou hast sent me," may our "right hand forget her cunning," may our "tongue cleave to the roof of our mouth," if we "prefer not Jerusalem above our chief joy."

In what particular form the spirit of Christian Union shall be ultimately made manifest, we may confidently leave to the wisdom of the Great Head of the Church, who is equally supreme in the kingdom of Providence, and in that of Grace. On a careful consideration of the past, as developed in the Papacy, we see nothing in favor of an organic union. We cannot put this new wine of the kingdom into old bottles. Unity does not require uniformity. We cannot see far enough into the future to recognize the wisdom of a Confederated Union. As to the advisory union among all evangelical denominations, as proposed in the Appeal, we are not prepared, as an Assembly, to indorse it as either safe or practicable. Instead of being one of the things that make for peace, we greatly fear that, in some aspects of the case, its tendency might rather be toward division.

Such an expression of Christian Union as "The Evangelical Alliance" we fully understand, and most certainly indorse; but to appoint some twenty-five delegates, according to the request in the Appeal, as representatives to the meeting of the world's Evangelical Alliance in October next, for the express purpose of indorsing and presenting the plan presented in this Appeal, neither in our best judgment, nor according to our invariable custom in appointing Delegates, are we at all prepared. With the great object proposed, viz., to draw closer and tighter the bonds of Christian Union among all evangelical denominations, we are in entire harmony. So far as we understand, at present, the spirit and intent of "The Evangelical Alliance," we bid the friends of Christian Union as there represented God speed. The great rule for this purpose as laid down by the wisdom of the inspired Apostle is equally plain to us all: "Whereto we have already attained, let us walk by the same rule, let us mind the same thing; and if in any thing ye be otherwise minded, God shall reveal even this unto you."

The Committee on the Minutes of the Synod of Illinois, South, reported, recommending their approval. Adopted.

The Committee on Correspondence presented the following resolution, which was adopted:

Resolved, That the Rev. Charles Hodge, D.D., LL.D., is hereby appointed Delegate at large to represent this General Assembly in the several ecclesiastical bodies in correspondence with us in Great Britain and Ireland, and on the Continent of Europe.

The Committee on the Designation of Ministers presented their Report, which was adopted, and is as follows:

The Committee, to whom it was referred to report a plan for the designation of ministers in the Appendix to the Minutes of the General Assembly, would respectfully report, recommending

1. That the present method of designation be continued, with the exception of the letters "W. C."

2. That when a minister is disabled from preaching, by sickness or old age, the Presbytery to which he belongs shall order his name to be reported to the General Assembly, so long as he continues in that condition, as honorably retired, using the letters "H. R." to designate the fact.

3. That, when a minister is neither a pastor nor a stated supply, nor yet engaged in any sphere of Christian work, for which a designation has been provided by the rules of the Assembly, while at the same time he is faithfully engaged in preaching as he finds opportunity, he shall be reported as an Evangelist.

4. That all ministers who are negotiating with a view to settlement, or active work consistent with their sacred vocation, be designated "In transitu."

5. That the names of all ministers which cannot be included in any of the above specifications be given without any designation—that is, be left blank.

6. That the Stated Clerks of Presbyteries be instructed to report, in connection with the churches under the care of the Presbytery, such Missionary Chapels or Stations, as have a minister in charge, in the same line with such ministers.

7. That all our Presbyteries be instructed to revise their rolls, in accordance with the provisions of this Report, as soon as convenient, using all possible faithfulness in applying the specified terms of designation; and to forward the rolls thus corrected, to the Stated Clerk of the General Assembly.

The Assembly proceeded to the order of the day, the popular meeting in behalf of the Evangelical Alliance. Addresses were made, according to previous arrangement, by the Moderator, and by the Rev. Samuel J. Niccolls, D.D., the Rev. Philip Schaff, D.D., and the Rev. Mattéo Prochet. After which,

The Assembly resumed its regular business. The Standing Committee on Church Erection made a Supplemental Report, on Manses, which, after amendment, was adopted as follows:—

The Committee on Church Erection would recommend,

1. That the Third Annual Report of the Committee on Manses be approved.

2. That it is the mind of the Church, that the work of building manses go forward; and to this end, it is committed to the Board of Church Erection; and said Board is hereby instructed to prosecute the work vigorously.

3. That the General Assembly acknowledge the importance and value of the work performed by the Committee on Manses, and that the thanks of the Assembly be presented to the Chairman of said Committee, Mr. Joseph M. Wilson, for his untiring and unselfish devotion to the cause of Manses, for the wisdom of his plans, the energy and zeal with which he has carried them out, and the success which has crowned his labors.

4. That, inasmuch as this puts an additional expense upon the Board of Church Erection, this Board is especially commended to the liberality of the churches, so as to meet this new demand.

5. That the Treasurer of the General Assembly be instructed to pay, when the necessary funds shall be put into his hands, to the Committee on Manses the sum of $1367.50 in full, for the expenses and services of the Chairman, and for the preparation and printing of the Report, and that the Committee be now discharged.

The unfinished business, viz., the consideration of the Report of the Standing Committee on Home Missions, was resumed, and the Report was adopted as follows:

The Standing Committee on Home Missions, having attended to the business assigned to them, respectfully submit to the Assembly the following Report:

During the past year, the legal and actual union of the Board of Domestic Missions, and the Committee of Home Missions, has been completed, according to the instructions of the Assembly of 1870. By the acts of the reunited Church, and by legislative enactments in the States of New-York and Pennsylvania, which, in the opinion of competent counsel, are amply sufficient, these two organizations have become one. Nothing that was vital or valuable in either has perished. The history, the practical experience, and the living forces of both, will hereafter be combined, under the name of "The Board of Home Missions of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America."

The Cause represented by this Board has always been deservedly dear to the heart of the Church. Its character and claims are happily expressed in its title. As it is a work of missions, doing the great commandment "go, preach my gospel," its first and chief element is supreme loyalty to our Lord, Jesus Christ. At the same time it embodies, as no other Cause can, sentiments and hopes, which, though subordinate to the love which obeys Christ's commandments, are nevertheless unspeakably precious. It appeals to our love for our own Church, our own country, our own home; to all that is blessed in the memory of our past history, as a people, and to all our anxieties for the prosperity of God's kingdom among the teeming millions of our future population. The Board of Home Missions, as now constituted, is a native growth which has absorbed much of the wisdom and strength of the Church for half a century. It is at once stable and elastic; holding steadily to its one grand object, and yet adapting itself constantly to the changing circumstances of the country, and of the people to whom it extends the blessings of the gospel. It is a tree whose roots run down into the purest fountains of the past, whose fruits have always been brought forth in their season, and the shadow of whose branches reaches far into the future. The fact, that nine tenths of all the Presbyterian churches west of the Alleghany Mountains, including the oldest organizations in such cities as Cleveland, Columbus, Cincinnati, Indianapolis, Detroit, Chicago, and St. Louis were nourished in their infancy by Home Missionary aid, speaks volumes to show the past success and the future capabilities of this great Cause.

Your Committee are deeply impressed with the conviction, that any retrogression in the work of Home Missions, or even any failure to advance, with a vigor steadily proportioned to the ever-increasing demands of the field, would be an unspeakable calamity to all the interests of the Presbyterian Church. To stand still in this Cause is virtually to fall back. For the tides of population are ever sweeping on beyond our most advanced position; and, if we do not enter the wide and effectual door, the many adversaries will not cease their activity because of our indifference; nor will the neglect of our opportunities fail to bring a blight and a mildew on the Church, where it is already established.

Your Committee notice, therefore, with pain, that there has been a diminution in the operations of the Board, during the past year, in respect of both men and money. The amount of receipts from all sources during the year is $304,717.97, which is $26,253 less than it was last year. The whole number of ministers holding commissions from the Board is 993. A diminution of 161. This decrease is, doubtless, due in some degree to the transfer of men and means to the Committee of Sustentation. But the loss cannot be wholly attributed to this cause. In regard to ministers, there seems to have been a lamentable failure in the ordinary sources of supply. Our attention is solicited, by the Board, to what is well characterized as the "alarming fact," that unusual efforts to obtain new men, for new and promising fields, have been almost entirely in vain. The young men about to graduate from our Seminaries listened respectfully, but responded feebly to the appeals which were made to them by the Secretaries.

The assertion, so often made, that we have too many ministers, certainly derives no support from the present condition of our Home Missionary work. Nor is there any justification to be derived from this source, for the repeated complaint, that our Church does not provide places, and means of living, for ministers who are able and willing to preach the gospel. Our great want this day is more men for the work of the ministry. The supply does not keep pace with the demand. There may be an accumulation of unemployed ministers in our great cities, among whom many are disabled by age or other infirmity. Some, who are reckoned "Without Charge," have nevertheless very important charges, and are doing good work for the cause of Christ; and some, perhaps, who ought to be preaching, are devoting themselves to secular pursuits. But for the last-mentioned class, which we are persuaded is very small, there is no excuse, unless it may be found in a want of real and earnest desire to preach the gospel "wherever God in his providence may call them." If ministers could be found who have a mind for the work, a hundred such could be placed at once, by our Board, in promising positions on the Pacific coast, and in the Territories so rapidly developing on both slopes of the Rocky Mountains, and a hundred more in the vast territory lying between the mountains and the Mississippi River.

In addition to the decrease in men and means, the Board speak of some peculiar providential hindrances to their work during the past year.

The want of money among the people in some sections, where corn, the staple product, was so abundant and cheap that it was used for fuel instead of being sold; the excessive heat of the summer, followed by the no less excessive cold of the winter, both severely trying the health of ministers and their families in common with other people, and making it difficult to keep up the regular services of the church and the Sabbath; these and some other obstacles are reported, as diminishing in an unusual degree the annual fruits of the Cause.

But, notwithstanding all discouragements and trials, God, who crowns the year with his goodness, has caused the harvest to follow the seed-sowing of his kingdom, and many have returned, bringing their sheaves with them. The Board bear honorable testimony to the fidelity and devotion of the ministers under their care, and report that all pecuniary engagements with them have been fully and promptly met. The visible and tangible results of their labors, for the past year, are summed up in the following statistics:

3944 added to churches on profession.
3333 added on certificate.
98 church edifices built.
81 church edifices repaired or enlarged.
$174,232 of church debts canceled by churches.
18 churches become self-sustaining.
136 new churches organized.

These statistics, encouraging as they are in themselves, suggest more than they express. The result of a faithful ministry never can be embodied in figures. Its more subtle and far-reaching influences come not with observation. They sink down into the heart of childhood a seed that will spring up and bear fruit, when the hand that scattered it has lost its cunning. They intermingle with the foundations of social order. They twine themselves about every good institution. They quicken, as with the breath of spring, every thing that makes the wilderness to rejoice, and the desert to bud and blossom as the rose. Their results never can be exhibited, nor their value estimated, until the great day of revelation shall declare it. We may well give thanks to God, and congratulate ourselves, and send greetings of approval and encouragement to the faithful men, who are laboring in the waste places of the land, not only for what is thus reported, but for much more that only the eye of the Master can see, and the heart of the Master comprehend with a perfect sympathy.

It should be understood by all our ministers and church members, and especially by young men who are soon to enter upon the work of the ministry, that our Board of Home Missions is not a beneficiary institution, in any degrading sense of that term. It is simply one of the agencies, by which the Church supports her ministers, according to the divine command, that they who preach the gospel shall live by the gospel. The ecclesiastical position of a minister, whose salary is received partly through this Board, is in no respect different from the position of any other minister in the Church. He is responsible, like others, to his own brethren in the Presbytery to which he belongs. He is not under the supervision of the Board, except so far as they carry out the instructions of the General Assembly, in the distribution of the funds of the Church, and in the prosecution of the work committed to them. The money that he receives through this agency is not a gift from the Board to him, but a contribution from the whole Church to the particular church which he serves, enabling them to pay the salary which is his just and lawful due. In making appropriations, the Board is to be guided mainly by the applications of the Presbyteries; nor are they authorized to reduce the amount applied for, unless their knowledge of the state of the funds, and their wider view of the wants of the whole field, render such reduction necessary.

Your Committee believe that the Board have always discharged their high trust in strict accordance with these principles; and, while we recognize the need for a large advance in the same direction, we rejoice at the result which has already been reached in the support of ministers under their care. One half of them receive, at the present time, a salary which, including in some instances the estimated value of parsonages, amounts to not less than $1000 per annum. We should rejoice if this were true of them all. We trust the time will come when every minister in our Church, whether connected with this Board or not, will have such a support as will make him free from worldly cares and avocations, and enable him to give himself without distraction to his work. But let us not fail to recognize and give thanks to God for the advance which has already been made in this direction. Neither let it be hastily inferred that those whose incomes fall below the sum above mentioned are necessarily in want. The circumstances of men's families, and the cost of living, vary so much, that it is not possible to fix any sum which will be a fair support for all. In our widely extended country, it will often be found, that the cost of living in one locality is less by one half than it is in another. While your Committee feel that the whole Church, as well as particular congregations, need to be constantly reminded of their duty, in regard to the support of our ministry, we deprecate such exaggerated statements, founded upon exceptional cases, as tend to bring discredit upon the Church, and to discourage young men from entering the ministry. We believe that great evil has been wrought in this way.

Your Committee notice, with satisfaction, the efforts of the Board to encourage the formation of the pastoral relation, and to unite feeble churches in the same neighborhood under one pastoral charge.

We also approve the proposal of the Board, to unite the work of Colportage and Home Missions wherever it is practicable, and hope that the negotiation, which has been opened with the Board of Publication looking to this end, will be prosecuted to a successful conclusion.

The revived interest of our Christian women in the work of Missions is a hopeful sign, deserving of grateful recognition by this Assembly. Their contributions through their various organizations to the funds of the Home, as well as the Foreign, Board are, we trust, the precious first-fruits of a plentiful harvest. We recognize, also, their benevolent work in supplying many of our ministers with boxes of clothing and other useful articles; and, in order to correct a prevalent error on the subject, we deem it proper to say, that the value of such boxes is never, in any case, deducted from the amount of the minister's salary.

In view of the foregoing facts and principles, your Committee submit the following resolutions for adoption:

1. That this Assembly express their unwavering confidence in the Board of Home Missions, as an agency which has been proved, by long experience, to be admirably adapted, both to the support of feeble churches in our older neighborhoods, and to the extension of the gospel into the regions beyond.

2. That we acknowledge and give thanks for the divine blessing which has made the past year so fruitful in this good work.

3. That we recognize the fidelity of the Board and its Secretaries to the high trust committed to them.

4. That we lament before God our lack of men to occupy our vacant and destitute fields, and solemnly call upon ministers not employed, to go work in Christ's vineyard; upon the students in our Theological Seminaries, to consider the claims of the Home Mission field; upon parents, to consecrate their sons to the work of the ministry; and upon all our people, to pray the Lord of the harvest to send forth more laborers into his harvest.

5. That we express our profound sympathy with the ministers, and with all the Christian men and women, who are laboring to uphold the cause of Christ, and to enlarge the borders of our Church, in our frontier settlements. The Assembly send their greetings to all such good and faithful servants.

6. That we enjoin upon all Presbyteries to insist upon the formation of the pastoral relation in the churches under their care, wherever it is practicable and likely to be permanent.

7. That the Board of Home Missions is directed, as far as possible, to make the salaries of ministers sufficient for a respectable living in the neighborhood where they reside, in order to remove all necessity and excuse, for ministers devoting themselves to such secular pursuits as are inconsistent with their office.

8. That every church, receiving aid from the Board, be required to adopt some systematic plan of giving, so as to develop the benevolence of the people, and prepare the way for self-support.

9. That all our churches and ministers be solemnly urged, in the name of Christ and for the glory of his great name, to secure larger contributions to the funds of the Home Mission Board.

10. That we recognize with gratitude the efforts of our Christian women in behalf of Missions; and, regarding the Home and Foreign field as but two departments of the same great Cause, we recommend them to continue their sympathy and their aid to both.

11. That the Board of Home Missions is directed, with a prudent regard for the state of their funds, to devise liberal things, and to send the gospel wherever in our widely extended country there may be a destitute field and an open door.

The term of service of Rev. James O. Murray, D.D., Rev. John Hall, D.D., and Rev. William M. Paxton, D.D., and of Elders George W. Lane and George R. Lockwood, having expired, your Committee recommend their reëlection.

The Standing Committee on Home Missions further reported that they had considered the following papers referred to them:

1. An Overture from the Synod of Erie, in regard to the Evangelization of our German population.

2. A Memorial from the Rev. Philemon H. Fowler, D.D., and the Rev. David Wills, D.D., in regard to the work of Home Missions in Florida.

We recommend, that both these papers be referred to the Board of Home Missions, with instructions to correspond and coöperate with the Sustentation Committee of the Southern Church, in reference to the claims of our Common Presbyterianism in Florida, whenever in the judgment of the Board such correspondence and coöperation may be expedient.

The Report was adopted.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures presented the following Reports:

Overtures referring to Eldership; recommending their reference to the Committee of Seven appointed to report on this subject to the next Assembly. Adopted.

An Overture from the Presbytery of Winona, on a Formula for Admission to Church Membership. The Committee recommend that the Board of Publication be authorized to publish, for examination by the churches, the Report of the Committee on the Formula for Admission to sealing ordinances. Adopted.

An Overture, having reference to Representation from the Presbyteries. Your Committee are unanimously of the opinion, that the number of representatives composing the General Assembly ought to be reduced; but in view of the fact, that the present Assembly has discharged a Committee appointed to consider this subject, and in view also of the fact, that the mind of the Church is still unsettled as to the best mode of Representation, your Committee recommend that the consideration of this subject be referred to the next Assembly. Adopted.

On the Subject of an Œcumenical Council; recommending the following:

"Whereas, There is substantial unity of faith, discipline, and worship among the Presbyterian Churches in this and other lands; and, whereas, it is important to exhibit this union to the Churches and to the world; and, whereas, a desire has been expressed in many places for closer union among all branches of the great and widely scattered family of Presbyterian Churches; Therefore,

Resolved, That a Committee, consisting of the Moderator of the General Assembly, the Stated Clerk, and the Rev. James McCosh, D.D., LL.D., be appointed to correspond with sister Churches holding by the Westminster standards, with the view of bringing about an Œcumenical Council of such Churches to consider subjects of common interest to all, and especially to promote harmony of action in the mission fields at home and abroad. Adopted.

Class 3. Overtures from the Presbyteries of Utica, Buffalo, and Chicago, concerning the Demission of the Ministry. All of these overtures ask, that the form of Government be so amended as to allow a minister to demit his office, for such reasons as may be deemed good and sufficient by his Presbytery; but Inasmuch as the Overture on this subject, sent down to the Presbyteries by the last General Assembly, has been negatived, the Committee recommend that it is inexpedient to send down another at the present time. Adopted.

The unfinished business, viz., the consideration of the Report of the Standing Committee on Foreign Missions, was resumed; and the Report, having been amended to conform to the action of the Assembly already taken in regard to the debt, was adopted as follows:—

The Standing Committee, appointed to consider the Thirty-sixth Annual Report of the Board of Foreign Missions, would respectfully report as follows:

We would first give expression of gratitude to God for the seal he has set upon this work during the past year. General prosperity in all the various fields, and an increase of twelve per cent in the number of communicants, are proof of the benignant favor of our divine Master and Lord. With such manifest tokens of God's willingness to make fruitful and successful all consecrated toil, beyond the threshold of that open door which he has now set before us, this sacred Cause is renewedly commended to the Christian conscience and heart of our beloved Church.

More than all else the Cause needs prayer. Deeper than any other want is this. No other work of the Church will so soon lose its vitalizing and inspiring force, if it be not firmly fixed in the spiritual affections and interior life of God's people. It must be emphasized in the daily petitions that we offer at our family altars. Its precious opportunities, its vast necessities, its possibilities of power and fruitfulness, its imperative obligations must be interwoven with our daily thought. It is a Cause whose daily work is afar off. We cannot see it with our eyes, nor handle it with our hands. It has no associations of home and kindred and country, to commend it and enlist our sympathies. It must be by faith, and not by sight, and on high, spiritual ground alone, unselfish, wholly, and Christ-like, and because the heart of our blessed Master throbs through it all, that we prosecute this great foreign evangelism. If it fail to be spiritualized, therefore, to take root in our hidden life, to be baptized with constant and wrestling prayer, it will fail altogether.

Intelligent comprehension of the work is another great and imperative need of this Cause of Foreign Missions. All commensurate and sustained interest must be founded in intelligence. Knowledge is power, in that it touches and moves the hidden springs of power. The Church will not feel deeply, nor give freely, where it is not informed. We thankfully recognize the great good already accomplished by the Board's most admirable monthly use of the weekly religious press, and by the increased attractiveness and efficiency of the Foreign Missionary. We urge continued and ever-advancing effort here, and the employment of all legitimate means to inform the mind of the Church with reference to the principles and facts of this great work.

Let the Church fully understand that this Board is really doing the work of Publication, of Education, of Church Erection, and of Ministerial Relief, as well as of Missions proper, for all the heathen world where God in his providence has given our Church a field of labor; that in China alone it has published this last year 250,000 volumes, and in all 40,000,000 pages; that it is rearing everywhere churches and manses, and school and press buildings, and orphan homes and dispensaries; that it is conducting education in all grades, theological, medical, and common school; that it is prosecuting the work of hospitals, zenanas, and colportage; that it is spending thousands of dollars every year for families of missionaries laid aside from active toil by sickness or removed by death; that it needs constantly to enlarge its work; and that God's providence seems now far in advance of the present disposition of the Church to occupy and possess for Christ; let the Church fully understand these facts, and surely a thorough comprehension of them will go far to awaken a deeper interest and elicit a larger liberality.

The Board comes to the close of the year with a balance against the Treasury of $128,695. Its expenditures have been $97,939 above its receipts, and the debt of the previous year constitutes the balance of its indebtedness. This is a fearful burden for the Board to carry; and its assumption in any ordinary circumstances could have no justification. It is the result, however, of no ill-considered and reckless policy of expansion. The enlargement has been judicious, and the work assumed has been pressed upon the Board by unmistakable providential indications.

A legacy of $38,000, received after the books were closed last year, was nevertheless credited to the previous year. If the amount of this legacy had been left in its proper place, the credit would have been $68,000 at the close of last year. This has been nearly doubled since, because, first, the new work in Papal countries, which the Assembly recommended the Board to undertake, has demanded a greatly additional outlay, and no adequate response from the churches has been made to meet it; because, second, a very considerable portion of the contributions to the Treasury have had a special designation for some special and unusual object, and therefore have done nothing toward defraying the expenses of the current and regular work; and because, third, the work has developed imperative claims that could not be denied without imperiling most precious interests in connection with our missions.

The liberality of our Church has not been at all commensurate with the enlarged necessities of the field. But there the debt stands, a most sacred obligation, a most oppressive burden. There the work is demanding for this year a greatly increased expenditure. Upon what the Board states to be a rigidly economical estimate, the work of the year will require $575,000, which with the debt amounts to $703,000, as the least sum our Church should think of pouring into the Treasury of the Board. This is in excess of last year's receipts from all sources, $249,000.

Can the Church take this large step forward? Of her ability there can be no question. God has put into her hands wealth enough to make the raising of three quarters of a million of dollars for the saving of the nations an easy matter. And it would seem as if her conceded ability, and the urgent necessity, ought to leave no question as to her willingness. One thing is clear. This amount must be realized for the work of Foreign Missions, or the work must suffer serious and even disastrous retrenchment. Ten men are now under appointment for Japan, China, Africa, and Persia; and the Board dare not send them to these vast, accessible and perishing harvest fields, where the laborers are to the population as one to millions, until it has heard what is the voice of the Church through this Assembly. Shall we bid the Board to sound a retreat? Is it not simply a question of spirituality and consecration? Can we be deaf to this divine call and refuse to "go through the gates," without withholding from our Lord the substance which is his due? Is not this the urgent occasion for every man, woman, and child of our communion to bring the tithes into the storehouse? Peradventure the windows of heaven may be opened on our opened hearts, and our beloved Church enriched with "more than the wealth of barbaric pearls and gold."

Your Committee would offer the following recommendations:

1. That so much of the New-Mexican Mission as does not pertain to the Indians, be transferred to the care of the Board of Home Missions.

2. That all our churches be earnestly requested to set apart the first evening prayer-meeting of each month for the Monthly Concert of Prayer; that it be sacredly devoted to the object for which it was originally established; and that a collection be taken at each monthly meeting in behalf of the Foreign Missionary Board.

3. That the Sunday-schools of our Church be urged to remember the claims of this great Cause, as furnishing every variety of objects to enlist their interests and sympathies, and to which they may devote their gifts; while the children may thus share in the work of sending the gospel to the heathen.

4. That churches and individual contributors, in directing a division of their gifts among the different objects of Christian benevolence, particularly consider the larger proportionate claims of the Board of Foreign Missions over any other one Home Agency, by reason of the varied and vast work of Education, Publication, Church Erection, etc., which it is doing in heathen lands.

5. That our churches enter into more general and hearty coöperation with that branch of mission work, which is known as Woman's Work for Woman, the Assembly contemplating with unmingled satisfaction and thankfulness the marked success of this developed and organized activity among the women of our Church, and making special recognition of the honorable fact that these women, who pledged the last General Assembly that they would undertake to raise $50,000 for the Cause, have more than fulfilled it.

6. That the Board send out to their respective fields the Missionaries now under appointment or engagement in this country, and that no further appointments be made, and no further enlargement of work undertaken or accepted, until the work is freed from its present serious financial embarrassment.

7. That, in view of the hearty and spontaneous movement in this Assembly, by which individuals and churches have come forward with pledges, to the amount of $75,000, toward the liquidation of the debt of $128,000 of the Board of Foreign Missions, the Stated Clerk at once apportion the remainder of the debt among the Presbyteries, making due allowance for the sums already pledged in each case, with the earnest recommendation of the Assembly that measures be immediately taken by the Presbyteries to raise and pay over these amounts to the Treasurer of the Board, not later than November 1st, 1873.

8. That it be distinctly understood that these gifts for the debt shall not be suffered to diminish the regular contributions of the churches to this or any other of the Boards of the Church.

9. That those throughout our Church, whom the Lord has blessed with abundant means, be urged to consider the peculiar claims of this Board, in view of its unwonted financial pressure, and whether they cannot come immediately to the relief of the Board by a prompt, hearty, and special liberality.

10. That the Board be authorized to adopt any means which, in its judgment, may be deemed desirable, the more effectively to bring this matter before the churches, and to secure the earliest relief from its present financial embarrassment.

11. That the following persons be elected as members of the Board for the ensuing three years: William Adams, D.D., LL.D., Hon. William E. Dodge, James O. Murray, D.D., Robert Lenox Kennedy, and Hooper C. Van Vorst, Esq.

The several Standing Committees, with the exception of the Committees on the Polity of the Church, and Leave of Absence, severally reported that they had nothing further to report, and were discharged.

The Committee on Leave of Absence reported in part, and were continued.

The Special Committee on the Sabbath presented a Report, which was accepted, and referred to a Special Committee to inquire and report if any deliverance on the subject is necessary.

The following persons were added to the Committee on Consolidation: Rev. Herrick H. Johnson, D.D., Rev. Joseph T. Smith, D.D., and Rev. Franklin A. Noble, D.D.

The following persons were duly elected, by ballot, Trustees of the Presbyterian House: Samuel C. Perkins, John C. Farr, Rev. Daniel March, D.D., Rev. William T. Eva, and Rev. Thomas J. Shepherd, D.D.

The following persons were duly elected, by ballot, Trustees of the Board of Church Erection: Rev. Alexander Reed, D.D., Rev. Marvin

R. Vincent, D.D., Rev. George S. Bishop, and the Elders Winthrop S. Gilman, Nathan Lane, Hezekiah King, and Charles Collins.

Mr. Remington F. Randolph was elected in place of Rev. Theodore L. Cuyler, D.D.; and Mr. James Frazer, in place of Mr. Albert N. Brown, resigned.

The Committee appointed by the last General Assembly to visit the Synod of Missouri (O. S.) reported, that the Synod was visited at its sessions in Columbia, Mo., in October last.

The Rev. Robert W. Patterson, D.D., and Hon. H. Humphrey Leavitt, being unable to make the visit on account of sickness, the Rev. Samuel J. Niccolls, D.D., was so kind as to accompany the Chairman.

The Synod extended a cordial welcome, and listened with great kindness to the address.

A Committee was appointed by the Synod, to confer in respect to future fraternal intercourse on terms mutually agreeable. The sickness and subsequent death of the Hon. H. Humphrey Leavitt prevented any further conference. It gives great pleasure to record, that the movements in the present Assembly toward reunion are among the beneficial results, largely flowing from the visit of your Committee to the Synod of Missouri (O. S.).

Adjourned until to-morrow, at 7½ o'clock P.M.
Concluded with prayer.

WEDNESDAY, May 28th, 7½ o'clock P.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer.

The minutes of yesterday's sessions were read and approved.

The Moderator announced the following Committee on the Report of the Committee on the Sabbath: Rev. Edward G. Thurber, Robert M. Wallace, and Rev. Archibald P. Cobb.

The Assembly proceeded to the consideration of the Report of the Committee on Church Polity, on "Vacant Churches and Unemployed Ministers," which was adopted as follows:

Sundry papers on the general subject of "Vacant Churches and Unemployed Ministers," to wit: The Report of a Committee appointed by the Assembly of 1871 made to the Assembly of 1872, and referred to this Assembly; 2. An Overture from the Presbytery of Wooster, with accompanying documents; and, 3, a Memorial from Rev. Allen H. Brown, a member of the Presbytery of West-Jersey.

The Committee recommend the following plan, namely:

I. That the Assembly enjoin on each Presbytery, to submit this important matter to that Committee (standing or special) which has the particular care of its missionary churches with the following instructions, viz.:

1. To provide, as far as may be possible, permanent or occasional work for every minister desiring it, who is without charge within its Presbyterial jurisdiction; and, also, to provide permanent or occasional preaching for every destitute church under its Presbyterial care.

2. To arrange for grouping the smaller aid-receiving vacant churches, so as most effectively to furnish competent support for the minister serving them, and so as also to secure the preaching of the gospel to the greatest possible number.

3. And since aid-receiving churches, when they become vacant, are usually cut off from Home Missionary aid until they shall have found an acceptable minister ready to be commissioned; and since many of these churches, being unable to provide for themselves even occasional supplies, thereby suffer serious injury in any long vacancy, each Presbyterial Committee is urged to endeavor, in its own way, to nourish and sustain these churches, until they are advanced to a condition in which they can be assisted by the Board of Home Missions.

4. To report, to the chairman of the Synodical Committee, the names of "vacant churches and unemployed ministers" in their bounds for whom they are not able to provide.

II. It is further recommended, that each Synod appoint a Committee on "vacant churches and unemployed ministers," consisting of one from each of the Presbyterial Committees aforesaid, in like manner, and, as far as possible, to distribute, among the vacant churches of their own Synod, such unemployed ministers as have been reported to them, always regarding the rights of the Presbyteries and the wishes of the people.

If there should yet remain a surplus of either vacant churches or unemployed ministers within the bounds of any Synod, the chairman of its Committee on this subject shall report the same to the Board of Home Missions.

III. And whereas, there may be, in the vast extent of our territory, an excess of "unemployed ministers" in one part thereof, and in another an excess of "vacant churches," the Board of Home Missions is hereby authorized and instructed, to organize a SPECIAL BUREAU, whose business it shall be, to gather and publish such statistics bearing on the subject, as may be important for the information of the churches, and to consider the case of such "vacant Churches and unemployed ministers" as may have been reported to them by the Synodical Committees; and to endeavor to adjust and distribute these, so that, as far as possible, every capable minister, asking for it, may have something to do, and every church may be supplied; always, however, so as not to interfere in any wise with Presbyterial prerogatives.

IV. It is further recommended, that, whereas the Minutes of the Assembly for 1872 report 1029 vacant churches, of which 585 have each but 25 members or less, and 174 have each only 10 members or less, the Presbyteries embracing them be instructed to consider whether some of these churches may not be consolidated advantageously to themselves, without injury to the cause of religion.

The Committee on the Polity of the Church reported that they had nothing further to report, and were discharged.

The Committee, to whom the Paper on the Observance of the Sabbath was referred, reported, recommending that, in view of the absence of a large number of Commissioners, and the limited time for considering the subject, it be referred to the next General Assembly, and that this Assembly now simply reaffirm the deliverances of previous Assemblies, regarding the sacredness of the Sabbath.

The report was adopted.

It was resolved to take from the table the Resolution of the Rev. John C. Backus, D D., on Sustentation, and refer it to the Committee on Sustentation; and that the Committee be directed to consider the practicability of a scheme, whereby a more flexible requirement may be made of the churches seeking assistance from the Sustentation Fund.

The Committee on Leave of Absence presented their final Report, reporting the following members as having been excused from further attendance:

The decease of Elder James H. Rogers, one of the Commissioners of the Presbytery of Freeport, was announced; whereupon it was Resolved, that the Rev. John C. Backus, D.D., Rev. William H. Cooke, Mr. Albert Small, and Mr. David A. Hollingshead, be a Committee of the Assembly, to propose a suitable minute in reference to the death of our deceased brother, James H. Rogers, of the Presbytery of Freeport, and to transmit a copy to the family with the tender sympathy of the Assembly.

The minute is as follows:

Mr. James Harvey Rogers, delegated to this Assembly as an Elder of the Presbytery of Freeport, having been removed by death, after a short illness, during the sessions of this Body, the General Assembly desire to put on permanent record their sense of the loss of the Church by this dispensation, and their sincere sympathy with the family of the bereaved. Mr. Rogers had filled the office of ruling elder for nearly half a century. An intelligent and judicious counselor, an active and efficient worker, he cheerfully consecrated his time and means to the promotion of the welfare of the Church, to which he was earnestly devoted. Although the summons found him away from home, he was in the service of the Church, and received the kindest attentions of the friends, whose hospitality he enjoyed. Two of his own sons were permitted also to attend upon him; and with a mind clear and composed, a firm faith in his Redeemer, and a clear hope, he gently fell on sleep May 28th, 1873, in the seventieth year of his age. The General Assembly, bowing with reverent submission to the will of Providence in the dispensation, expressed their earnest desire that it might be sanctified to all the members, and directed that their unfeigned sympathy should be conveyed to his bereaved family and church.

The following Resolutions were passed unanimously:

Resolved, That we record our highest appreciation of the abundant labors of the Committee of Arrangements, especially of the Chairman, Rev. Joseph T. Smith, D.D., and their efficient Secretaries, W. H. Cole, Esq., and J. Faris Moore, M.D., with unfeigned gratitude for their exertions to prepare and provide, in the most complete manner, whatever might secure the entertainment and enjoyment of the members of this great court, and promote the speedy and efficient prosecution of our business during these protracted sessions.

Resolved, That we tender our thanks to the session and trustees of the Central Church for the use of their edifice; and to those whose thoughtfulness made such ample and complete provision for correspondence with absent friends, meetings of Committees, delivery of mails, etc.; to the Postmaster for his courtesy in providing a branch office at the church; and to the clerk, Mr. John Alloway, who, with such unwearied fidelity and undisturbed suavity, waited upon the Commissioners.

Resolved, That we record our profound thanks for the lavish hospitality of the citizens of Baltimore, who have welcomed us to their homes with a truly homelike and hearty cordiality, and who have spared neither trouble nor expense to make our stay in the city among the most delightful things upon which memory will dwell.

Special recognition is due, however, to Mrs. George Brown, to whose marked generosity the Assembly is indebted for a sumptuous social entertainment at Lehman Hall; to those who planned and conducted, with such patient and polite attentions, the excursion to Annapolis, with its manifold provisions for our gratification; to Admiral Worden and others who escorted the Assembly through the grounds and buildings connected with the Naval Academy; and to those who in any way have aided to make both the business sessions and the recreations of the Assembly so delightful and successful.

Resolved, That the Assembly return thankful acknowledgments to the several railroad companies which have passed Commissioners at reduced rates over their respective roads; and to those who, in connection with the daily and weekly papers, and especially the Assembly Journal, have sought to secure a complete and correct report of the proceedings of the Assembly.

Resolved, That this General Assembly record their gratitude to God for the manifest tokens of his presence and grace, in the brotherly love which has marked all our proceedings, in the liberality which has been shown toward the Cause of Foreign Missions, and in the earnest desire which has been expressed for more fraternal relations with those who have obtained like precious faith with us, but from whom we have been unhappily separated. May these fruits of the Spirit abound more and more to the honor of our common Lord, and to the peace of the Church that he has purchased with his blood.

A unanimous vote of thanks was also tendered to the Moderator, for the faithfulness, ability, impartiality, and courtesy with which he has presided over the proceedings of this Assembly.

The Stated Clerk was directed to publish at least the usual number of copies of the Minutes of this Assembly, with the customary Appendix.

The Janitor's bill, the bills for stationery and traveling expenses of Delegates, with the salaries and traveling expenses of the Stated and Permanent Clerks, were ordered to be paid.

The Roll was called.

The minutes of this session were read and approved.

After the offering of solemn praise and thanksgiving, the business of the Assembly having been completed, and the vote taken for the dissolution of the Assembly, the Moderator, with prayer and the apostolic benediction, declared the Assembly dissolved, and required another Assembly, chosen in the same manner, to meet at the First Presbyterian Church in the city of Saint Louis, Missouri, on the third Thursday of May, A.D. 1874.

CYRUS DICKSON, Permanent Clerk.

EDWIN F. HATFIELD, Stated Clerk.

I. Annual Narrative

OF THE

STATE OF RELIGION

WITHIN THE BOUNDS OF THE

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

IN THE

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA.

MAY, 1873.

The Committee, appointed to prepare the Annual Narrative of the State of Religion, have examined, with unexpected pleasure, the reports of 131 Presbyteries, and will endeavor, as briefly as possible, to set forth their tone and spirit, and to indicate the principal topics, whether of encouragement or fear, which they present. In reading the statements of these various Christian bodies, concentrated in the great cities, or scattered among the mountains,—in the older States of the East or among those just rising to power in the ever-receding West, and from far over the sea,—we are struck with their unity of spirit. We cannot but be conscious, also, of a new and profounder impression of the magnitude of the work of our Church, of the vastness of her privileges and responsibilities, and the need of larger measures of divine wisdom and strength.

The year which has passed, if not remarkable for great enterprises, organized or achieved, has been one of general prosperity and of a healthful spiritual growth. Pervading the record of nearly every Presbytery, we notice the spirit of hope and expectation. It breathes through the Narratives. It inspires the work. It originates the plans. It imparts courage. Nowhere is there depression or fear. The banner of the Cross is borne "even and high," even where the foes are many and the difficulties, for the time, seem insuperable. There is everywhere a spirit of thankfulness for past mercies, a calm faith in the promises, and a trust in God which lifts the soul far above the region of doubt and fear, and gives the assurance of ultimate victory.

In many churches there has been a quiet and pervading influence of the Spirit, even where there has been no powerful work of grace; but, in many others, we notice with profound gratitude the special manifestations of spiritual revival. In some Presbyteries, almost every church has been visited from on high. The work, in most cases, has been deep, quiet, solemn, and widely extended. In some instances, it has assumed "wonderful proportions," calling for deep and unusual thanksgiving. Whole communities have been awakened, and the questions of personal religion and personal responsibility have been brought close to every heart. The scenes attending these awakenings have sometimes been of indescribable solemnity and tenderness, marked by no extravagances or undue excitements, but of such a character as promises well for the future stability, and growth in grace, and Christian usefulness, of the converts. Many hundreds, and even thousands, have professed their faith in Jesus Christ, and the churches have not only been filled with joy, but have been led to a reconsecration, and a profounder and more pervading Christian life.

These results have been accomplished mainly by the use of the ordinary means of grace; clear and direct preaching of the truth; personal Christian effort, by laymen, among those whom the minister could not reach; the efforts of Christian women, visiting from house to house, and conversing with others of their own sex; labor in the Sabbath-school and among the young generally; and especially through the power of wrestling, believing prayer. Nor have these gracious influences been yet withdrawn. Some, who expected to meet with this Assembly, have been kept at home by the necessity for more abundant labor among their own people.

It may be remembered, that one of the Presbyteries, that of Dakota, is composed entirely of missionaries and churches among the Sioux Indians; and, in this day of exasperation against certain tribes for their cruelty and treachery, it is specially gratifying, to notice the power of the gospel in modifying the character, and controlling the habits, of those people of whose civilization we have come almost to despair. In these tribes, on reservations of the Sioux, with a total population of 2740, there are seven churches under the charge of native preachers, with a membership of 688. Missionary labor among another portion of the tribe, the Yankton Sioux, numbering 2000, is of more recent origin, but even here there is a church of 65 members, and through the influence of the gospel, and that alone, the general sentiment of the tribe is such that no fear whatever is entertained of Indian troubles.

The Nez Perces Lapwai Agency, Idaho Territory, including 3000 Indians and over 500 church members, of whom over 200 have been added during the last ecclesiastical year, have been restored to our care.

The spiritual health of our churches is shown in the several modes and agencies employed for accomplishing the ends at which we aim.

1. In the prominence given to instruction in Sabbath-schools and Bible Classes. Our religion is a religion of light, and the history of the Church has abundantly demonstrated the value, and the imperative necessity even, of early inculcating the substantial truths of our faith. We observe, with pleasure, the frequent mention of a return to the old method of committing portions of the Scriptures to memory, and would commend this as one of the most valuable methods of religious education.

2. Our spiritual progress is also indirectly shown by freely sustaining the regular Boards of the Church. These Boards have been established to do our work; have been modified by long experience; and the care with which they are cherished, the generosity with which they are provided for—of which mention is made in many reports—as well as the efforts toward a higher standard of beneficence, may be also regarded as a test of Christian fidelity.

3. Another evidence, looking in the same direction, is found in the strength and persistence with which moral evils are combated, and sound moral reforms are urged. Faith in Christ must be manifested by a corresponding purity of life; and we notice, with gratitude, that in many distant Presbyteries, recently formed in regions sparsely populated, and necessarily without some of the restraints of the older States, the efforts of the churches are successfully directed against prevalent vices, and for the development of pure, honorable, and law-loving communities. The time has gone, if it ever existed, when religion and morality could be separated.

4. Still another indication of religious vitality is found in the increased efficiency, and the larger extent of the work of Christian women. There is a sphere in which woman, with her quick sympathy, her tenderness, her love, her intelligent insight, her generous self-devotion, can labor with far more efficiency than man. This sphere she has begun to move in. She has come to her good work naturally and by a kind of necessity. The work has grown in importance, as the zeal and intelligence of the Church have increased; and we have by no means yet reached the limit to her deeds of beneficence.

5. We cannot but notice, as another evidence of Christian advancement, the increased spirit of gentleness and charity; of fraternal union among ourselves; of brotherly love toward other orders and denominations. To be called after the name of Christ is far nobler and higher, than to be called after the name of Apollos, or of Paul. It is the mark of the profoundest, as well as the broadest and most genial, piety, when our private interpretation shall yield to the grander creeds of the Church, and our private psalm be swallowed up in the universal chorus of praise from voices innumerable. And so, without giving up, as of no worth, our individual preferences, we are coming to a more cordial affection for all who hold the Head, even Christ, to whom, of whatever nation or name, there is one common experience and one common language.

6. We cannot but gratefully observe the marks of the divine favor bestowed upon the Colleges most closely in sympathy with us. In some of them there has been evidence of the special presence of the Spirit, and in all of them, we believe, indications of a steady and healthful religious growth. We observe with great satisfaction the number of students in these Colleges, and in our Theological Seminaries, preparing for the Christian ministry, and the testimony which is given to their fidelity and success. We have no evidence of a surplus of ministers, in any proper sense of that word, but rather of deficiency. In every profession and every trade, there will, at some time, and in some place, be more men than are needed. But this is no disadvantage, and would probably sometimes be the case were the number in the profession or trade but half as great as now. Some without doubt have entered the ministry who find themselves unfitted for the service, but no human watchfulness can always prevent mistakes. There is still need of efficient and devoted men. Not until our vacant churches are much more easily supplied with preachers and pastors than now, not until the cry for new laborers in the home field and the foreign field is much less urgent and imperative than at present, can we cease to be grateful for the number, and the high promise of those in our preparatory institutions, who have given themselves to the work of the ministry.

7. It is fitting that we should notice still other marks of the life of the Church, such as the removal of church debts; the more thorough organizing of church work; the increase of systematic beneficence; and in many cases the actual increase of contributions; the more active missionary spirit; the mission churches in our cities; and indeed the increased readiness of our body to lay hold of any method, which Christian sagacity, or Christian experience, points out as likely to accomplish good results. Frequent mention is made, in the reports, of the grateful and timely aid received from the various Boards of the Church, Home Mission, Publication, Sustentation, etc., showing indubitably the wisdom and the efficiency of our methods.

Notwithstanding these many favorable indications, we should not fully represent the spirit of the various Narratives submitted to our observation, did we not refer to some of the discouragements of which mention is not unfrequently made.

The world is still the world, not yet subdued to Christ. Men are still self-seeking, self-indulgent, ambitious, and proud. We read the story of intemperance, of violation of the sanctity of the Sabbath, of indulgence in the grosser forms of vice. Luxury, the inordinate pursuit of wealth, laxness of morality, worldliness, leave their mark even upon those who profess to have put on Christ. Complaint is made of prayer neglected, of regular religious services unattended, of the want of depth and power in the piety of the age. Infidelity was never more subtle and insinuating, never more insidiously inculcated in popular literature and in graver works of science and philosophy. The supernatural is denied. Materialism, with its degrading tendencies, is prevalent.

If these things be so (and we cannot deny them), it only shows that we need larger measures of grace, a Pentecostal outpouring of the Spirit. It shows that the Church is in the world and not out of it; and indicates still more distinctly the greatness and importance of our work. The Church is so much the more bound to gird up her loins resolutely for new contests, to be ready to use intelligently the material and the spiritual forces of modern life, the new discoveries of science, the power of the press, a deeper spiritual consecration, to meet and vanquish the errors and evils of the times. For our faith we covet the strongest tests, and court the closest investigation, of science, wherever science can properly stand, and have no fear of the results. The things which we believe were not done in a corner, and so will we too try every man's work by the word of God, which liveth and abideth forever. For we can do nothing against the truth but for the truth.

In reviewing the history of the year, we are called to notice the solemn fact that ninety-one, a much larger number than usual, of our fathers and brethren have finished their course and gone to their reward. Some of these had but just entered upon their labors, and some bore the weight of more than fourscore years. Their names and memory are very dear to us, and will long be tenderly cherished. "God does not need either man's work or his own gifts." Some he commissions for long and toilsome service, and some he calls from these lower scenes before they have begun to feel the burden and heat of the day. Men die, but the Church lives.

The record of our Church the last year, let us say it with devout thanksgiving, though the record of the imperfect labors of imperfect men, is also the record of the superabounding love and faithfulness of the great Head of the Church, to whom be all honor and glory. The work before us is great. It aims at results the most profound, the most lofty, the most far-reaching, which the mind can conceive. But, as we know it is divinely ordered, so we are assured, notwithstanding the mistakes, the errors, the feebleness of the workmen, it will go on till the wisdom and the power of God are triumphantly vindicated before the universe.

And so let us repeat again the apostolic prayer, which at the opening of our sessions so happily struck the keynote of the harmonies of this Assembly, "Lord, increase our faith."

By order of the Assembly, HOWARD CROSBY, Moderator.

EDWIN F. HATFIELD, Stated Clerk.

Frederick H. S. Whitsworth,"	University of California.

Of these, William H. Hubbard was received by dismission from the Theological Seminary at Andover; George T. McClelland, from the United Presbyterian Seminary at Monmouth, Illinois; Oliver C. Morse, from Union Theological Seminary in New-York City: David A. Planck, from Union Theological Seminary in Virginia; and Winfield G. Stiles, from the Western Theological Seminary at Allegheny. Simeon W. Fisher, William M. Martin, Gilbert G. McRobbie, and David K. Millard had taken a portion of their theological course at Knox College, Toronto; and Thomas McCrea, a portion of his theological course at Magee College, Ireland.

The entire number of students in attendance, during the whole or a part of the present year, including three resident licentiates, has been 118.

The attention to study during the past year has, on the whole, been very creditable, and the conduct of the students exemplary and consistent, so far as is known to the Professors. A large proportion of the graduating class have already received calls to vacant churches, or have determined upon definite fields of labor. Three of their number have been accepted as missionaries to foreign lands, and others are pondering the question of their duty to the foreign missionary work. This is in addition to two of this class, who went to labor among the heathen at the close of their second year.

Certificates of having finished the whole course of three years have been conferred on thirty-six young men, viz.:

Charles T. Anderson,	William J. Henderson,	John Reid,
Charles H. Asay,	Benjamin C. Henry,	William Henry Rhoberts,

2. Annual Report of the Trustees.

The Trustees of the Theological Seminary of the Presbyterian Church at Princeton, N. J., beg leave to present this their Forty-eighth Annual Report.

During the last year, the Library has been increased by the addition to the catalogue of 716 volumes, making the whole number 24,096. Of these, 368 are donations: 222 volumes for the department of Christian Ethics and Apologetics were procured with funds supplied by Levi P. Stone, Esq.; three volumes of the Roman Edition of the Codex Vaticanus (in addition to one previously given), and a valuable old French work on the Waldenses, by Jean Leger, are gifts of Robert L. Stuart, Esq.; 32 volumes have been presented by the Rev. Thomas L. Janeway, D.D.; 27 by our Board of Foreign Missions; 11 by the late Rev. John Barnard, D.D., of Lima, N. Y.; 9 by the Rev. J. E. Rockwell, D.D.; and other gifts have come from various boards, publishers, and private friends.

Alterations have been made in the interior of the library building, by which its appearance has been improved, and its capacity increased, so as to accommodate 14,000 additional volumes. Measures also are in progress for a thorough rearrangement and cataloguing of the Library, and the issue of a printed catalogue.

A legacy has been received from the estate of James M. Cobb, Esq., and carried to the credit of the Contingent Fund.

Jonathan Sturges, Esq., has increased the principal of the Arthur Pemberton Sturges Scholarship to $3000 by the gift of $500.

Order has been taken for the completion of the Hodge Professorship of $50,000 by the accumulations of interest, which will be effected by the close of another financial year.

The appointment, by the Board of Directors, of a Tutor to assist the Professor of Oriental and Old Testament Literature in the teaching of Hebrew, was ratified by the Board of Trustees, the salary for said tutorship to be the income of the lectureship founded by Levi P. Stone, Esq., and, by his consent, temporarily appropriated to this object.

II. AUBURN SEMINARY.

Annual Report of the Faculty.

Since our last Report, the following seventeen students have been received:

Edward Chittenden Ray,	a graduate of	Hamilton College.
James Anderson,	"	" "
Lewis Russell Webber,	"	" "
Morton Fitch Trippe,	"	" "
Charles Anderson,	"	" "
Brainard Gardner Smith,	"	" "
Cornelius Stanton Stowits,	"	" "
Melancthon Woolsey Stryker,	"	" "
Robert Erven Cutler,	"	Western Reserve College.
Robert Dilworth Scott,	"	" "
Lyman Edwin Hanna,	"	" "
Lyman Calvin Gray,	"	Knox College, Ill.
Edward Payson Johnson,	"	Wabash College.
George Cheever Jewell,	"	Yale College.
William Henry Tallmadge,	"	Cornell University.
Clark Bateman Gillette,	"	Union College.
George Robert Bird.

Mr. Gillette was received by dismission from Union Theological Seminary, New-York; Mr. Jewell, from the Divinity School of Yale College; and Mr. Ray, from Rochester Theological Seminary.

At the beginning of the year, Mr. William Campbell was dismissed to Princeton Seminary; Mr. John Sutherland, to the Seminary of the Northwest; and Mr. James Tooker Ford, to Union Theological Seminary, New-York. Mr. James Urquhart has fallen out of the course, through sickness.

The whole number of students in actual attendance has been forty-five.

The following eighteen have completed the course of three years, and received the usual diplomas:

Leonard Wilson Church,	Martin Dwelle Kneeland,
Samuel Lee Conde,	John McLachland,
Thomas Kitchel Crane,	William Barr Minton,
Delos Edwin Finks,	William Augustus Rice,
Rosselle Andrew Fuller,	James Robertson,
Clark Bateman Gillette,	James Snow Root,
Martin Ellis Grant,	Frederick Dwight Seward,
Rufus Smith Green,	John Sylvanus,
William Sylvester Holt,	Joseph Leonard Waugh.

The Faculty are:

Rev. Samuel M. Hopkins, D.D., Professor of Ecclesiastical History and Church Polity.

Rev. Edwin Hall, D.D., Professor of Christian Theology.

Rev. Jonathan B. Condit, D.D., Professor of Sacred Rhetoric and Pastoral Theology.

Rev. Ezra A. Huntington, D.D., Professor of Biblical Criticism; and Rev. Willis J. Beecher, Professor of the Hebrew Language and Literature.

Further statements concerning the Seminary are found in our previous reports, published in the Minutes of the General Assembly.

Auburn Theological Seminary is under the control of a Board of Trustees and a Board of Commissioners. The latter is composed of three members from each Presbytery of the Synods of Albany, Utica, Geneva, and Western New-York.

At the regular annual meetings of these Boards, held in May, 1873, final action was taken, giving the Assembly a coördinate power in the election of Professors.

At the same meeting, the Boards accepted the offer of Hon. Edwin B. Morgan, of Aurora, N. Y., to give $75,000, of an additional endowment of $300,000, to be raised within sixty days. If the $300,000 shall not be raised, and if legal difficulties do not prevent, they agreed to accept the alternative offer of Mr. Morgan, to provide a suitable site, and to give and raise $400,000, on condition of the removal of the Seminary to Aurora. Earnest efforts are being made to raise the amount called for by the first of these offers.

There is one vacancy in the Faculty, caused by the resignation, two years since, of Rev. Dr. J. B. Condit, Professor of Sacred Rhetoric and Pastoral Theology. The filling of this chair has been delayed, for reasons connected with the efforts at enlarged endowment. Dr. Condit has continued, up to the close of the Seminary year just expired, to perform in full the duties of this chair.

Respectfully submitted,

WILLIS J. BEECHER,
Clerk of the Faculty.

Of this number, J. McCurdy Robinson and James H. Wright entered the Senior Class.

James D. Caldwell, J. Frank Hamilton, E. R. Jones, W. M. Eaton, H. P. Wilson, and W. W. McLane entered the Middle Class.

David Street took a partial course. The others entered the Junior Class.

James D. Caldwell, J. Frank Hamilton, Hugh P. Wilson, and James H. Wright were received from the Seminary at Princeton.

E. R. Jones was received from the Seminary of the North-west.

J. McCurdy Robinson was received from the Seminary at Danville.

The health of the students has been good, and their attention to study commendable.

In the absence of the Rev. Dr. Jacobus, during a part of the term, the Rev. Samuel M. Henderson, of Wilkinsburgh, acted as Assistant in Biblical Literature and Exegesis.

Professor Crane, of the Western University, has acted as Instructor in the Hebrew language.

Both of these brethren performed their duties efficiently and acceptably.

Rev. Luther Halsey, D.D., LL.D., lectured for a part of the term, on Practical Theology, greatly to the benefit and edification of the students.

Our venerable and beloved Emeritus Professor, the Rev. Dr. Elliott, has lectured occasionally, and when his health would permit, has performed valuable pastoral work among the students.

The following students, having completed the three years' course and fulfilled the requirements of the Institution, have received diplomas, viz.:

Thomas Rush Alexander,
Cornelius Ashbury,
Anthony George Baker,
Frank Boyle,
William Brainerd Carr,
James S. Caruthers,
Neville B. Craig Comingo,
Asahel Clark Crist,
Henry Augustus Dodge,
Joseph Grimes Lyle,
William Earnest McCrea,
William McKibbin,
Isaac William McVitty,
Edward Payson Newton,
James Linn Reed,
Thomas Alexander Robinson,
David Junkin Satterfield,
William Niccolls Sloan,
Samuel Stevenson,
Francis Edwin Thompson.

At a meeting of the Directors, held on the 16th day of April, 1873, it was Resolved—That we deem it inexpedient to appoint a fifth Professor at the present time.

It is with profound sorrow that we mention the death of two of our number, the Rev. John Eagleson, D.D., and Mr. Matthew Scott. Both of these were faithful and efficient members of our Board.

The following persons were elected at our Annual Meeting in April to fill vacancies existing or occuring at that time, viz.:

Ministers.

Daniel W. Fisher,
Moses A. Hoge, D.D.,
Alexander Donaldson, D.D.,
Sylvester F. Scovel,
William E. Hunt,
David X. Junkin, D.D.,
John Gillespie, and Robert Alexander, in place of John Eagleson, D.D., deceased.

Elders.

Hon. J. K. Ewing,
James C. Lewis, and John Sutton, in place of Matthew Scott, deceased.

The Librarian reports a donation of 12 volumes from Rev. J. Caruthers.

The New Fire-proof Library Hall was suitably opened with religious services in connection with the exercises of graduation, April 17th. The Rev. Drs. Beattie and Elliott conducted the introductory exercises. The Rev. Dr. Henry A. Boardman, of Philadelphia, delivered an address, to which remarks were added by Dr. Elliott and Hon. Robert McKnight, of Allegheny.

The building adjoins Beatty Hall on Ridge Avenue, and is admirably adapted to its great object of preserving the valuable Library of the Seminary from destruction by fire. It is fitted to accommodate 50,000 volumes.

Respectfully submitted,

THEODORE H. NEVIN, JOHN A. RENSHAW, } Committee.

Edward H. Otting,	"	Cincinnati, O.
John A. Hahn,	"	Milwaukee, Wis.

The whole number of students in attendance has been 41; of these, five were granted diplomas at the anniversary on the 8th instant, viz.:

Robert M. Hall, Plymouth, Ill., Charles Little, Madison, Ind.,
William K. Ingersoll, Cleveland, O., John P. Mills, Crawfordsville, Ind.,
Joseph W. Sanderson, Cincinnati, O.

There is an excellent library, belonging to the Institution, which is daily accessible to members of the Seminary. It has been carefully selected, with special reference to the wants of students in theology, and is annually enlarged through the income derived from a Library Fund, amounting at present to $9600. The library is surpassed by none in this section of the country, and it is confidently expected that its endowment and resources will be so increased, as to give it a high rank among the theological libraries of the land.

The reading-room is comfortably furnished, and supplied with many of the current reviews and periodicals; and made a place of pleasant resort for the members of the Institution. All are welcomed, without expense, to the privileges it affords. In this room the library of the Smith Rhetorical Society is now placed.

A weekly rhetorical exercise, including drill in elocution, practice in reading, extemporaneous speaking, and the presentation of original essays, is conducted by the Faculty, and is attended by all the students. The Senior Class is also trained in extemporaneous discourse, and in the art of delivering written sermons, under the direction of the Professor in that department.

From the Treasurer's Report, May 6, 1873, the following synopsis is taken:

Receipts of the year,	$46,379 81

PERMANENT ENDOWMENT.

General Fund,	$211,606 44
Library Fund,	9,600 00
Scholarships,	29,768 41
Alumni Lectureship,	387 00
Educational Fund,	178 00
Buildings and Grounds,	160,000 00
	$411,540 65

The endowment of the Fifth Professorship has received pledges to about the half of the amount needed, and it is expected that it will be completed this season. In the mean time, a special fund has been provided for the next year.

The Seminary needs, above what has been pledged, at least $75,000, part of this to complete the endowment of the Fifth Professorship, and part for new buildings.

G. M. MAXWELL, President.

CORNELIUS H. TAYLOR, Secretary.

V. UNION SEMINARY, NEW-YORK.

2. Faculty.

Several changes have recently been made. The Rev. Philip Schaff, D.D., has been transferred from the unendowed Professorship of Apologetics, Symbolics, and Polemics to the Brown Professorship of Hebrew; the Rev. George L. Prentiss, D.D., has been put into the new Professorship of Pastoral Theology, Church Polity, and Mission Work; and the Rev. George W. Sheldon, after several years of diligent and acceptable service, has resigned the post of Instructor in Hebrew and the Cognate Languages. The old Davenport Professorship of Sacred Rhetoric, Pastoral Theology, and Church Government, made vacant two years ago by the death of the Rev. Thomas H. Skinner, D.D., LL.D., is now a Professorship simply of Sacred Rhetoric. During the past year, as before, the Rev. William M. Paxton, D.D., has lectured very acceptably to the Senior Class in Homiletics, and the Rev. George L. Prentiss, D.D., to the Middle Class in Pastoral Theology.

The Faculty, as now organized, consists of:

Rev. Henry B. Smith, D.D., LL.D., Roosevelt Professor of Systematic Theology, and Librarian.
Rev. Roswell D. Hitchcock, D.D., Washburn Professor of Church History.
Rev. William G. T. Shedd, D.D., Baldwin Professor of Sacred Literature.
Rev. Philip Schaff, D.D., Brown Professor of Hebrew.
Rev. George L. Prentiss, D.D., Skinner and McAlpin Professor of Pastoral Theology, Church Polity, and Mission Work.

The Davenport Professorship of Sacred Rhetoric will be filled as soon as a suitable incumbent can be found; and a new Instructor in Hebrew will be appointed directly. The Seminary year will, hereafter, begin on the third, instead of the second Wednesday of September, ending, as before, on the Monday next preceding the second Thursday of May.

3. Students.

The Annual Catalogue, published in November, 1872, reports:

Senior Class,	42
Middle Class,	42
Total,	120

Of these 120 students, 86 were Presbyterians, 14 Congregationalists, 6 Protestant Episcopalians, 5 Methodists, 4 Reformed, 2 Lutherans, 2 Baptists, and 1 a Seventh Day Baptist. And they represented 15 of the United States, 5 Foreign Countries or Provinces, and 47 Collegiate Institutions. The Boarding Association in connection with the Seminary has been discontinued, and with satisfactory results. More than 40 of our students have been aided by the Presbyterian Board of Education, about 30 have been upon the Seminary Scholarships, and several have been aided by the American Education Society.

The spiritual condition of the Seminary has been particularly good. An early morning prayer-meeting in the Chapel, though not always largely attended, has been kept up with very creditable fidelity and fervor. A warm fraternal feeling has prevailed, and our young men have been looking out over the world, with an honest desire to learn into what corner of it the Master would have them go.

The Monthly Concert of Prayer for Missions, now conducted by the Society of Inquiry, has been well sustained. Several excellent missionaries, foreign and domestic, have addressed the students. The Secretaries of our two Boards, as also of the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions, and of the American Home Missionary Society, have repeatedly done us good service.

Of the 42 Seniors reported in November, one was dismissed to Auburn Seminary; and another, an Episcopalian, who is required to spend a year in some Episcopal Seminary, thought it best not to take a diploma from us. Our graduating class accordingly numbered 40, as follows:

Frank H. Bagley,
Isaac Baird,
John A. Baldwin,
Wm. M. Bartholomew,
Frank T. Bayley,
Albert Bushnell,
Archibald A. Coney,
Charles H. Daniels,
Henry A. Davenport,
Brown H. Emerson,
Amzi B. Emmons,
William L. Findley,
Donald Fletcher,
William H. Ford,
Joseph M. Gelston,
John Gillis,
Robert B. Hall,
Edgar A. Hamilton,
James H. Hoadley,
Samuel W. Howland,
Myron W. Hunt,
Samuel M. Jackson,
T. Darlington Jester,
Caleb E. Jones,
Kenneth F. Junor,
James Kirkland,
Appleton P. Lyon,
Eugene R. Mills,
William Plested,
James P. Schell,
Homer Sheeley,
Laurens T. Shuler,
Angus Sinclair,
William H. Swift,
John W. Talbot,
Isaac B. Tembrook,
William D. Thomas,
A. Judson Titsworth,
Matthew Wade,
Charles A. Wood.

Four of these will be Foreign Missionaries, Mr. Howland going to Ceylon, Mr. Hunt to Northern China, both of them sons of missionaries; Mr. Junor to Bermuda; and Mr. Wood to Brazil. Four give themselves to the Home Missionary work, Mr. Baird having already gone to the Dakotas, and Mr. Gillis to the Cherokees, while Messrs. Schell and Talbot have been assigned to other fields. Two propose to travel and study in Europe. Of the remainder, about one half have already accepted calls.

4. Lectures.

Lectures on Health have been delivered by Dr. Willard Parker, of New-York, on a Foundation established by himself. The third Monday of each month continues to be devoted in part to lectures of a practical character from clergymen in the neighborhood. Some of our ablest ministers have thus given the students of our Seminary the benefit of their professional exerience.

5. Library.

The Seminary is justly proud of its Library, which now contains nearly 33,000 volumes, chiefly rare and valuable works. For its more rapid enlargement in the time to come, the Alumni of the Institution have undertaken to raise a permanent fund of $50,000.

6. Financial Condition and Prospects.

Of the $350,000 subscribed three years ago, $100,000 have been added to the permanent funds, yielding income for current expenses. For the new Professorship of Dr. Prentiss, $50,000 have just been raised, half of it the gift of Mr. McAlpin. For the present, the Seminary will stay where it is; holding its lots on St. Nichols Avenue until ampler endowments justify its removal to the new site.

ROSWELL D. HITCHCOCK,

New-York, May 17, 1873. Secretary of the Faculty.

VI. DANVILLE SEMINARY.

1. Annual Report of the Directors.

The Board of Directors of the Theological Seminary of Danville, Ky., make the following Annual Report to the General Assembly:

I. The difficulties in the way of our adopting the Plan of Control recommended by the Assembly being removed, we are now prepared to adopt said Plan, and suggest the following necessary changes in the present Plan of the Seminary:

Amendments to the Plan of the Danville Theological Seminary.

Second Article. Amend section third, paragraph first, so as to read as follows: "As this Institution derives its origin from the General Assembly, that body is to be considered its patron and the fountain of its powers; and it shall be conducted under the authority, oversight, and care of the General Assembly."

Third Article. Amend by substituting the following instead of paragraphs first and second of section first: "1. The Board of Directors, as constituted at the expiration of the sessions of the General Assembly of 1873, and their successors appointed in the manner hereafter provided for, shall have the immediate control of the Seminary, and are authorized to exercise all the control of the funds belonging to the Institution hitherto exercised by the Assembly, as far as can be done consistently with the will of the testators or donors, and consistently with the objects and purposes of the covenants and agreements referred to in the Plan of the Seminary—the exercise, however, of such control of the funds by the Board of Directors hereby authorized being always subject to the veto of the General Assembly. But all matters relating to finance, such as fixing the salary of Professors, and the extent of aid to be given to students, shall be submitted by the Board of Directors to the Trustees of the Seminary for their approval.

"The true and only intent and meaning of the amendments and changes now made, in the Plan of the Seminary, are, through the enlarged powers of general administration herein conferred upon the Board of Directors, to provide a more convenient and effective mode of executing by the General Assembly, through said Board, the trusts it now holds in reference to the Seminary and its funds, and to increase, by a more efficient local administration, the usefulness of the Institution for the purposes for which it was established.

"The Board of Directors shall consist of thirty members, of whom one half shall be ministers of the gospel, and the other half ruling elders in good standing in the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America.

"These Directors shall be divided into three sections of ten persons each, one half of each section being ministers of the gospel, and the other half ruling elders; and one of these sections of ten persons shall be elected by the Board of Directors and all vacancies filled in the other two sections, at each annual meeting of the Board, in such manner that each section shall serve three years and until their successors are elected; and the third part of the whole Board shall be elected every year. The form of the election shall be as the Board shall, from time to time, prescribe; and all these elections shall be subject to the veto of the General Assembly, to which body they shall be reported at its next meeting thereafter. The members of the Board appointed by the General Assemblies of 1871, 1872, and 1873, shall serve out the terms for which they were respectively appointed; and the first election by the Board itself shall be made at the annual meeting in 1874, to fill all vacancies that may exist at that time in its body."

In section first, paragraph third, omit all after the word "vacant" in the last line but one of the paragraph; and in the next paragraph, substitute six for "nine" at the beginning of the third sentence, and add the words, "not specially excepted," after the word "business" at the end of that sentence.

Transfer paragraph first of section second to the end of the article, and substitute in its place the following: "2. The Board of Directors shall have power to elect the Professors, and to remove them from office, such election and removal being subject to the veto of the General Assembly. The said Board shall also have power to suspend temporarily a Professor, preliminary to and pending an investigation of charges against his life or doctrine. In the event of a vacancy in any chair of the Seminary, they may employ any suitable person to give instruction temporarily in the vacant department; and they may also, upon the recommendation of the Faculty of the Seminary, engage the services of any suitable person to give occasional instruction to the pupils upon any particular subject."

In section third, paragraph first, line first, strike out the word "especially."

In section fourth, omit paragraphs second, third, and fourth.

In section fifth, paragraph second, line first, substitute six for "nine;" and in the following paragraph, strike out the word "particular" in the first line, and in the fifth line substitute the word "filled" for the words, "brought to the notice of the Assembly."

Fourth Article. Instead of the first two paragraphs of section first, substitute the following:

"1. The Professors in this Seminary shall be elected by the Board of Directors at any of their regular meetings, or at a meeting specially called for that purpose, and of which due notice shall have been given. The manner of the election shall be as the Board shall deem proper at the time.

"They shall hold their respective offices during the pleasure of the Board of Directors. But a quorum of the Board competent to dismiss a Professor, shall consist of not less than one half of all the members."

In section second, paragraph first, line second, substitute "Board of Directors" for "General Assembly;" and in the third line, "Board shall" for "Assembly will;" and in the last paragraph of the same section, strike out after the word "unless" so that the clause shall read, "unless by the consent of the Board of Directors in some lawful meeting."

Instead of section third, paragraph first, substitute the following:

"3. The Professors shall be of equal rank and authority, one with another. But when they meet as a Faculty, and when they act jointly upon any occasion, the senior Professor present shall preside; and he shall perform, in the name of the whole, all joint official acts. If two or more Professors were elected at the same time, the one longest in the ministerial office shall be considered the senior one of them. The Faculty shall elect one of their number to act as their stated clerk, who shall perform the duties proper to that office."

To paragraph second of section third add the following words—"the presiding Professor having always a right to vote;" and in the following paragraph, line third, insert "advisory" between the words "joint" and "oversight."

In section fourth, paragraph first, line first, substitute "Board of Directors" for "Assembly;" and in the third line, "said Board" for "the Assembly;" and from the enumeration of subjects assigned to the chair first named, strike out the word "Exegetical," and change the title of the chair named last to "Biblical Literature and Exegetical Theology."

To paragraph fourth of section fifth add the following sentence: "Moreover, they shall always meet as a Faculty at the request of any member, whose duty it shall then be to notify his fellow-members of his desire for such a meeting."

For paragraph third, section seventh, substitute the following:

"It shall be the duty of the Professors, under the direction of the Board of Directors, to supply the pupils of the Institution with the preaching of the gospel and the administration of the sacraments of the Christian Church, if this supply shall not, in the judgment of the Directors, be satisfactorily furnished by some neighboring church or churches."

For paragraph first, section ninth, substitute the following: "The salaries of the Professors shall be fixed by the Board of Directors."

In the first line of the following paragraph, strike out the words "further" and "same," and insert the words "of 1853," after the word "Assembly."

At the end of the article add the following as an additional section:

"10. No Professor shall be a member of either the Board of Directors or the Board of Trustees; and the acceptance of a Professorship, by any member of either of the Boards named, shall be regarded as ipso facto the resignation of his seat therein."

Seventh Article. In the second section, strike out all after the word "begin" in the fourth line, and insert in place thereof the following: "on the first Thursday in September, and terminate on the last Thursday in April; with a short recess, at the discretion of the Faculty, about Christmas."

II. During the last vacation, at a called meeting of the Board, held at the instance of the following three Professors, they offered their resignation: Stephen Yerkes, George D. Archibald, and Samuel H. McMullin. Also the Board waived the six months' previous notice, and accepted their resignations. The resignation of these Professors rendered it necessary, in the opinion of the Board, to close the Seminary until the meeting of the next Assembly. The Board do not feel it necessary to give in detail the facts which brought them to this decision; but, for the information of the Assembly, we put the Records of the Board within the reach of the Assembly for their examination, if they so desire.

III. The following persons, comprising the class whose term expires 1873, retire from the Board, viz.:

Ministers.	Elders.
Heman H. Allen,	William Downton, M.D.,
Gilbert H. Robertson, D.D.,	John G. Barret,
John C. Randolph,	S. C. Bull,
George J. Reed,	J. B. Kinkead,
Samuel J. Niccolls, D.D.	Ormond Beatty, LL.D.

We respectfully request the General Assembly to fill the vacancies thus made.

IV. In relation to the Professorships made vacant by the resignations of the above-named Professors, hoping that the suggested change in the plan will be made in the government of the Seminary, and taking it for granted that the Assembly would prefer to submit that matter to them, the Board make no request concerning the filling of the vacancies.

T. H. CLELAND, Vice-President.

J. C. RANDOLPH, Secretary of Board.

VII. SEMINARY OF THE NORTH-WEST.

ANNUAL REPORT OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS.

THE Board of Directors of the Presbyterian Theological Seminary of the North-West report to the General Assembly, to meet at Baltimore, Md., May, 1873:

Since the Seminary opened at South-Hanover, Ind., it has now completed its forty-second year, and since its removal to Chicago, it has completed its fourteenth year.

During the year, twenty-three students have received instruction in the Seminary. Of these, fifteen were new students, to wit:

Jacob Boyd Andrews, La Fayette College, Pa.
William Campbell, Knox College, Toronto, Can.
Henry M. Collisson, London, England.
Edward B. Cousins, State University, Iowa.
Joseph D. Cowan, Queens College, Ireland.
George Dunlap, Knox College, Ill.
Farel Hart, Nassau Hall, N. J.
Albert B. Irwin, Knox College, Ill.
Henry Johnson, Hanover College, Ind.
George F. Leclerc, Lenox Institution, Iowa.
A. W. Ringland, Centre College, Kentucky.
John R. Sutherland, Knox College, Toronto, Can.
H. W. Tucker, Beloit College, Wis.
J. G. Venable, University of Louisville, Ky.
D. S. White, Centre College, Ky.

Only five completed the course of study. They sustained satisfactory examinations, and received certificates of graduation, viz.:

Francis M. Hickock,
John C. Hill,
Robert MacKenzie,
Horatio B. McBride,
Wilhelm Schorsch.

At no previous time have we had cause to report, that greater progress has been made by the students. We do report that Professors and students have used well the time and opportunities provided for them.

FINANCIAL.

The Report of the Treasurer and Board of Trustees shows that, including a balance on hand, at the commencement of the year, of $2430.97, the

Income from all sources net was,	$33,313 45
Disbursements,	32,085 15
Showing balance on hand,	$1,228 30

The Permanent Endowment Fund, secured by notes, bonds, and mortgages, amounts to $135,627 60
Scholarship Fund, 17,897 50

The entire fund of the Seminary, including the fund for the payment of Professors' salaries and scholarships, Corning Library Fund ($2360.32), and the estimated value of other notes, amounts to $168,618.65.

During the year, the Leander P. Phelps scholarship has been endowed in the sum of $3000, yielding an income of ten per cent. This was obtained by an honorable and amicable arrangement with the heirs at law of Mr. Leander P. Phelps, deceased, and the scholarship named in honor of Mr. Phelps, who desired the prosperity and usefulness of the Seminary. His heirs have honored his memory in assenting to what they knew to be his wishes.

It is gratifying to report, that we are able to increase the salaries of the Professors to a limited extent, though that of some of them is still inadequate. We again and again commend this matter to the Church, and trust that those, with whom much has been intrusted, will provide the means with which to pay all the Professors what they deserve.

THE BUILDINGS.

We need the buildings that have frequently been referred to in previous reports. The want of a fire-proof hall for our libraries, chapel, and lecture rooms, continues to be felt.

We are now making the effort to procure a fund for this purpose, and we are glad to report that we are receiving encouraging responses to our appeals. We trust the Church will not permit us to be disappointed in our expectations.

THE DIRECTORS.

The term for which the following members of the Board were elected expired in April, viz. :

Ministers.	Elders.
James D. Mason,	Samuel M. Moore,
Asahel L. Brooks,	Charles A. Spring,
Robert Beer,	Charles E. Vanderburg,
Samuel M. Anderson, D.D.,	John C. Grier,
John M. Buchanan, D.D.	Jesse L. Williams.

Those elected by the Board to fill the vacancy thus occurring and to serve until 1877, are as follows, viz. :

Ministers.	Elders.
James D. Mason,	Samuel M. Moore,
Asahel L. Brooks,	Charles A. Spring,
Robert Beer,	William G. Holmes,
John Armstrong,	John C. Grier,
Herman D. Jenkins.	Jesse L. Williams.

The class of Directors going out in 1874 is composed of the following, viz.:

Ministers.	Elders.
Robert W. Patterson, D.D.,	H. E. Seelye,
Isaac E. Carey,	Jacob S. Farrand,
William S. Curtis, D.D.,	Isaac Scarritt,
George C. Noyes,	Samuel Harvey,
Lewis H. Reid.	Daniel B. Greene.

The class going out in 1875 is composed of the following, viz.:

Ministers.	Elders.
Fielding N. Ewing,	Anson P. Waterman,
Arthur Mitchell,	John Forsythe,
Abbott E. Kittredge,	Nathaniel S. Bouton,
Arthur T. Pierson,	Henry G. Miller,
William W. Harsha, D.D.	Claudius B. Nelson.

The class going out in 1876 is composed of the following, viz.:

Ministers.	Elders.
Samuel J. Niccolls, D.D.,	Henry Phelps,
Willis G. Craig,	Benjamin F. Allen,
Jonathan Edwards, D.D., LL.D.,	Horace A. Hurlburt,
Charles D. Shaw,	Charles Crosby,
Josiah Milligan.	W. P. Lynde.

THE TRUSTEES.

There has been no change in the Board of Trustees, which is composed of the following persons, viz.:

G. F. Bissell, Esq.,	Hon. Cyrus H. McCormick,
John Crighton, Esq.,	James Otis, Esq.,
John Forsythe, Esq.,	V. A. Turpin, Esq.,
S. P. Hedges, M.D.,	James B. Waller, Esq.
Hon. Roswell B. Mason.

THE FACULTY.

Since our last Annual Report, Rev. Francis L. Patton, D.D., has been duly inducted into "The Cyrus H. McCormick Professorship of Didactic and Polemic Theology." This completes our present corps of Professors. The Professorships and present incumbents are as follows, viz.:

Rev. Leroy J. Halsey, D.D., Professor of Historical and Pastoral Theology and Church Government.

Rev. Charles Elliott, D.D., Professor of Biblical Literature and Exegesis.

Rev. William M. Blackburn, D.D., Professor of Biblical and Ecclesiastical History.

Rev. Francis L. Patton, D.D., Cyrus H. McCormick Professor of Didactic and Polemic Theology.

Robert L. Cumnock, Jr., M.A., Instructor in Elocution.

A fifth and even a sixth Professorship are needed. We are now glad to report, that a meeting of the Board of Directors has been called for the purpose of considering the matter of establishing the chair of Apologetics, with the expectation that, when such chair has been established and endowed, it will be filled by one of the ablest and most learned ministers of our Church.

Harmony has characterized all efforts for the promotion of the interests of the Seminary. We regard this, as well as the fact that Professors and students have had a year of profitable and useful instruction and study, as cause for gratitude to the great Head of the Church.

It will ever be the aim of this Board, heartily to coöperate with the Assembly and other Judicatories of the Church, in every wise plan and effort to promote the cause of ministerial education. We do not undervalue the importance of other Seminaries, when we say, none of them have more important work to perform for the Church than we have.

The subject of a University or College of high order, in this great interior of our country, well endowed and well and ably equipped, is one of such importance, that we trust that we will be pardoned for calling the attention of the Assembly and Church thereto.

The Seminary needs the University; the University, when established, will need the Seminary; the church and the Country need both the Seminary and the University.

Respectfully submitted, by order of the Board of Directors,

S. M. MOORE, Chairman, Executive Committee.

VIII. GERMAN THEOLOGICAL SCHOOL, NEWARK, N. J.

Annual Report of the Directors.

The fourth year in the history of the German Theological School has been a year of transition. The Directors have been largely occupied with the transfer of our Institution from a temporary to a more permanent condition. While our Charter gives us the liberty of conveying our property to some other Institution, if a change in German Emigration or in the needs of our German people require, the Board of Directors are convinced that our Institution will be needed for many years to come.

The increase of the Germans in our land from 1860 to 1870, counting their children born in America, was not less than 680,000. From the first day of September, 1870, to the first day of March, 1873, the increase of German immigration through Castle Garden only, not counting children born in America, was over 210,000. The point of time here reached marks just one quarter the distance to the next national census; and these recent statistics promise us, from immigration and birth, in 1880, an addition of at least one million Germans in the ten years. The Irish increase, from 1860 to 1870, estimated also with the addition for American-born children, was about 428,000. During the two and a half years since the completion of the last census, their immigration has numbered 134,000. The difference in number between the German and the Irish population at the present time is probably less than 100,000 persons; and if we add to the Germans, the German-speaking immigration from Austria, Hungary, Holstein, Luxemburg, and Switzerland, the German population is very considerably the larger. This large people, slow, tenacious, compact in customs and language, consolidated in our cities in masses of tens and hundreds of thousands, self-reliant in education, in the production of books, in the use of the press, are certain to perpetuate their nationality for years to come. If we would not have a permanently distinct German people in our Republic, we must be alert to open healthy communications between those adhering to their vernacular and our American life.

It is more and more evident also that geographically and historically our Theological School stands on the base-line of supply and power. We can rely very little upon New-England for assistance in furnishing theological education for these millions. Few of them enter the ports of New-England. The limited German population there do not suggest the needs which we feel. More than one fourth, nearly one third, of the German population of 1870 resided in the three States of New-York, New-Jersey, and Pennsylvania. If you take Ohio as a centre, the German-born population of Ohio and of all eastward States was about eleven thousand larger than the German population of all westward States to the Rocky Mountains. The German population of New-England was about one sixtieth of the whole.

The "avowed destination" of the 731,000 immigrants who arrived at New-York in 1870, 1871, and 1872, was 394,000, or more than one half, to New-York, New-Jersey, and Pennsylvania, 45,700 to New-England, and 232,000 to the Western States. The published statistics of the ninth census contain two maps colored to represent the comparative density of the German and the Irish population. These maps reveal very clearly the distribution of these two elements of our citizenship. The densest breadth of German population—over fifteen to a square mile—extends from New-York along the New-Jersey Railroad across New-Jersey to Philadelphia, along the western shore of Lake Michigan above and below Milwaukee, and along the Niagara River from Buffalo to Lake Ontario, with broad spots at Erie, Pennsylvania, and Cincinnati, Ohio. The densest breadth of the Irish population—over fifteen to a square mile—extends from Newark through New-York, across the east end of Long Island, along the shore of Connecticut to New-Haven, northward through the State into the midst of Western Massachusetts, and also across Northern Rhode Island, in a broader belt through Boston, to the northern line of Massachusetts.

The voice of Providence, therefore, in the very course of this mighty movement of population, calls us to provide for their religious training.

The rationalistic and materialistic philosophy among the Germans is bearing its practical fruit among us. As might be expected, a people released from the bondage of a state church, and entering into the unrestrained intellectual freedom of America, easily turn liberty into license. Of their three hundred and fifty-six German political newspapers, daily and weekly, the great proportion is bitterly hostile to Christianity—their editors either Jews or sceptics. Liberal lectures and infidel societies abound. Among the many books published and imported by the German publishers and booksellers, are many advocating the destruction of our faith.

The addition of these new forces of evil, carrying often to inconsiderate American readers the weight of German learning, in a materialistic and sceptical age, should stimulate, through our school, a sound philosophy and a scriptural theology. We are compelled to protect our Americans, as well as to correct the false tendency of German thought. Happy shall we be, if we can send forth half a score of intelligent young men each year, to guard and guide their countrymen into evangelical truth.

The Board of Directors present the following results of their work:

1. The Number of students has increased from eleven to eighteen; twenty have been in attendance, two of whom have withdrawn. Others have applied, whose entrance on our course of study we thought it not best to encourage.

The clothing of our students has been generously provided by associations of ladies in churches and by other persons. The youngest student, who is in his academic course, is half supported by his father. The average cost of the support has been less the past year, than for the year before.

2. The Curriculum of Study has been planned in a General Course of five years. This plan the Directors take for a general guide, giving themselves liberty to vary from it as occasion may require. It is divided into a Theological Department of three years, and an Academic Department of two years.

The students have been divided as follows:

Senior Class.	Junior Class.
August Herman Hager,	Carl Herrmann Gruhnert,
Frederick B. Hanle,	Frederick E. Schorer,

Rudolph Kuntz,
Gearhardt I. W. Landau,
George Loock,
William A. Nordt,
August Stange,
Adolph A. E. A. Wanderer,
Henry Weber,
Julius Wolff,
John Richelsen,
John Rudolph,
Ludwig Ulmer,
Frederick Ernst Voegelin,
Louis Wolferz.

Academic Student.

Jacob Bruder.

3. The Instruction has been conducted under the embarrassments of our transition. Dr. Seibert, Mr. Guenther, Dr. Fewsmith, and Mr. Strobel continued their service from the time of the last Annual Report until the Annual Examination in June. At the end of the Academic year, the Board of Directors unanimously invited the Rev. Dr. Seibert and the Rev. Mr. Guenther to be Instructors in the Institution, the Rev. Mr. Guenther to be the House Father. Rev. Mr. Guenther responded by expressing a warm interest in our school, but declaring that he could not see his way to accept the position. He was subsequently induced to devote two hours a week to instruction. Dr. Seibert consented to relinquish his pastoral care, and to accept our appointment on the condition, that we would appoint another German Instructor at as early a day as may be possible. His department was defined to be, for the present, instruction in Hebrew and Greek Exegesis, and some portion of systematic theology.

The Rev. E. W. Hering, pastor of the Evangelical Lutheran Church at Stapleton, Staten Island, commended to the Directors by satisfactory letters, has delivered lectures on Church History, Logic, and Intellectual Philosophy, since the month of October.

The Rev. Charles T. Haley has given English instruction in the Theological department, and Mr. Charles M. Davis, principal of the Newark Academy, has given the students Grammatical and Rhetorical drill.

Mr. Ferdinand Müller, student from the University of Leipsic, has given instruction in Greek and Latin, and, to a limited extent, in Secular History.

The annual Examination was held in the lecture-room of the Third Presbyterian Church of Newark, on June 27th, and was attended by quite a number of the friends of the Institution. In the evening, an address was delivered in the First Church, by the Rev. William C. Roberts, D.D., of Elizabeth.

4. The Property at Bloomfield has been fully secured to us. The releases as well as the deeds have been recorded and our title is absolute. We have expended upon the building and grounds, to bring them into good condition for residence, the sum of $354.27, and have received as profit on the sale of the Newark property $332.09.

5. The Board have thought best to pursue, another year, the plan for providing an Endowment Fund adopted in 1870.

The modified plan presented last year was to secure the $50,000 proposed, by subscriptions of $14,500 or $15,000 from each of the Presbyteries of Morris and Orange, and Elizabeth, $20,000 or $21,000 from our own Presbytery, and to obtain such help from the Presbytery of Jersey City as the churches might be able to give. All the adjacent Presbyteries have made a cordial response, and have given us a partial subscription—an earnest, we doubt not, of the full amount which we have hoped from them. The Board confidently expect to realize the $50,000 from these four Presbyteries, but hope, during the year to come, to devise a plan by which an addition to the endowment may be secured from the large cities which are so much interested in our success. The only agent whom we have had during the year, since the Secretary completed his work of solicitation last spring, has been Dr. Seibert. In the midst of multiplied labors and cares, he has been able to go to some extent among the churches; but has had the constant embarrassment of assisting the endowment and the current expense at the same time.

Last year, the Board reported as paid in: from the Presbytery of Newark, $15,436.25; this year from the Presbytery, $16,468.41; from the four Presbyteries, last year, $22,425.66; this year from the four Presbyteries, $27,618.20. The total amount of the Endowment from all sources was at the end of last year: subscribed, $27,559.30; paid in, $22,491.06. At the end of this year it is, subscribed, $30,545.37; paid in, $28,046.79.

With the consciousness that we have done our duty at home, and will soon be able to complete our own full portion of the work, we can now go with confidence to the churches abroad for an enlargement of our permanent fund.

6. We are happy to state that we have been able nearly to meet the Current Expenses of the year.

The actual current expense has been $6920.58. The actual income has been $6614.15, leaving a deficiency of $306.43. There is, however, now due, for the uses of current expense, $400 for rent of the Bloomfield building, before we took possession, and $325 in subscriptions; so that we have the satisfaction, not only of having paid our expenses in full, but also of having diminished the indebtedness at the beginning of the year.

The relative income and expenditure of last year and of this year have been as follows:

	1872.	1873.
Contribution of churches,	$1,393 73	$3,528 28
Personal contributions,	225 00	311 50
Society for the Promotion of Learning,	100 00	100 00
Interest on invested funds,	544 12	953 27
Insurance returned,		11 10
Board of Education,	1,485 00	1,710 00
Total of income,	$3,747 85	$6,614 15
Total of expenditure,	4,525 04	6,920 58
Deficiency	$777 19	$306 43

The full amount of our deficiency is as follows:

Deficiency of 1873,	$306 43
" " 1872,	777 19
" " 1871,	693 26
	$1,776 88
Amount collectible,	725 00
Total deficiency,	$1,051 88

While therefore, during the past year, we have been able to meet substantially our expense, we have still the deficit of the two former years; and it is necessary, during the year to come, that we meet not only our expense, but sweep off our whole indebtedness. If every church of our Presbytery will take a collection for us, we will probably be able to balance the deficiency.

The Synod of New-Jersey gave our Institution a very cordial indorsement at their annual meeting, and continued their appointment of Rev. Drs. Roberts, Duffield, and Reed as their Committee. This Committee has been a valuable help to us by their personal sympathy, and by attendance in part on two of our meetings.

7. Future Plans. As we look out upon the future, we see many things needful to be done. We need another German instructor. We need an English instructor for the theological department, who will develop the whole branch of English instruction. We will have a class of nine students to be graduated at the close of next year, who should be trained in the art of English as well as German speech. We need to advance our Academic Department. There are problems in connection with this transition which need careful thought and solution from the American stand-point.

In accordance with the instructions of the Presbytery of Newark, last year, the Board has procured a supplement to the charter, for an increase of the number of Directors, the number not to exceed twenty-one, twelve being clergymen and nine laymen. It is agreed that the number of the Directors for the present be fifteen, consisting of eight clergymen and seven laymen.

The following persons have been elected Directors, in addition to those whose term had not expired:

Rev. Joseph Fewsmith, D.D.,
" Charles E. Knox,
" James P. Wilson, D.D.,
" Elijah R. Craven, D.D.,
" William C. Roberts, D.D.,
" Eldridge Mix.
Mr. Amzi Dodd,
" Levi P. Stone,
" James B. Pinneo,
" William Rankin,
" Moses M. Bradley.

The Directors have adopted a corporate seal, containing the name of the School in circular form, and in the field, the legend ἵνα ὁ κόσμος πιστεύσῃ.

With the spiritual blessings of the year, the increasing interest of the churches, and their increasing pecuniary expenses, and the spirit and devotion of the students, in mind, the Board have a lively hope that our growing Institution may do much to fulfill our Lord's prayer: THAT THE WORLD MAY BELIEVE.

All of which is respectfully submitted,

JONATHAN F. STEARNS, President.

CHARLES E. KNOX, Secretary.

IX. GERMAN THEOLOGICAL SCHOOL OF THE NORTH-WEST.

ANNUAL REPORT OF THE DIRECTORS.

THE Board of Directors of the German Theological School of the North-West respectfully present their Annual Report to the General Assembly, to meet in Baltimore, Md., in May, 1873.

The past was a year of decided progress in the interests of the School. It has, we trust, put it into a position of increased strength and efficiency, and opened for it a prospect of enlarged usefulness.

The occupancy of the Building, purchased one year ago, has contributed most happily to the comfort of the School, and to the convenience of instruction. It commands the gratitude of all who are interested in the Institution.

1. Students.—Seventeen young men received instruction during the whole or parts of the last scholastic year; of which number four were received as new students to the preparatory department; viz.:

A. Berger, W. Mundhenks, C. Stark, and W. Schwabe.

Of those reported in the Institution last year, five were dismissed and have entered the service of the ministry.

2. Faculty.—Rev. J. Bantly having finally declined the Professorship to which he was elected one year ago, that department of instruction was very acceptably filled by Rev. Lesko Triest, late of Memphis, Tenn., and an alumnus of the Western Theological Seminary, acting as tutor. At the recent meeting of the Board, Mr. Triest was elected to the Professorship of Oriental and Biblical Literature.

Mr. Jacob Stark resigned the position of Instructor, with a view of continuing his preparation for the ministry, in circumstances more advantageous.

In accepting his resignation, the Board very heartily commend him to the Faculties in whatever Institutions he may hereafter pursue his studies.

3. Library.—Only fifteen volumes were added to the Library during the year. The Board desire to call special attention to the wants of this important appliance for the culture of students. We have not at present the pecuniary ability to make purchases, nor have the students the means of supplying the lack by private collections.

4. Finances.—Owing to the unavoidable failure of the Executive Committee to secure the constant services of an efficient agent, comparatively little was done in the way of increasing the endowment and other funds of the Institution during the year.

The amount added to it was $6882 29; making the total endowment at present $17,301.

It is now hoped that arrangements will soon be perfected, by which a very vigorous effort will be put forth during the coming year.

The Board of Directors, after filling vacancies, and electing a class to supply the place of those whose term had expired, are as follows:

Class of 1876.	Class of 1875.	Class of 1874.
Rev. James M. Reid,	Rev. Wm. K. Marshall, D.D.	Rev. Ambrose C. Smith,
" John Bantly,	" William Behle,	" Ernst Kudobe,
" Luther A. Ostrander,	" John Berk,	" Jacob Leisveldt,
Mr. John H. Thompson,	Mr. J. Mathis,	Mr. L. Boisat,
" B. M. Harger,	" J. D. Metz,	" C. Knackstedt,
" R. Bickenbach.	" D. A. McKinlay.	" C. Helming.

Respectfully submitted,

W. R. MARSHALL, President.

X. THEOLOGICAL DEPARTMENT OF LINCOLN UNIVERSITY.

ANNUAL REPORT OF THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES.

AT the annual meeting of the Board of Trustees of Lincoln University, in June, 1872, the Faculty of Theology were directed to "prepare annually a report of their work in instruction, and of all matters of interest respecting the Theological Department, to be sent, by the President of the University, to the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church."

In accordance with this action of the Board of Trustees, the Faculty of Theology respectfully present to the General Assembly the Third Annual Report of the Theological Department of the University.

The membership of the Board is as follows, viz.:

Rev. John M. Dickey, D.D.,	Oxford, Pa.
Hon. William E. Dodge,	New-York City.
Alexander Whilldin,	Philadelphia, Pa.
James S. Hawley,	Philadelphia, Pa.
R. K. Hawley,	Baltimore, Md.
R. K. Harvey,	Baltimore, Md.
Charles P. Turner, M.D.,	Philadelphia, Pa.
Henry Disston,	Philadelphia, Pa.
Oliver Otis Howard, LL.D.,	Washington, D. C.
Rev. Nathan G. Parke, D.D.,	Pittston, Pa.
Rev. William R. Bingham,	Oxford, Pa.
Rev. Thomas McCauley,	Hackettstown, N. J.
Rev. Andrew B. Cross,	Baltimore, Md.

Rev. Beriah B. Hotchkin, D.D.,	Broomall, Pa.
Rev. John L. Withrow, D.D.,	Philadelphia, Pa.
Rev. George S. Mott,	Flemington, N. J.
Rev. Francis R. Masters, D.D.,	Matteawan, N. Y.
Rev. Samuel Dickey,	Oxford, Pa.
Rev. Isaac N. Rendall, D.D.,	Lincoln University, Pa.

At the annual meeting in June, 1872, the Board of Trustees appointed a Committee on the Theological Department, consisting of Rev. John L. Withrow, D.D., Rev. Ephraim D. Saunders, D.D., and Mr. Alexander Whilldin, especially to take cognizance of the interests of instruction in this department, and to propose plans and measures for its development. The death of Dr. Saunders, shortly after entering on the duties of a Trustee, has deprived the University of the wise and valued counsels of an earnest friend.

FACULTY OF THEOLOGY.

Rev. Isaac N. Rendall, D.D., President and Professor of Christian Ethics and Apologetics.
Rev. Edwin R. Bower, A.M., Professor of Theology.
Rev. Gilbert T. Woodhull, A.M., Professor of Hellenistic Greek and New Testament Literature.
Rev. Horace G. Hinsdale, A.M., Dodge Professor of Sacred Rhetoric.

At the annual meeting of the Board on the 19th of June, 1873, the Board created the chair of "Hebrew and Old Testament Literature," and elected the Rev. Clement C. Dickey Professor of this branch of instruction.

The Faculty at the opening of the year invited the Rev. Thomas W. Cattell, Ph.D., Professor of Mathematics in the Collegiate Department, to deliver a course of Lectures on Sacred Geography and Biblical Antiquities; and also the Rev. William R. Bingham to continue his lectures on Pastoral Care.

Since the last Report, David S. Baker and William H. Little, then students in the English Course, have been preaching with acceptance in the South, under pastoral supervision. During the year now closing, there have been admitted to the Junior Class in the full course, John B. Rendall, Francis J. Grimke, Walter H. Brooks, and Isaac W. Davenport. James Howard was advanced to the studies of the senior year; and Charles Hume, Jesse Kelley, A. H. Newton, and John Treadwell were admitted to the first year of the English Course, as exhibited in the catalogue of the University. The Professors, in addition to the instruction in the various parts of the Theological course, have given instruction in the other Departments, in which there are 180 students, sixty of whom are candidates for the ministry.

The Faculty are pleased to report a growing interest among the students in the cause of Foreign Missions. The urgent wants of the great mission field in our own country, where friends and kindred are perishing without the gospel, may for a time seem to engross their sympathies; but the friends of benighted Africa need not hesitate to trust the grace of God, in the hearts of educated colored men, to an unpledged and free development; for, if it is the Master's plan, he will, through their enlightened consecration, save the land of their forefathers.

A "Society of Evangelistic Work" has been established and is so conducted as to bring, under the notice of the students, all the agencies by which the Church is fulfilling her great commission to preach the gospel to every creature.

The regular course of studies in the Theological course occupies three years. The last week of the year is devoted to an examination of the students in all the studies of the year. The students have been diligent and successful in their studies. The Faculty feel, that the importance of their work is not to be measured by the number of students now in the Theological Department; but by the relationship in which they stand to the communities where they will be called to labor, and by the imperative necessity of giving to those communities an educated ministry.

During the year, the students have been diligently exercised in Apologetics, in Didactic Theology, in the exegesis of parts of the New Testament in Greek, in New Testament Greek and Literature, in Homiletics, in Hebrew, in Biblical and Ecclesiastical History, and in Sacred Geography. Those in the English courses have been specially and separately exercised in reading the Scriptures and Hymns, in Biblical and Ecclesiastical History, in the Doctrines of the Bible by exegesis of the text of the English version, and in the preparation of sermons.

XI. SAN FRANCISCO SEMINARY.

The Directors of the San Francisco Theological Seminary report to the General Assembly, that their second year commenced the 12th of August last, and is to close the 15th of the present month of May. There have been six students pursuing their studies, divided into three classes.

Junior Class.	Middle Class.	Senior Class.
D. N. Alexander,	A. Lees,	James L. Woods,
H. G. Kieme.	James L. Drum.	C. W. Anthony.

Mr. Woods married, and on account of health, left the Seminary the 1st of January last. He has been ordained as an evangelist for interior districts of the State. Mr. Woods was a practicing lawyer before he became a theological student, and had pursued his studies one year under the care of the Presbytery before our Seminary was opened. Mr. Anthony spent two years in the Congregational Seminary in Oakland, Cal., but came to us to spend his third year, which he has done to our satisfaction, and will receive the usual certificate. He has been licensed to preach by the Presbytery of San Francisco.

The acting Faculty consists of the following members:

Rev. William A. Scott, D.D., LL.D., Professor of Mental and Moral Science, and Theology.

Rev. George Burrowes, D.D., Professor of Hebrew and Old Testament Literature.

Rev. Daniel W. Poor, D.D., Professor of Biblical and Ecclesiastical History, and Church Government.

Rev. William Alexander, A.M., Professor of Biblical Greek, and New Testament Literature.

The Board of Directors elected by the Synod are:

Ministers.	Elders.
William A. Scott, D.D., LL.D.,	Hon. H. H. Haight,
Sylvester Woodbridge, D.D.,	Stephen Franklin,
Aaron L. Lindsley, D.D.,	A. Hemme,
Thomas M. Cunningham, D.D.,	R. J. Trumbull,
Daniel W. Poor, D.D.,	C. W. Armes,
Edward B. Walsworth, D.D.,	Wales L. Palmer.
Albert F. White, LL.D.,
William Wallace Brier,

William Alexander,
John Hemphill,
Alexander Fairbairn,
Nathaniel B. Klink.

Our Professors are as yet acting only as a Provisional Faculty, there being no salary for the support of any of the chairs. Their services are entirely gratuitous. They have been able, however, to give diligent attention to the classes through the whole term. By the request of the Directors, they have also been assisted by the Rev. Dr. Dodge, pastor of the first Presbyterian Church of San Francisco, who gave instruction part of the term in Ecclesiastical History, and also delivered a course of lectures to the students on Pastoral Theology and the Sacraments. The Rev. R. Scrimgeour, acting pastor of Westminster Presbyterian Church in this city, at the request of the Directors, also delivered a course of lectures to our students on the Reformation, its Theologians and Theology.

In obedience to the instructions of the Synod, the Directors elected five of their number to be a Board of Trustees, who have become a body incorporate according to the laws of the State. The Directors, according to the wishes of the Synod, have also made some efforts toward the endowment of the Seminary.

A conditional donation was made last autumn, by the First Presbyterian Church of Oakland, Cal., which the Directors have labored to secure, by raising additional funds for the endowment of the Professorship of Ecclesiastical History, in favor of which this donation was given. Accordingly, the Directors requested the Rev. Dr. Cunningham to visit the East, and solicit funds for founding the Seminary, especially for the endowment of Professorships and Scholarships, and the Rev. William W. Brier was appointed an Agent to collect funds for the same purpose on this coast. The Rev. Mr. Brier has spent three months in this work, but has visited only a part of our churches. He reports to us that he has raised sixteen thousand five hundred and forty-two dollars and eighty cents in money and subscriptions ($16,542.80). This does not include the donation of the First Church of Oakland, which is considered to be about five thousand dollars.

Dr. Cunningham has spent five or six months in our behalf, chiefly in Baltimore and Philadelphia, and reports that he has obtained in money and good subscriptions from forty to fifty thousand dollars. He, being the pastor of one of our largest churches, was obliged to suspend his efforts and return to San Francisco, without having fully presented the cause of the Seminary in New-York. But we expect him to go east in the coming autumn, and confidently hope that the blessed Head of the Church will give him such favor, in the hearts of our eastern brethren, that his work will be crowned with from at least fifty to one hundred thousand dollars in addition to what he has already secured. We have resolved never to contract any debt, and to use the funds we may have control of, for the endowment of the Seminary, with a sacred regard to the desire of the donors. For the present, we are accommodated with students' rooms and lecture-rooms, by the generosity of some friends, and the kindness of some of our city churches, without any expense. Our first and main object is to get at least four Professorships endowed, one of which we desire to be an Oriental and Missionary Professorship. With Professorships endowed, Professors and students, we believe we can easily obtain funds for the necessary Seminary buildings.

A copy of the proceedings of the Synod, taken from its printed minutes in relation to the Seminary, is herewith transmitted as a part of our Report to your Reverend Body.

The Synod expressed their earnest commendation of the enterprise, and their determination to do all in their power for the establishment of this School of the Prophets. Several hundred volumes have been added to our Library during the year, and a growing interest is clearly manifested throughout our borders in the establishment of this Institution. We are more and more convinced the time has fully come for our Church to establish a Seminary in this city. Commending the cause to your sympathies and prayers, we are yours in the Lord.

W. A. SCOTT, President of the Board.

XII. BLACKBURN UNIVERSITY.

The Trustees of Blackburn University present to the General Assembly this their second Annual Report.

The Institution was organized as a University, A.D. 1867.

It embraces three Departments:

I. A Preparatory Department of three years' study.
II. A Collegiate Department of four years' study.
III. A Theological Department of three years' study.

The courses of study in these Departments are as full and well arranged as in the oldest and best Institutions in the country. The instruction in all Departments is thorough, and aims constantly both to impart knowledge and to develop and discipline all the powers. It is recognized as a fundamental law in all true education, that moral development must make equal progress with mental, if the human soul is to become symmetrical in all its proportions, and capable of attaining the highest spiritual worth and glory.

The number of students in the several Departments during the past year has been 260. About one fourth of this number were young ladies.

There have been ten students connected with the Theological Classes. Three of this number will complete the studies of the course next month. They were examined, and licensed to preach the gospel, by the Presbytery of Alton, at its meeting held last month.

The number of Professors in the Theological Department is at present two:

Rev. John W. Bailey, D.D., Professor of Theology.
Rev. Albert P. Bissel, A.M., Professor of Hebrew and Church History.

The studies of the entire Theological course are divided between these officers.

The Endowment of the University, in money, buildings, and lands, amounts to about two hundred thousand dollars. The Institution needs at least one hundred thousand dollars more money to enable it to do its work without overtaxing those who fill the departments of instruction. It is hoped, suitable measures for securing this sum can be inaugurated during the present year. The general interests of education, and the special interests of the Presbyterian Church in Central and Southern Illinois, require that this University should be speedily and liberally endowed.

By order of the Board,

J. W. BAILEY.

OFFICE OF THE BOARD.

Mission House, 23 Centre street, New-York, N. Y.

Abstract of the Third Annual Report.

The Board of Home Missions present their Annual Report to the General Assembly, with profound gratitude to God for his favor during the year past, and for the part they have had in a work which is so manifestly owned and blest of him; for harmony in the counsels of the Board, and the entire agreement in all the measures adopted to promote the prosperity of the work.

The whole number of missionaries is somewhat less than last year.

If the churches to which they minister had become self-sustaining, we should have rejoiced, for it is our constant endeavor to induce them to assume self-support at the earliest possible moment. But such was not the cause for the great reduction in the number of missionaries, nor was it because we had no fields to supply; but we could not find men for the work.

There are many changes every year. Some missionaries die, some become enfeebled by age or otherwise, and are compelled to leave the work of the ministry, and many others become pastors of self-sustaining churches. Our number, therefore, would be greatly reduced any year, if we could not succeed in finding men to fill the places made vacant in the way just spoken of.

Undoubtedly some of our number have been transferred to the Sustentation Committee, but as the names of persons aided by that Committee—except the appointments made in July, August, and September, 1872—have never been given to the public in the Record or otherwise, we have no means of knowing how great is the number of those that have been transferred from our list to theirs. But that, probably, does little to account for the falling off in our numbers.

We made unusual efforts to obtain men for the service of the Board at the beginning of the year, but met with very poor success. The young men about to graduate from our Theological Seminaries listened respectfully, but responded feebly to our appeals. It is a great satisfaction, however, to know that those who accepted our proposals were young men of much promise, who have thus far done an excellent work for the Master. Our best exertions in obtaining men were well expressed by one at the West, who had done much to supply the destitute churches with pastors. He says, "It has been the most difficult year in my nine years' service in this State, to supply vacancies, and that on account of the scarcity of men."

Our Church is a missionary Church. From the first it has been actuated by a desire to carry the gospel to "the regions beyond." Among the most important acts of the first General Assemblies was the appointment of missionaries to the destitute and sparsely settled neighborhoods, when almost the entire population was confined to the Atlantic seaboard. Still later, large numbers of the churches in Western New-York and Western Pennsylvania were organized and fostered by the labors of home missionaries. Beyond these States in the Great West, at such points as Cleveland, Columbus, Cincinnati, Indianapolis, Detroit, Chicago, and St. Louis, now great and important centres of population and wealth, the first churches were reared by Home Missionary aid, and scarcely any churches at any other points in those great and prosperous States have been formed and brought up to self-support without similar assistance. There are a few exceptions, but it is safe to say, that more than nine tenths of all the Presbyterian churches organized west of New-York and Pennsylvania have been Home Missionary churches. Our great and remarkable growth is the result of Home Missions. And from the first, some of the ablest and best men have been willing to avail themselves of such aid as the Board offers, while toiling on the frontier to lay foundations for the Church of Christ.

But there has been no falling off in the demand for missionaries, and the work has lost none of its importance or magnitude on these accounts. It rather becomes the greater this year by all it has fallen off the past year. The reasons that we have urged during many years past for the speedy evangelization of the country, have lost none of their force.

The Pacific coast, under the combined influence of completed and prospective railroads across the continent, and the late prosperous years, has received a new impulse. Our Missionary work there has never been so prosperous as now. All the Presbyterian churches on that coast, except two, have been aided in their infancy by Home Missionary funds, and some of them are beginning now to pay back most generously into our treasury; a gentleman in one of the congregations having just offered $2000 a year for the support of missionaries in Oregon. But the growth of population west of the Rocky Mountains is such at the present time, that we have a demand for 31 more missionaries at once.

The Rocky Mountain division, into which we have sent so many men the last three years, calls for four more men for Montana, two more for Utah, two for Wyoming, and five for Colorado, making 13 in all. Nebraska, into which we have poured an unusual force the last year, calls now for six men. In Kansas we have had great success the last few years, and that success has given us many fine opportunities, which we could not avail ourselves of during the last year, on account of our lack of men. Nothing but that hinders an immediate and grand advance. For more than a year the cry has been for 25 men for Kansas, and, as often as they have obtained a new man, some new station has been developed; so that the demand has not diminished, but rather increased during the year; for 29 more men are needed in Kansas this spring. Missouri is a much older State; but its capacities and resources are very great, and, when we collate the places to which we are urged to send men at once, we find the aggregate to be 29 there also.

There is a similar demand from the other Western States. Minnesota calls for 11. In Iowa the lack of men is very great. Forty-six vacancies have been reported to us, but several of these are self-sustaining churches and need no help from the Board.

If we come to older and more Eastern States, we find them still filling up, undergoing development, and organizing new centres of population, and calling for missionaries and missionary aid. Says one who is more familiar with the wants of Southern Illinois than any other: "We now need 20 ministers for fields now vacant; for about half the number we have negotiations now on foot; but there are quite a number of new points which we might and ought to occupy, and shall do so just as soon as possible. Southern Illinois, especially that part of it embraced in the bounds of Cairo Presbytery, is only beginning to develop. Its natural resources are immense. It will ultimately match the Central and Northern parts of the State." So, one with similar information in Indiana, says, "If we had 20 men for destitute missionary fields, and then twenty more of just the right stamp, we could organize 20 churches more along our railroads and in the country settlements, the next three months."

From the North, Wisconsin calls for ten men. From the South, a missionary in West-Virginia says, "This field of West-Virginia Presbytery, embracing 26 counties, is exceedingly destitute of churches and laborers. We have but 29 churches, and most of them are very weak and feeble." In no county have we more than three churches; in four, but one each; and in ten, none. From Kentucky a cry comes to us, saying, "We very much need more men at once. A wide and most inviting field is opening in this State."

Thus it becomes apparent that the area for settlement, and the extension of our population into sections previously unoccupied, and hitherto practically inaccessible, have been unsurpassed. Dakota, where we have had but two or three churches, except those among the Indians, has been penetrated by the Northern Pacific, and practically brought near by other railways in Western Minnesota, Northern Iowa, and Nebraska. In Nebraska, the railroad company alone sold of the Government grant 172,000 acres of land the last year; and, that they sold it mostly to actual settlers, is shown by the fact, that the average quantity of land secured by each purchaser was only 123 acres. Another road has extended south-westward to the valley of the Arkansas, and thence toward its head-waters, to be united with another road running south from Denver to New-Mexico. There is also a line now complete from Kansas southward, through the Indian Territory and Texas to the Gulf of Mexico. And yet other lines are crossing and penetrating that State and all the Western States and Territories. Northward and southward, on each side of the Rocky Mountains, noiselessly yet steadily these thoroughfares are finding out every fertile valley, to fill it with people, and to cover the wide prairies with settlements and homes; and herds of cattle and flocks of sheep and waving fields of grain are found, where but a short time since were wild wastes, occupied by buffaloes, elk, and deer, hunted in the chase by savages as untamed as they.

The estimate we have made, while it does not cover the whole country, mainly concerns the demand to supply organizations already vacant, or where a call has been made for a supply; it by no means exhausts the real demand, the actual opportunity to establish churches, even in the older States, if we had the men and the means; and, till the country is fairly supplied with churches and preachers of the gospel one makes a demand for another; and, if we had 200 men to supply the destitutions just enumerated, we should almost immediately need as many more. So that the point where the Home Missionary work ends, is still a vanishing and a receding point. The more we do, the more we are able to do, and the more we have to do.

But we should do injustice to our impressions, if we did not testify to the fidelity of the missionaries and their devotion to their work during the year.

There are doubtless some who have been burdened with secular affairs. But we have steadily endeavored to give every missionary such a salary, that he need not be compelled to have his attention turned from the proper work of the ministry by any secular pursuits. We have therefore sought to displace school-teaching and farming, and every thing else which any of our missionaries may have thought themselves compelled to resort to for a livelihood, and secure their undivided attention to the proper work of the ministry. And, we think, in no previous year has there been more honest devotion to it than during the year just closed. Yet it is due to say, that in no previous year do we remember more serious difficulties to contend with. The oppressive and almost unparalleled heat of the summer cut down our missionaries and their wives at a rate never known before. But many of those, who were able to continue their appointments and keep up regular labor, were so overcome and prostrated by the heat, that their labors were far less successful than usual. The same cause operated on the people. The Sabbath congregations fell off; the Sabbath-schools were badly depleted; and the people weary, listless, and overcome by heat, fell far short of reaping the ordinary profit from the services of the sanctuary.

No sooner had the intense heat of the season passed away, than that marvelous disease appeared among the horses, which paralyzed our commercial transactions in the great cities, and inflicted a severe loss on the whole country. To many a missionary who had several stations on his field, it became impossible to meet his appointments. Equally impossible was it for the scattered population of the rural districts, East or West, to go up to the house of God. And so the very season was lost, when the missionary was accustomed to visit his people in their quiet homes, and when an abundant harvest gave them leisure from labor, freedom from anxiety, and opportunity to give undivided attention to divine things.

Equally trying has been the severity of winter. Never before have we received so many reports, in which the writers have said that they had just risen from a sick-bed. But sickness has not been the most prevalent difficulty. The severe cold and the drifting snows, in many instances, broke up the religious services of the Week of Prayer, and other protracted or unusual services that gave promise of profit to the people. Their attendance on the ordinary services of the Sabbath has been sadly interfered with; either because the missionary could not meet his appointments or the people found it impossible to reach the sanctuary. The Sabbath-schools and the weekly prayer-meetings have suffered in like proportion, and no good interest has seemed to escape. To all this it is necessary to add what is not so extraordinary, but what every missionary and every feeble church feels, the widespread stringency in the money market, especially at the West. We have been accustomed to hear of crops cut off by frost or hail in limited sections of the country; but it has not been usual for us to hear, so generally, a complaint of the want of money from the missionaries and the churches. When the staple product of many of these States, on which the people most depend, becomes the cheapest article of fuel, it is quite clear that they may be warmed but they cannot well be clothed, nor can they carry on the work they have undertaken for Christ but at a great sacrifice.

The pastoral relation has never been lost sight of by the Board. In a new country where the population is shifting as well as heterogeneous, this relation should not be hastily formed. But the Board has always been heartily in sympathy with what has been said, by the General Assembly, as to the desirableness and importance of it.

Home Missions and Colportage sustain such a relation to each other,—that is, the preaching of the gospel by the living messenger and by the printed page are so essentially one work,—that the Board has opened negotiations with the Board of Publication, to see if our missionaries cannot be made their colporteurs, and thus unify the work and utilize the resources of the two Boards. No people are more accessible, than those who make up the new settlements of the country, and none are more destitute of good books. To exclude and preclude the light and vicious literature so industriously disseminated, the early thorough distribution of such books as are prepared by our Board of Publication is of the first importance. But the missionary needs to pass along every highway where new families have made their homes; he needs to enter their houses and make acquaintance with the inmates for the very purpose the colporteur makes his rounds among them. What can be a better introduction to the people than the offer of religious books? Why then could not the missionary distribute these books, talk and pray with these people, and make both contribute directly to the growth of his congregation, and to the enlargement of his religious sympathies and his appropriate work? Who would be better entitled to the compensation paid by the Board of Publication than the missionary, whose entire salary even then would be none too liberal for his most pressing wants? No conclusion has yet been reached by our negotiations with the Board of Publication, nor any plan yet devised by which these cognate branches of church work can be carried on by our missionaries; but we hope a method may be devised by the Assembly, by which this most desirable result may be accomplished.

One of the evils, particularly noticeable at the West, is the great number of church organizations and church edifices in nearly every village. It is a great grief to many, that there should be so often found a Presbyterian, Congregational, Methodist, Baptist, and perhaps other churches in a place, and each with a minister and a house of worship, when the whole number of church-going people could be easily accommodated in one church edifice, and served by a single minister of Christ.

This state of things has led to a fraternal conference with the Secretaries of the American Home Missionary Society, to see if any method could be devised, to prevent the establishment of both a Presbyterian and Congregational church in so many of the new and small towns of the West; that is, to inquire if the field could in any way be fairly divided, so far as these two denominations are concerned.

We have no report to make of any basis of action, or of any thing accomplished; but of something attempted or considered in the direction of peace, fraternity, and good will. And, whether any thing more shall ever be done or not, we thought it proper to report to the Assembly, that we were painfully impressed with the evil of too many feeble churches, and that we hold ourselves in an attitude to mitigate the evil, as soon as a feasible method shall be made apparent.

Sabbath-schools flourish wherever we send our missionaries. Frequently four or five schools, at mission stations where regular religious services are maintained by the missionary, are under his direction and care. And, when we notice how often schools die, that are not in connection with some church, or under the care of some missionary, we have reason to think, that the best and most permanent results of Sabbath-schools are in connection with our mission work. Hence, we find a ready response, in the large Sabbath-schools of our self-sustaining churches, in behalf of our missionaries. It is well known that for several years, the average amount paid a missionary is not far from $250; and a growing number of our Sabbath-schools are assuming the support of a missionary, who thereby becomes their regular correspondent. Thus a large number of them have regular correspondence with some of our missionaries at the West; and, by the information thus conveyed, they become more intelligent givers, and by constant giving develop their benevolence to a large degree.

The same thoughtful care, manifested in former years, for their sisters, the wives of missionaries, has abounded with the Christian women in our churches this year. Missionary boxes, which are never counted by us as any part of the salary, but as wholly a gratuity to the missionaries, have been sent out in great abundance, and in this way relief has been furnished to many a needy family. But these boxes ought not to be the measure of the benefactions, from the female members of our churches, to their sisters in the home field. More money for an adequate salary is better than many boxes. And many of our female missionary societies so regard it, and cannot content themselves without adding donations in money for our treasury. The movement in behalf of Foreign Missions awakens the conscience and sensibilities of the women in behalf of Home Missions.

The movement to make the Synods in Ohio, Michigan, Indiana, and Illinois self-supporting, was so far successful last year, that all parties engaged therein were greatly gratified. At the last Synodical meetings, new adjustments were made and new plans laid, looking to the time when all the Synods east of the Mississippi shall be self-supporting, shall be contributing rather than receiving Synods.

The most notable event of the year has been the actual and legal union of the Board of Domestic Missions and the Committee of Home Missions, according to the instructions of the Assembly of 1870. The requisite Act of Incorporation was obtained from the Legislature of New-York last year, and "the opinion of competent counsel that the authority was perfect" having been obtained, as directed by the same Assembly, the transfer of the property of the Committee of Home Missions was made to the new organization. The legislation, necessary to complete the union, having been obtained from the Legislature of Pennsylvania during the last session, a similar transfer of the property of the Board of Domestic Missions was made in like manner to this Board, thus making the union complete.

By the acts of the re-united Church, and by legislative enactments, these two organizations have become one. But nothing that is valuable has perished in the change. The old names henceforth belong to history; but all the potent forces and good influences belonging to both, it is hoped, have been gathered up and combined for better, higher service in time to come.

But the union has taken place none too soon. The war closed, the capital and enterprise of the country have been largely devoted to railway extension. The wide and fertile prairies in all the West; the wonderful mining regions of the Rocky Mountains, always most fascinating to a hardy population, now brought near, and increasing in their developments with great rapidity, and the varied attractions from the sunny shores of the Pacific, are luring our own people, and people from all parts of the world, from Christian and heathen lands, to the occupancy of the new and hitherto unexplored portions of our wide country. Every new settlement furnishes new opportunities to the Board of Home Missions, and lays us under new obligations: and we are well-nigh overwhelmed with the magnitude and pressing nature of the demands made on us. Not a week passes, nor scarcely a day, that does not bring us the news of new openings, and an urgent appeal for preachers of the gospel. Is there any way for the General Assembly to help us to men? Is it impossible for the Church to furnish the Board with ministers of the gospel for these promising fields, or means for their support? We do not believe it. With a more complete consecration of ourselves to the Master's service, there would doubtless be found the ability to do the work, and with its accomplishment would come the exceeding satisfaction of successfully serving God, and the first-fruits of that reward which is to be an "hundred-fold in this life, and in the world to come life everlasting."

The term of service of Revs. James O. Murray, D.D., John Hall, D.D., William M. Paxton, D.D., and of George W. Lane and George R. Lockwood, expires with this Assembly.

The whole number of missionaries under commission during the year has been 993.

These men have labored in 38 States and Territories; and 312 of them are settled pastors.

So far as it has been in the power of the Board, we have endeavored to supplement the salaries of the missionaries to such an amount, that they should not be compelled to leave their fields of labor on account of inadequate support. They have all been promptly paid through the year, and the whole salary of 318 has been $1000 or more. One hundred and sixty-six have parsonages, and all such as had $800 and a parsonage, must have received for their services from $950 to $1000 each. That is, about 450 or 500 of our missionaries receive what is equivalent to $1000, which probably makes them the best paid band of missionaries in the country.

Two hundred and twenty missionaries have failed to furnish statistical reports. But, if their statistics correspond to those forwarded, we may safely add one fifth to the figures already given.

One hundred and thirty-six churches have been formed during the past year.

The summary of the year is as follows:

Years of Labor,	715
Hopeful Conversions,	3,421
Added on Profession of Faith,	3,944
" " Certificate,	3,333
Total Membership,	43,260

OFFICE OF THE BOARD.

MISSION HOUSE, 23 Centre Street, New-York, N. Y.

ABSTRACT OF THE THIRTY-SIXTH ANNUAL REPORT.

The Board of Foreign Missions report to the General Assembly a general prosperity during the year in all its various fields.

Though returns of accession to the membership of the churches have not been made in all the Missions, an increase is shown of twelve per cent on the number of communicants of the previous year.

Missions have been commenced under favorable circumstances in Mexico, where the spirit of inquiry seems to exist in a remarkable degree. Though in the midst of persecutions in many places, the little congregations have evinced a steadfast determination to maintain their free Protestant convictions, and to fulfill all duties.

The Board has also decided to offer its support to the Missions in Chili, formerly carried on by the American and Foreign Christian Union.

Greatly increased aid has been received during the year from the various Woman's Societies throughout the Church, and it is believed that, in addition to funds thus augmented, a more general public interest has been gained for the Cause.

The receipts of the Board from all sources during the last year have been $454,836.88. Its expenditures have been $552,775.31, which, with the previous debt of $30,757.07, leaves a balance of $128,695.50 against the treasury.

This heavy indebtedness to the Board has not been occasioned by any sudden and disproportionate advance. The growth of the work has been steady and healthful. One reason why the debt seems so much heavier than last year is, that a legacy of $38,000, which was received a week after the books were closed in May last, was dated back, and counted in the previous year. Really the debt which was $30,000 two years ago, became $68,700 last year, and is $128,695.50 now. But for $18,700 received last year from the Memorial Fund, the debt would have been $87,400; and $147,395.50, now.

Another reason for the heavy debt is, that the Board has been called to assume a greatly enlarged work in Papal countries, without receiving any corresponding provision of means for carrying it on. The simple truth is, that the present collections given by the churches are insufficient for all the various departments of the Foreign work, and the Board has for three years been gradually falling behind.

It is felt that the financial condition thus shown is such as to call for wise counsels in the Assembly, and a general spirit of prayer throughout the Church.

Mr. James Lenox, so long an officer, and a liberal supporter of the Board, has resigned his place as a member; and for cogent reasons rendered by him, the Board has reluctantly accepted his resignation.

It will be necessary for the Assembly to fill his place, and also those of Rev. William Adams, D.D., LL.D., Rev. James O. Murray, D.D., Hon William E. Dodge, and Robert L. Stuart, whose term of office will have expired.

The whole number of Missionaries in the service of the Board: American, 135:—Native, 46 ordained ministers, and 67 Licentiates; in all, 248. The number of Lay Teachers and others: American, Male, 13, Female, 161: Native, 386; in all, 560. Total, 808. Communicants reported, 4780. Scholars, 11,657.

The Board closes its Report of the Mission work of the last year with mingled feelings of anxiety and thankfulness. The discouragement is caused mainly by the inadequate supply of pecuniary means. The receipts from the churches have, indeed, been larger than in any former year—which is certainly a gratifying statement. Yet the fact remains, that the supply of funds has proved inadequate to the support of the Missions, and that a large deficiency marks the end of the year. How this deficiency can be supplied is a question of deep moment, but one that cannot be discussed in this place.

Three things may be suggested in a few words: (1.) That the grace of giving is to be fostered, like other Christian graces, in the use of the same means and by the same agents. (2.) That our Christian people should carefully study their providential relations, not only in our own country, but to nations who are as yet sitting in darkness and the shadow of death. (3.) That prayer for the sacred interests of this Cause must be continued, even until the kingdom of Christ has come. If all the ministers and members of our Church would but lay these things to heart—as many of them now do—there would be no want of funds for the work of evangelization abroad. But as the case now stands, in view of the great debt already reported, far exceeding that of any former year, serious apprehensions are unavoidable. The situation is one of distress; the work cannot be carried on with this burden. How it is to be removed, and its recurrence prevented, whether by change of policy, change of measures, or any other change, are questions of grave import, which the Board commends to the earnest consideration of the General Assembly and the churches.

On the other hand, there are great reasons of thanksgiving. For these, need the Board do more than to refer to the narrative contained in the Report? The Missions are worthy of the Church, and God has blessed them. Whether their position, or their history, or their work, or their success be considered, their supporters have reasons to be grateful to God for them, and for the privilege of supporting them by gifts and prayer. In no other way, as the Board believe, can efforts to promote the glory of Christ, our Lord, be made with greater confidence of thereby doing his will. By no other means can greater numbers of lost and perishing souls be made to know the way of salvation. The souls already converted, the churches now organized, the native ministers at work, preaching the gospel to their own people, are earnests of the full harvest to be gathered at no distant day.

Abstract of the Fifty-fourth Annual Report.

The fifty-fourth annual Report of this right arm of the Presbyterian Church refers to the favor of God upon it for the year past, and to the greatness of the work to be done, and defines with great fullness "The Relations of the Board to the Presbyteries," and also the "Practical Sources of Defect in the System." These latter are really not serious. The Report says that a "great deal has been said, some of it in harsh and unjustifiable language, of the carelessness of Presbyteries in the recommendation of Candidates, and of partiality sometimes shown toward others who might have dispensed with aid. The Board thinks the number of such cases has been greatly exaggerated. It believes the Presbyteries have been more and more careful and conscientious, in the discharge of their duty in this matter."

Some have urged a radical change in the system, but the Report argues the "Soundness of our Method of Selecting and Aiding Candidates for the Ministry" with much force.

The following is the number of students who have been aided by the Board in the several stages of study the past year:

Theological students,	237
Collegiate students,	305
Academical students,	134
Total number aided since last Report,	676
Of the above there were, new recommendations,	113
Annual renewals of former recommendations,	563
	676

The Candidates in connection with the Board, who are reported to have completed their studies at the Theological Seminaries, are as follows: At Princeton, 24; Western, Allegheny, 11; Union, New-York, 15; Northwestern, Chicago, 4; Auburn, 10; German Theological Seminary, Dubuque, 2; San Francisco, 1. Total reported to the Board, 67. There are others who have not been reported to us; and some have finished their course without aid during this year who have been helped previously.

There have been dropped by the Board from its roll during the year, on account of deficiencies or violation of rules, 11; sickness, 2; death, 3; other provisions for support, 9. Total, 25.

The Theological Students at the following 12 Seminaries are thus given: Princeton, N. J., 63; Union, New-York, 47; Western, Allegheny, Pa., 41; Auburn, N. Y., 30; Lane, Cincinnati, Ohio, 22; North-western, Chicago, Ill., 12; German Theological School, Dubuque, Iowa, 8; Blackburn University, Carlinsville, Ill., 6; San Francisco, Cal., 4; Lincoln University, Oxford, Pa., 2; Highland University, Kansas, 1; Hartford, Ct., 1.

Of our total of 154 Presbyteries in this country, 127 have recommended Candidates for the ministry to the Board, leaving only 27 which have not so done.

We recognize French, Portuguese, South-American, Armenian, Dakota, and other foreign names. In the Theological schools at Bloomfield (formerly Newark), N. J., and Dubuque, Iowa, and elsewhere, there are in all 34 German students. In various institutions, North and South, we have 63 colored Candidates, many of them selected from the schools of our Committee on Freedman, as men of sufficient piety and capacity to justify an education for the ministry of the gospel. Our Welsh Calvinistic brethren have this year recommended six students through their own Presbyteries, and have provided means to pay their appropriations, including those for the present May.

YEAR.	1869.	1870.	1871.	1872.	1873.
New Candidates,	144	175	242	215	113
Total number,	544	627	670	722	676

It will be observed that the total number is 46 less than during the last year, and has fallen back to that of the year preceding. There has been a gain in the return of old students to their studies. But there has been in new recommendations, that is, in the number asking aid for the first time, a remarkable diminution. This year, there are only a few more than half of what there were last year, and less than half of what there were in 1871. The decrease is to some extent healthful, so far as it indicates, that some who might get on without aid are doing so. But the sudden and great falling off of new Candidates likewise proves, what we regard as a misfortune to the Church, that the membership in moderate circumstances, the families whence must come chiefly the power and life of her Christianity, feel deeply the pecuniary trials of their sons; that some of them have assumed heavy burdens, which the Church ought to share in their education; and, as we know to be the case, that some young men, who might have been very useful, have been turned aside from a profession, which the Church practically pronounces sufficiently numerous for her wants.

The experience of the past two years proves conclusively, that exceeding great injury is done to the cause of Education, by the Board giving promises of aid which the Church does not fulfill; whether as to the amounts, or the times of payment. A gain of sixty-two per cent over the former average of contributions is something to rejoice over, especially in view of the pecuniary condition of the country; but if the gain in men has been one half greater still, and there is a failure to a corresponding extent to sustain them, the results are pernicious. The Church, if need be, had better attempt to educate half what she has done, than that the young men should be deceived and wronged; the literary and theological institutions be burdened and embarrassed; the Board be reproached with failures for which it is not accountable, loaded with the blame of other existing evils in the church or in society, for which it is in no way responsible, its character and principles be attacked by inconsiderate and uninformed persons, and many others be prejudiced so as to withhold their share of the means necessary to its support; and the whole Church thus feel the hurt.

The thorough discussion of the principles of the Board, and more earnest consideration of its wants, elicited by its present trials, must lead to a much more liberal support of this Cause; but it is both just and necessary, that its appropriations shall be made to bear a reasonable relation to its receipts. The Presbyteries should be enjoined, to winnow more thoroughly the applications for aid, and reject all who do not give reasonable promise of usefulness in the ministry; and to inquire carefully into the real wants of the Candidates, asking no larger amount in each case than is needed. So far as the Board can control the matter, three ways have been suggested in which the reduction necessary can be effected: By a return to the old rates of appropriations; by granting the Board liberty to refuse to receive Candidates beyond its capacity to support them; and by giving it more authority to drop doubtful cases from its roll.

In reporting to this Assembly the deficiency of $45,541 in the $150,000 adjudged necessary to carry out the requirements of the Assembly of 1872, the Board solicits a careful consideration of the grave difficulties of its position, and instructions which shall enable it, if possible, to avoid them hereafter.

The receipts for the past year have been $104,459. The gain over 1871–2 is $23,446, an increase of twenty-nine per cent. There is encouragement to the reunited Church in this statement.

In behalf of the Board, WILLIAM SPEER, Secretary.

ABSTRACT OF THE THIRTY-FIFTH ANNUAL REPORT OF THE PRESBYTERIAN BOARD OF PUBLICATION.

A highly important event in the History of the Board, and the beginning, we humbly trust, of a new era in its growth and usefulness, is the completion and occupation of the new Presbyterian Publication House, which was opened to the public on the 20th day of November last. In the erection of this beautiful and commodious house, the Board claims that it has conferred a benefaction on the whole Presbyterian Church. From it are already going forth new and far-reaching impulses for the cause of truth.

The past year, in its business aspects, has been one rather of transition and of preparation than of actual enlargement. For only about four months has the Board had full possession of its new House, and much attention and labor has been absorbed in the purchase and arrangement of new stock, and in perfecting new plans for the future. Besides, business has been generally depressed and inactive throughout the year. Nevertheless, the Board's prospect of extended usefulness was never so bright as now. Valuable new publications have been added to its Catalogue; arrangements have been made for enlarged sales in other cities; the contributions to its Missionary Fund are enlarged; the interest in its colportage and Sabbath-school work has widely extended; its publications are sought for with increased avidity, and the divine blessing has manifestly accompanied them.

The last Annual Report covered a period of thirteen months; the present only twelve. In any comparisons, let this be remembered.

PRODUCTION.—During the twelve months ending March 31st, 1873, the Board has published of new works 221,160 copies. Reprints of former publications, 688,160. Total number of publications for the year, 909,160. In addition to the above, there have been printed, of the Sabbath-School Visi- tor, 2,229,000; Presbyterian Monthly Record, 155,000; Presbyterian at Work, 50,598; Annual Report of the Board, 5500.

Westminster Sabbath-School Lessons.—The Board has continued the publication of its "Westminster Lessons," embracing aids for both teacher and scholar. During the past year it has published Series IV., on the Last Week of Christ's Ministry, by the Rev. Henry C. McCook, and Series V., on Genesis, by Rev. M. W. Jacobus, D.D., LL.D. The Board has fully fallen in with the course known as the "International Series." The subjects to be taken up are to be agreed upon by a union Committee of various denominations—the treatment of those subjects is left entirely to the various denominations and publishers.

The Presbyterian at Work.—To meet the rapidly growing interest in the Board's Sabbath-school department, the entrance upon more specific efforts for Sabbath-school improvement, elevation, and extension, it was felt that such a channel for thought was indispensable. And to avoid the monotony of discussing a single topic, it was deemed wise to give in it also suggestions and instructions upon other forms of lay activity. The reception, the new Presbyterian at Work has met, has shown that the wants and wishes of the Church were rightly met therein. After the first of July next, the Westminster Lessons will be given only in its columns, thereby making a great saving to all Sabbath-school teachers. The "Lessons" for the second half of the current year will be furnished by the Rev. Samuel J. Niccolls, D.D., of St. Louis.

The Shorter Catechism.—The standard edition of the Shorter Catechism, approved by the last Assembly, has been published. Since the reorganization of the Board of Publication in 1870, over 160,000 copies of the Shorter Catechism, in its separate form, have been published.

The Sabbath-School Visitor.—This popular paper for the young people continues to circulate widely among our churches. The aim constantly is to make it attractive to youth by its beauty, its illustrations, and its vivacity, whilst filling it with such thoughts as may lead them to follow in the footsteps of Christ.

The Presbyterian Monthly Record.—This organ of the Assembly's Boards and Committees continues to be published, in octavo pamphlet form, by the Board of Publication, but only as the publisher for the Assembly's Boards and Committees, the control of its own pages resting entirely with each of the organizations represented. The monthly circulation of the magazine is about thirteen thousand, including the copies sent gratuitously to each of the ministers of the Church.

Publications of other Houses.—In addition to keeping an assortment of books from other publishing houses for the Sabbath-school library, the Board now has, or will have, in the capacious bookstore appropriated to its retail business, every thing that our Sabbath-school workers will need for the fullest equipment of their schools. Maps, black-boards, officers' minute and record books, etc., etc., can here be found and will be furnished to the schools on liberal terms.

DISTRIBUTION:—The Sabbath-School Department.—The Board's Superintendent of Sabbath-school work, Mr. J. Bennet Tyler, has now been a few months over one year in charge of this work. In endeavoring to carry out the wishes of the Board, as approved by the General Assembly in its Report of 1871 on Sabbath-schools, he has very efficiently sought for the Department—1. Suitable Publicity. 2. Access to the schools, which were scattered, and their number and condition not definitely known. 3. Denominational unity and coöperation, of which, in this matter, he found almost none. 4. More thorough and systematic study and teaching of the Holy Scriptures in the schools. 5. Memorizing Scripture, to aid in which several series of little feaflets have been prepared and published by the Board. 6. Normal classes for teachers, in which favorable opportunities would be afforded to teachers wishing to improve. 7. Statistics, blanks having been sent throughout the church, asking for all the important facts in reference to our Presbyterian Sabbath-schools. 8. Ecclesiastical recognition, by enlisting Presbyteries and Synods more fully in this work, and by holding Institutes and Sabbath-school meetings in connection with those judicatories. Decided progress has been made in this department. A steady, healthful growth of coöperative feeling and action is noticeable.

Colportage and Donations.—This part of the Board's work is sustained by its Missionary Fund, which is supplied by the contributions of churches and Sabbath-schools, and by gifts and legacies from individuals, all of which are sacredly devoted to the benevolent work of the Board. The Board has had in commission, for either the whole or portions of the past year, 158 colporteurs. These have labored in 41 States and Territories of the Union, and one of them in the Dominion of Canada. Their fields have lain in 33 Synods and in 104 of our Presbyteries. Of these colporteurs, 136 report having sold 69,483 volumes. They and the Missionary Committee have given away 54,069 volumes and 3,471,106 pages of tracts. They have visited 149,389 fies, the larger part of which were conversed and prayed with.

The Missionary Committee has voted 597 grants, amounting to $10,495. These have been sent to 41 States and Territories of our Union, and some of them to Syria, Persia, India, Siam, Western Africa, Mexico, and Brazil. Of these grants, 254 were made to needy and mission Sabbath-schools; 181 were sent to pastors and other persons for gratuitous distribution in their several vicinities; 64 were given to mission churches, mostly in our frontier States and Territories; 37 were sent, mainly by request of the Assembly's Committee on Freedmen, to Freedmen's churches and Sabbath-schools; 31 to needy ministers and missionaries for their own use, and the remainder to Foreign Mission stations, charitable and other institutions, and miscellaneous objects. Very earnestly does the Board desire to act upon the recommendation of the last General Assembly, to "increase its grants of every class, for gratuitous distribution, as far as its Missionary Fund will allow.

Sustentation.—The receipts into the Treasury from all sources during the past year, including the balance of $23,997.85 therein at the beginning of the year, have been $306,946.28. Of this amount, $7231.27 has belonged to the Building Fund, leaving $299,715.01 from ordinary sources. The total expenditures during the year have been $297,425.97. Of this, $71,562.71 has been paid out for the new building, leaving as the expenditures for the regular current business, $225,863.26. The balance in the Treasury at the end of the year, March 31, 1873, was $9520.31. The sales of books and periodicals for the year have been $157,576.78.

The Missionary Fund.—The amount received this year for the Missionary Fund from all sources has been $55,892.16. The amount expended from that Fund has been $55,868.86. The receipts have therefore exceeded the expenditures by $23.30.

The number of churches which contributed to this Cause last year, including 126 which gave their contributions to the Synodical Board at Pittsburgh, was 1753. The number contributing during the year just ended, including 154 which gave to that Synodical Board, and 234 contributing through the Assembly's Committee on Benevolence and Finance, has been 2138. There has, therefore, been an increase of 385 contributing churches.

Eighteenth Annual Report.

The Trustees of the Presbyterian House report to the General Assembly that the receipts and expenditures of the year, as shown by the report of their Treasurer, duly audited and herewith submitted, have been as follows:

Total receipts, including balance, ...	$8483 43
Total expenditures, ...	7518 19
Leaving a balance of, ...	$965 24

The Trustees further report, that they have received five hundred dollars ($500), in full of a bequest of one thousand dollars ($1000) previously reported, by William W. Chester, late of New-York City, deceased, and have invested the same, according to the terms of the bequest, for the benefit of the Ministerial Relief Fund.

The Trustees still further report, that they have received from the executors of the estate of Sextus H. Hungerford, late of Westfield, New-York, deceased, five hundred and thirty-eight dollars and ninety-nine cents ($538.99), the residue of said estate, and, in accordance with the terms of the will, have paid the same to the Presbyterian Board of Publication, the legal successor to the Presbyterian Publication Committee.

The term of office of the following Trustees expires during the present sessions of the Assembly, viz.: Samuel C. Perkins, Esq., Mr. John C. Farr, Rev. Daniel March, D.D., Rev. William T. Eva, and Rev. Thomas J. Shepherd, D.D.

Respectfully submitted,

By order of the Trustees,

ABSTRACT OF THE THIRD ANNUAL REPORT.

The past year has been one of peculiar stringency in money matters, which has painfully affected all the Boards, but more especially that of Church Erection, restricting its usefulness beyond what was expected and greatly needed. Instead of having a working capital on hand, we were obliged to commence the year with a deficit of $3565.51, and that at the very season when little money was to be expected, and when the most was needed for building. Instead of yielding to this discouragement, the Board went forward in faith, trusting that He whose cause they sought to advance, whose is the silver and the gold, and who has the hearts of all men under his control, would, in his own time and way, furnish the necessary means. Ofttimes our appropriations have been very far in advance of our means; but never, in a single instance, have we failed to redeem our pledge when the conditions were fulfilled.

Our receipts during the year amount to $110,774.88 (a considerable advance upon those of the preceding year). A larger number of churches, by one hundred and sixty-six (166), have contributed than in any other former year, but in much smaller sums, amounting in some cases to only a few cents from each church. It should be borne in mind, that this is the first year since the inauguration of the Memorial Movement, in which we have nothing to report from that source. Nor do we include in the above any sums reported to us as having been raised for special purposes, but not sent to our Treasury. Where the term "special" occurs in this Report, it denotes money actually sent to us, though designated by the donor to some particular object.

During the year, we have received two hundred and thirty-five applications, asking for $170,625. Adding to these the applications on file but not disposed of at the beginning of the year, the Board had before it three hundred and three applications, calling for $212,590.

Appropriations were made during the year to one hundred and sixty churches. The amount granted to these churches was $88,091.85, an average of $550. They extend into several of the Southern States and as far west as California, but are found chiefly in the Middle States. In no case does the Board give more than one third of the cost of the building, so that in those newly settled regions, where the population is sparse, the people poor, and every thing to be commenced, requiring much outlay, with as yet but little income, they are not able to raise even the two thirds of the cost of the most economical kind of a church building; hence, building in these localities is impracticable.

Appropriations amounting to $3200 were withdrawn from six churches, because not called for within the two years allowed for that purpose. Also, an appropriation of $800 was revoked for violation of the rules of the Board.

One hundred and thirty-two churches during the year received their several appropriations, amounting to $76,390.

Appropriations made to seventy-nine churches, amounting to $41,220, must be paid whenever the mortgages are sent in; and indeed they are coming in almost daily.

During the year, insurance on church property, to the amout of $119,483 has been secured, and in one instance the amount of $2000 has been received from a Company, for a church building destroyed by fire.

The work of Church Erection has ever been environed by difficulties peculiar to itself. Appealing, as it does, mainly to the judgment and reason rather than to the feelings and sympathies of our people, it with difficulty obtains a hold upon the unreflecting multitude. The connection between church building and the salvation of souls is not so immediate and apparent as it is real and certain. Another hindrance in the way of the enlarged operations of this Board proceeds from the fact that so many of our churches and most liberal church members, instead of sending their contributions to the Treasury of the Board, have given them to solicitors from various churches scattered over the country, of whose actual wants but little is known. Such contributions have no insurance and are liable to be lost; while all that passes through the Board is protected by mortgage and insurance, and, in case of destruction by fire, or transfer of property to any other denomination, the money is secure and comes back to the Board.

When the Presbyteries understand, that they are at liberty to call upon us to aid their feeble churches in their efforts to provide sanctuaries, is it not reasonable to expect that they will send us their collections to enable us to respond to their own calls? Were there only a few cases of special giving, the evil might be borne; but when more than one half of all the money contributed by our churches and reported to their several Presbyteries, and through them to the General Assembly, does not reach your Board, we feel compelled to speak out and to say, "Brethren, we cannot render the full tale of brick while the necessary material is withheld."

Another peculiar difficulty that impedes the work of Church Erection is found in the fact, that the necessities which it seeks to relieve, and the burdens it would lighten, have passed so far from the experience of our stronger churches, that they cannot be appreciated. It is not easy for those who worship in goodly sanctuaries, built in other days, and it may be by other hands, to realize the trials of their unsheltered brethren, driven to and fro for temporary accommodation, ofttimes in places most unsuitable for the worship of God.

The work of Church Erection is to a great extent one of particular cases. It admits of but few general rules rigidly enforced, and must combine such flexibility of movement with adaptability of administration, as will take in a multitude of widely varying circumstances and necessities. It is natural, and perhaps well, that a hundred different applicants should each present his enterprise as having peculiar claims, entitling it to peculiar consideration and help; but it is not easy, with inadequate means, to meet all these wishes, even when strongly indorsed by the Presbytery. Perplexing as these peculiar difficulties are, they are greatly enhanced by the wide diversity of views between many contributors and recipients as to the proper cost of sanctuaries, and the proper amount of aid they should receive from abroad.

Amid such widely diversified views, your Board are sometimes sorely perplexed to ascertain their duty. In their conscientious endeavors to secure the great interests of the Cause committed to them, they have acted under the following convictions:

First, we understand that aid through this Board was designed to be chiefly supplementary and stimulative. This aid was designed to be the lever, with which to raise from among the people themselves the principal part of the requisite funds, which could not otherwise have been raised.

Consequently we understand, in the second place, that the Assembly require us to act upon the conviction that churches ought very seldom, if ever, to be built largely beyond the ability and willingness of the communities in which they are located. Wise and vigorous efforts at home, we suppose, should in almost every case secure, with moderate aid from abroad, all that is proper to be undertaken. Indisposition or inability on the part of a community to furnish the larger part of the necessary means usually indicates to us that the time for the proposed building has not yet come, or that a cheaper structure should satisfy. We therefore advise that churches should build for their present necessities with provision for an easy enlargement should the future demand it.

Above all, we urge that pecuniary engagements or liabilities should never be made by churches, without a reasonable certainty that they can be promptly met. This requires builders carefully to ascertain beforehand the cost of the structure; the securing of the money prior to its expenditure; and arrangements by which the work can be stopped whenever the funds are exhausted.

Since the reunion of the two Assemblies, or during the last three years, this Board has, by its aid, effected the completion of 585 houses of worship free of debt, thus securing church property worth in the aggregate nearly $3,000,000, and affording church accommodation to 213,000 worshipers. During this time some advance has been made in church building over church organization. In 1870, it was ascertained, by careful inquiry, that we had six hundred organized churches without sanctuaries of their own. During that year we secured the erection of 195 houses of worship. The Minutes of the General Assembly for that year report the organization of 133 churches, a gain of 62 sanctuaries. In 1871, the number of new organizations reported was 168; our Annual Report shows houses built, 220; a gain of 52 sheltered flocks. In 1872, the Minutes report the organization of 188 churches; our Report shows the erection of 211 buildings. This would give in three years a diminution of 137 in the number of shelterless churches.

But as some few of the churches, aided by the Board, had buildings of a very inferior and inadequate kind before, and as some Presbyteries may have failed to send up their report to the General Assembly, and thus some organizations may not have been reported, we should make some allowance. It would probably be fair to say, that the gain of church building over church organization is about 100 in three years. At this rate it would require fifteen years to overtake the progress of organization, and give to every church a house of worship.

From the foregoing it will be seen that while our receipts and disbursements have exceeded those of the preceding year, the number of houses has been less. This shows that the applications—all of which have been indorsed and strongly urged by the Presbyteries—have called for much larger appropriations than those of former years. If these Presbyteries expect us to comply with their requisitions, they must not only send their collections to our Treasury, but also make their applications fall within the limits of our receipts. As has already been shown, we have during the year been asked for more than twice as much money as we have received from the churches.

One cause, to which the inadequacy of our receipts may be attributed, is the unfavorable season at which the greater number of our churches have been in the habit of making their contributions—the month of July, when all our city churches are thinned out—both pastors and people away from their homes, and when, in the rural districts, there is but little money being made, and consequently but little to be given. As we are acting under no instructions on this point from the General Assembly, we would respectfully and earnestly ask the churches to select some more suitable month for their benefactions to this Cause, such of them at least as may not have adopted the envelope or systematic plan of giving. If this be done, and the nearly three thousand delinquent churches fall into line, we feel confident, that the sum of $200,000 designated by the last General Assembly, and so urgently needed for this Cause, will be easily raised.

Will not all our Presbyteries see to it, that every church under their care makes an annual offering, not only to the Cause, but to the Board of Church

Erection, that we may be able to assist all those feeble churches that are willing to do "what they can" to build the Lord's house? This would be money well expended—that would be returned to the Church, "in some thirty, in some sixty, and in some an hundred fold."

All which is respectfully submitted,

ABSTRACT OF THE EIGHTEENTH ANNUAL REPORT.

The past year has been one of successful progress, notwithstanding several disadvantages. Among these was the want of a sufficiently large working balance with which to begin the year. There had been, at the commencement of the previous year, a balance of $6404, which helped to carry the work through the summer months; but in April, 1872, the accounts closed with a balance of only $783. A further difficulty was created by a reduction of the share assigned to this Cause, from one dollar out of every fifteen and a half to one dollar out of every eighteen and a half. This was effected by the addition of $300,000 to the other benevolent schemes of church-work, in the apportionment adopted by the last General Assembly. By this means, some of our most liberal churches, adhering to the Assembly's plan, sent in smaller collections than usual. The consequence has been that, since the middle of June last, the Treasury has been kept in an exhausted state, and it has not been possible to conform to the plan, heretofore pursued, of paying the semi-annual installments in advance; and in thirty-six cases the amount of appropriations has been cut down.

Nineteen who have been aided by this Fund have died within the year—two widows and seventeen ministers. The names of fourteen cease to appear on the roll—nine ministers, four widows, and one orphan. Five others will ask no help this year. Last year there were sixty-four new cases—twenty-nine ministers, thirty widows, and the orphans of four families. The whole number on the roll, from April 1st, 1872, to April 1st, 1873, is three hundred and seventy-nine; namely, widows, two hundred and four; ministers of the gospel, one hundred and fifty-five; and the orphans of twenty families. These were recommended by one hundred and nineteen Presbyteries, scattered throughout thirty-three of the thirty-five Synods of the Church.

The income, from April 1st, 1872, to April 1st, 1873, including the balance $783.87, was $81,317.47. The total expenditures were $81,302.79, with a debt for installments unpaid of over nine thousand dollars ($9337.50). This amount added to the expenditures would make $90,640.29.

On the other hand, the Treasury has received nearly ten thousand dollars more than the year before ($9560.81); and the number of contributing churches exceeds that of any former year, by more than six hundred—over twenty-five hundred in all.

The Permanent Fund has been increased by legacies and donations $6292.75; making a total of $104,761.99. Of this only the income can be used.

The first church of Scranton, Pa., continues to its former pastor an annuity of $1000; another church likewise $500, another $1000, and still another $2000—examples to be commended. But there are few congregations where the ability and will to do so can be found united, especially when the salary of an acting pastor is to be paid. This branch of our church-work beautifully expresses the idea of the unity of the church. Its practical operation cultivates the spirit of unity, and the burden is much lighter when all the congregations join together and do their share faithfully, agreeably to the injunction: "Bear ye one another's burdens, and so fulfill the law of Christ."

Special thanks are due to the standing Committees on the Relief Fund of the several Presbyteries, for their hearty sympathy and efficient coöperation. In general the duty of searching out and recommending those who are in need of help, and have a righteous claim to it, has been performed thoroughly, conscientiously, kindly, and with due discrimination. These Committees have advocated the Cause before ecclesiastical bodies, issued circulars, and in other ways excited attention, especially stirring up non-contributing churches to take up collections.

It is not known that, from the time of the inauguration of this scheme, there has been an individual, or family, fairly entitled to aid, which has ever been denied, when the proper evidence has been furnished, with the recommendation of the Presbytery, or of the Presbyterial Standing Committee.

Respectfully submitted, in behalf of the Trustees of the General Assembly,

GEORGE HALE,
Secretary of Committee on Relief Fund.

Abstract of the Third Annual Report.

The third Annual Report of the Presbyterian Committee of Missions for Freedmen, to the General Assembly, from April 1st, 1872, to the same date this year, is indicative of progress, and, on that very account, of an increased want of the means to employ more of the many laborers, ready and eager to instruct and lift up this portion of our citizens. The total of moneys received by the Treasurer the past year—aside from a few thousand dollars income from trust funds—is $63,125.73, while the current expenses of the work have been $49,260.37, and the entire disbursements $59,260.88, leaving $2864.85 in the Treasury, April 1st. This money has come from churches and benevolent individuals:

Number of White churches contributing,	1454
" S. Schools and Juv. Missionary Associations contributing,	42
" White churches not contributing,	3173
" Freedmen's churches contributing,	81
" Freedmen's churches not contributing,	22

As to the Freedmen, much more has been done by them in labor in the erection of churches, etc., upon which we have no means of placing any thing like a correctly estimated cash value. A number of boxes of good second-hand and other clothing, some of them very valuable, and good second-hand Sabbath-school and other books have been given; and we think, that, if it were generally realized how much these are needed, and how gratefully they are received by these poor people, such donations would be largely increased.

With a diminution of its funds, as compared with four years ago, in each of the last three years of $15,000, and the incubus of a debt of $17,000 meantime (now reduced to $5000) the Committee has well endured the pressure of an increasing work, and is convinced, that its condition and the results of its operations only need to be learned, to win the more active aid of the ministry of the Church.

The force now in the field is composed of Preachers, Catechists, and Teachers; and in the work under care of the Committee the past year, their number is as follows:

Ordained Ministers, of whom	18	are colored,	. . . .	32
Licentiates, "	5	"	. . . . .	6—38
Catechists,	25	all "	. . . . .	25
Teachers—males, "	18	are "	. . . . .	19
" female, "	11	"	. . . .	42—61
	77			124

Preachers, whether colored or white, are taken under care of the Committee, only after careful inquiry into their adaptation to its peculiar work. All the catechists are colored, are appointed by Presbyterial authority, are members of the church, and some of them ruling elders; most of them are young men who have entered upon a course of study for the ministry, and, while thus engaged, are not only performing very useful church-work, but in the doing of it are receiving a very necessary practical training for future ministerial duties, especially in public speaking. Each of these works under the oversight, and by direction, of some one of our ministerial missionaries, who, by their assistance, is enabled to carry on a much larger amount of work, than could be performed by himself alone. Some of them are young men aided by the Board of Education; others receive a small salary direct from your Committee. Teachers applying for work under our care, in order to be accepted, are required to furnish a certificate of membership in the Presbyterian Church, and of their qualifications to instruct; an effort is always made to impress them with a sense of the fact, that we send them not as mere educators, in the ordinary sense of the term, but as Christian missionaries, and we are happy to say, that they conduct their work accordingly.

Whole number of day-schools, 41; whole number of pupils in these, 3250; whole number of teachers, 61; besides these, a number of advanced pupils have been employed as assistants; whole number studying for the gospel ministry, 54; number of those that are Presbyterians, 52; number who have acted as catechists, 22.

Of church buildings, 5 have been completed during the year, 9 are incomplete, and the whole number reported is 79. Belonging to these are 9 manses or homes, all of which are free from debt. The united value of these churches, manses, and homes is estimated at $88,277. This does not include the property of Biddle Memorial Institute, Wallingford Academy, and Scotia Seminary, the united value of which is $31,400. Several of our churches have reported marked religious interest in the past year, and, as a result, that at Greensboro, N. C., received 37, that of Chester, S. C., 24, and Midway, Macedonia, Liberty Co., Georgia, 56, on profession of faith, which makes the number of communicants in the church last named 700. We conclude this synopsis with the following interesting statistics:

Organized during the year,	3
Whole number under care of the Committee,	103
Communicants added—on examination, 641; on certificate, 178,	819
Average, on examination, to each church, over,	6
Whole number of Communicants,	8229
Baptized—adults, 357; infants, 438,	795
Marriages reported,	148
Whole number of Sabbath-schools,	91
Whole number of scholars in Sabbath-schools,	5709

ABSTRACT OF THE SECOND ANNUAL REPORT.

The Sustentation Movement of the Presbyterian Church grew out of the Great Re-union, and aimed primarily at a better support of the ministry in our feeble churches. When the statistics were presented, it was found that the Church had become, indeed, a missionary church, in the sense of having nearly one half of its working ministry missionaries; twelve hundred, out of twenty-six or seven hundred who were statedly serving the churches, being under commission from the Home Missionary Board, and only a little more than half of the working ministry being pastors. When it was found, also, that more than one half of the missionaries were actually located in the older States, and not on the frontier, as would have seemed, it became a grave question, how far there might be churches called mission stations, which properly had passed beyond that stage, which ought to be ranked as pastorates, be held to the full obligations of self-help, and be furnished with full pastoral services, so as to have the fullest advantage for upbuilding toward speedy self-support. As regards the membership, it is one feature of the scheme adopted by the Assembly, that it erects a standard of average minimum contribution for the members, so as to hold up the idea of individual money obligation, and so as to reach each of the members, and of the stated worshipers, with the opportunity of giving, both to the salary, and to all the Boards of the Church.

A question early arose in regard to contiguous churches that might be grouped under one pastorate, in order to an economy of the funds. It was alleged that the stronger church of such a group, by fulfilling our conditions, would seek to separate itself, and claim the whole time of the minister, leaving the weaker church to go unserved, or to depend on the Home Board for larger aid, where the two could have together sustained a minister in common. Conferences were held with the Home Office in regard to such cases, and as promptly as possible, our Committee adopted and advertised it as a condition that "no aid would be given to adjacent churches, without consolidation."

The Committee could see, nevertheless, that cases might occur, in which the interests of our Church would suffer by a rigorous enforcement of this rule. The church in a thriving town might so absolutely require the full time and service of the pastor, as to claim to stand alone, and might justify the claim beyond all reasonable doubt; in which case a joint pastorate might be only a failure and waste. But it was deemed safe for the present to insist upon the rule, and await instructions.

The Committee, aiming to advance the churches to speedy self-support, have published as a rule for second year applications, that the net gain of members should be calculated at $7.30, for advance of church salary. This was not in the original scheme, but it seemed expedient, to hold up this as a rule for the net additions to the church for the year, where a renewal of the application is made. This has been questioned and challenged, as a tax upon conversions." It has been even declared that this rule "would set the minister to praying against a revival, lest it should spoil his average." But we have not so learned the ministry, nor can we so estimate our brethren in Christ. But our churches have reported to us such large accessions, in many instances, that we have not rigorously enforced the rule, and we conclude to modify our "conditions" accordingly. The $7.30 or the total membership is insisted on, but not for the net increase.

In only two or three instances has it been reported to us, that our rule against a decrease of salary cannot be complied with. It has not been held that a scheme so new must be infallible, or incapable of any amendment; but the Committee have met with no facts requiring other checks and balances, than they have set forth in the following published Conditions of Aid:

1. Actual Installation of the Pastor.
2. Salary of at least $500, and as much more as possible.
3. Average of at least $7.30 per member, exclusive of Manse.
4. Indorsement of Presbyterial Committee, and of Presbytery also.
5. No reduction of salary from preceding year.
6. Church's salary to be first paid and reported quarterly, in full.
7. Advance payment to our Committee of one twentieth of Church Salary.
8. Systematic giving (by envelope or collectors) to all the Boards.
9. No aid to adjacent churches without consolidation.

Grant to date from actual fulfillment of above conditions.

Payment at close of the quarter. Pastor to bear no part of the $7.30, or of the one twentieth payment.

1. For second year, new application reindorsed and conditioned as above.
2. Satisfactory evidences of advance toward self-sustentation.

It is matter of gratulation that nearly 200 Home Missionaries have been settled as Pastors under our scheme. This aim of the Assembly, to put the ministers, so far as practicable, into more fixed relations to the churches, has been in such good degree carried forward as a most encouraging result. The advance made in contributions to the Boards is most satisfactory. It shows that a people may, by such timely encouragement, be brought to do what to them seemed impossible in other circumstances. Reports have been received from two hundred churches under our scheme, which show their total of contributions to the Boards to be $20,000, as compared with $6000 during the same period previous. Most of these churches have been under the Home Mission Board, which is thus doubly relieved by transfer of the churches, and by increase of funds from this source, and by this means. In the salaries, the increase is as $110,000, to $85,000 previous. These figures show a solid gain of $39,000, under this regimen. And estimating for the remainder (one half more) in the same proportion, we would have $58,500 of gain in salaries and offerings to the Boards, beyond the same period previous.

Respectfully submitted,

In behalf of the Committee,

M. W. JACOBUS, Secretary and Treasurer.

Abstract of the Third Annual Report.

The Committee on Manses, appointed by the General Assembly of 1870, beg leave to make their Third Annual Report.

The duty of providing a manse for the minister and his family is so clear, that the Committee think the simplest application of the Golden Rule on the part of the people will settle that matter.

The inquiries, circulars, and correspondence of the Committee have kept alive the interest of the churches, and there is safe ground for increased hopefulness in the ultimate, if not speedy, success of the Cause.

The Presbyteries have, in good measure, complied with the recommendation of the General Assembly, by appointing Standing Committees on Manses, and asking for a report at their regular meetings. Some have issued an appeal to the churches under their care, pleading earnestly in behalf of Manses. Others have divided the Presbytery into visiting districts, and appointed a minister and an elder thoroughly to canvass the churches within said districts, so that the whole Presbytery could be stirred up. Ministers, who are pastors of churches owning Manses, have preached for congregations still without them, urging them to enter upon this good work without further delay. Manse associations and mite societies have been formed by the people with a view to the erection or purchase of Manses. These visible indications of interest are supplemented, by assurances, from members of numerous churches, of an intention soon to take up this line of duty. The importance of these auxiliary agents cannot be overestimated. The "will" thus showing itself, a "way" will soon be provided.

The time, now wasted in the distracting efforts to find a suitable location for a minister, in a congregation without a Manse, would all be saved, and the great work the minister is called upon to do would go forward with the least possible friction, if on entering his field of labor his family also entered a Manse. The "Sustentation of the Ministry" could be placed upon a more equitable basis, by means of Manses, it being evident that a certain fixed and stipulated sum will not cover, to the same extent, the necessary expenses of a minister, when the rent of houses is so variable, ranging from $100 to $2000 per annum. Manses would thus remove a serious obstacle from a satisfactory solution of that question.

There are cases where ministers live in their own houses, thereby relieving their churches of the present necessity of providing Manses. This is hardly just, as the minister thus contributes largely to the support of the gospel, out of all proportion to the average contributions of the members of the congregation. It also induces the people to "put off" the erection of Manses, and thereby provide for a future necessity of their churches.

This arrangement is so individual in its character that the Committee deem a mere reference to it all that is proper, believing that some plan will suggest itself to the parties thus situated by which the spirit of equity can be fully realized.

The importance and value of Manses are so thoroughly local, and directly beneficial to the churches owning them, that the Committee do not favor the suggestion of a Manse fund, or the identification of the Manse question with any of the established Boards of the Church; for, though the Manse is a positive blessing conferred upon the minister and his family, it belongs to the people: and it is not a sound policy to transfer to others a specific form of duty belonging to ourselves. Hence, the Committee have endeavored, as opportunity presented itself, to press upon the churches the necessity of individual action as the most hopeful source of success.

The reports made to the General Assemblies of 1871 and 1872 intimated, that the inquiries of the Committee might cover a wider field, but rather than enter upon said labor without due consideration, they submitted a series of questions as the line of investigation thought advisable, and the Assembly of 1872 approved of their Report, and recommended them "to secure such other matter of Church History as may be of permanent value." It was evident to the Committee, that their labors, to have "permanent value," must be based upon original research, together with a careful, conscientious, and thorough collection of facts. These facts were to be gathered from nearly five thousand churches, to be classified, combined, and presented to the General Assembly. The magnitude of the work is apparent, but it cannot be done without a great amount of labor, an extension of time, and the exercise of patience, in addition to minute and painstaking efforts.

The Report next refers to the several churches comprising the Synod of New-Jersey as affected by Manses or their absence, and closes with tabulated statistics bearing on the subject. The wish is also added that a deliverance covering the necessity of building Manses, and the importance of preserving the history of our own churches, should receive attention.

Respectfully submitted,

In behalf of the Committee,

JOSEPH M. WILSON, Chairman.

Abstract of the First Annual Report.

The General Assembly's Committee on Benevolence and Finance respectfully report as follows:

The duties assigned to this Committee by the General Assembly were—

First, "To use all proper means to promote throughout the Church the regular and systematic consecration of property to the Lord;" and

Second, "To superintend the collection of funds for the whole benevolent work of the Church."

The first step toward the accomplishment of this great object was to decide upon a plan to lay before the churches, which, if faithfully practiced, would necessarily promote devout and conscientious giving, and tend to secure a larger and more regular supply of money for the Boards of the Church. After long consideration, the Committee unanimously adopted what they believe to be such a plan.

Eight thousand circulars embodying it were sent out to the churches, with the request, that it should be read from the pulpit, and be carefully preserved for future reference. It was published also in the Record of July last, and was extensively copied into the newspapers.

The Committee have addressed the churches every month through the Record, and have maintained an extensive correspondence with ministers and elders. They have been careful to present the spiritual advantages, which the churches may derive from the practice of their plan, as far more important than the question of money. They have, also, been equally particular whilst presenting principles, arguments, and illustrations, to avoid pressing the churches to a decision on the mode of giving, but on the contrary they have uniformly recommended, that no change of method be adopted, until well understood by the people. They have issued a table of proportions, various circulars, and 60,000 copies of a tract descriptive of the benevolent work undertaken by the Assembly.

Little could be done by means of public addresses by a Committee composed so largely of business men. To remedy this difficulty, the Executive Committee informed the Secretaries of our Boards, in October last, that those churches which had adopted the Committee's plans were making large advances in gifts for the Boards, and the Secretaries were requested favorably to notice the work and the marked providence of God in the movement, at each of the Synods where they might make addresses. The Committee have also freely used the religious press in their efforts to promote regular and systematic consecration of property to the Lord. They make thankful acknowledgments for the services of the New-York Evangelist, the Presbyterian, New-York Observer, the Presbyterian Banner, the Herald and Presbyter, the Interior, and the Occident. Each of these papers opened its columns, and some of them have published an advertisement of the Assembly's work throughout the year, entirely free of charge.

The second duty of the Committee, as prescribed by the General Assembly, is a comprehensive supervision of the collection of funds for all our benevolent work. Heretofore supervision has been partial, exercised by eight distinct agencies, each seeking the largest amount of money for itself. Now, however, the Act of the General Assembly has provided that a Committee, which seeks the interest of all the Boards alike, may receive money for distribution among them, and receive regular monthly statements of their receipts, in order "that the financial condition of the Boards, as well as the actual benevolence of each congregation, may be at all times before the Committee"

Nothing could stimulate the liberality of the Church more than the diffusion of accurate information concerning financial matters.

Such information as is here suggested has never been possessed by the Church. The system of annual contributions for each Cause renders it allmost impossible for the Boards themselves to know, except by conjecture, what their own financial condition will be from month to month.

But, so far as churches have made all their remittances through this Committee, the design of the General Assembly in this respect has been quite perfectly accomplished. The actual contributions of such congregations have been "at all times" before the Assembly's Committee, and without the labor of compilation from different sources; and the general relation of those contributions to the whole work has been always definitely ascertained.

The results which have followed the practice recommended in this Report may be stated under three heads—Spiritual Blessings, Increased Offerings, and Regularity of Supply.

1. Spiritual Blessings.—Numerous letters received by the Committee show that, where systematic giving as an act of public worship has been practiced, the worshipers have been drawn into closer communion with Christ, and an encouraging sense of the unity of our church work, unknown before, has affected the hearts of the people.

2. INCREASED OFFERINGS.—The Treasurer received remittances from 24th June to 31st March, nine months and six days, viz.:

1st Quarter,	84	Churches, ...	$7,740	61
2d "	140	" in all, ...	16,484	36
Total to 31st March, 1873,			$59,621	69

Of these churches, 228 have made but one, or at most two remittances, and their action does not afford a proper basis for comparison. The result, as respects the remaining 63 churches, proves, that the Boards have received a great deal more in proportion, through the agency of this Committee, than they received from the same churches during a similar period last year. But, besides these, a much larger number are known to have been partially acting upon the plan of this Committee, and greatly increasing their offerings, but still making their remittances direct to the Boards.

3. REGULARITY OF SUPPLY.—This necessarily follows systematic weekly or monthly offerings for the whole benevolent work of the Church, and regular remittances at short intervals. This method also gives an even supply to each of the Boards in proportion to their necessities; for, although perfect liberty of choice in the selection of objects has been encouraged, the variations from the proportions of the Assembly's schedule in distributing $59,621.69 during nine months, has been less than four per cent, and the 33 churches, which commenced remitting through this Committee in July and August, are found to have given as much during the summer and fall, as during the winter and spring.

The aggregate amounts received by the eight Boards and Committees from 1st April, 1872, to 31st March, 1873, as reported to this Committee, are as follows:

From Legacies, ...	$168,345	76
" all other sources, including special gifts,	1,050,148	20
	$1,218,493	96

And a careful estimate of the actual financial condition of the Boards and Committees shows, that it would have been necessary for them to have received $132,231.36 on the 31st March last, in order to have paid their debts, and to have provided for so much of their obligations to missionaries and others, as is fairly chargeable to the work on that day.

It is now seen that this Committee has no money power. That exists only where money may be expended with some degree of discretion, as in our Boards.

Many now perceive that gifts made to the Personal Christ, from the strongest possible principles of gratitude and love, do not partake of a vague and shadowy, or a cold and abstract character. They are found also to increase, rather than diminish, the appetite of the Church for particular information.

So also facts are disproving the statement, that less money will be offered for our work as one, as an act of worship, than when urgent appeals are made through the medium of lower motives for eight separate Causes.

The fear, often expressed, that discussion would diminish receipts, is proved erroneous; receipts never were larger, and the increase has been greatest where discussion was most free.

It has been objected that the plan of the Committee is coercive; but this needs no reply further than to refer the objector to the plan itself. On examination it will be seen that the success of the method depends, primarily, upon the constraining power of the love of Christ, and the free untrammeled action of the people.

The politic objection has been raised, that the gifts of the rich will decrease; but this is found not to be the case where the rich give from Christian principle and love for the cause. It is to such givers the earnest Church of the future is to look for her pecuniary support.

Should it be the pleasure of your venerable body to continue this Committee, you are solicited,—

1. To recommend all congregations to remit, either to this Committee or to the respective Boards, monthly, or at least quarterly, for the benefit of the whole work. This recommendation has become a necessity, in order to prevent embarrassment, and to break up the loose habit of retaining in the local church treasury, for use at home until the close of the year, money which had been given for missionary purposes.

2. To place again before the churches a schedule so arranged that gifts may be distributed according to an even percentage. This would prove a convenience in the accounts of churches, and a great saving of labor in the Treasurer's office. Such a schedule, without dictating as to how much shall be given, simply represents the amounts and the proportions which the work of the Church demands, as determined after full conference with the Secretaries of all the Boards.

Finally, the Committee beg leave to express their strong conviction, that the money power of the world is to be rapidly consecrated to the service of the Church, to an extent heretofore unknown; and that, in view of this fact, it becomes the Church to equip herself with the best machinery for the sacred use of her wealth, to fix her eyes upon the promises, and to live for their fulfillment.

All of which is respectfully submitted,

W. S. GILMAN, Chairman.

George De Forest Lord, Secretary.

IV. Report of a Special Committee.

FORMULA OF ADMISSION TO CHURCH MEMBERSHIP.

[Referred to the General Assembly of 1874.—See p. 549.]

The Committee, appointed by the last General Assembly "to consider and report, if necessary, a Form for the Recognition of Members admitted to Church Privileges," would respectfully report, that they have duly attended to the matter with which they were intrusted, with the following result:

It is ascertained by your Committee, that, at present, there exists the greatest diversity in the practice of the Presbyterian churches throughout this country, relative to this matter. In some churches, there is no public recognition whatsoever of new members, beyond the simple announcement of their names as having been received by act of Session. Some churches are reported, as not even announcing to the congregation the names of those admitted to membership. The whole matter is consummated in private by the Session. In the opposite extreme, are those churches in which, after having been received by the Session, new members are expected, and required, to present themselves publicly in the broad aisle, before the congregation, and give their assent to certain Confessions of Faith and Articles of Covenant more or less extended. Between these two extremes, are found all varieties of mode, verging sometimes in the one direction, and sometimes in the other.

The desirableness of uniformity, in this matter, throughout the bounds of the Presbyterian Church, recognizing but one form of Government, and one and the same Directory of Worship, if it can be attained, is too evident to require special pleading. That the diversity of mode, now existing, has long been regarded as unseemly and pernicious, appears from the fact, that the subject has been repeatedly brought to the notice of the General Assembly, by different Overtures, petitioning for legislative action. It has seemed to your Committee, that it is not so much new legislation that is needed, to bring about a happy uniformity in this matter, as a clear statement of certain principles and rules, already incorporated in our Constitution.

Some of these are as follows:

1. Admission to membership and sealing ordinances of the church is by the Act of Session. In whatever manner that act is performed, whether after examination of candidates by the Session before the whole body (a method regarded by many as very exceptionable), or upon the recommendation of the Pastor to the Session, or the joint recommendation of the Pastor and one or more Elders, after private conversation with the candidates, in whatever way the Session may see fit to form and express their judgment in the premises, it is by their act, as "representatives of the congregation," that new members are admitted.

2. This act of Session must be regarded as inchoate till Baptism, as enjoined by our constitution and the New Testament, is administered.

3. That, whatever mode may be adopted, if any, for the recognition of members admitted to sealing ordinances, the clearest distinction should be made between those baptized in infancy, and those baptized on confession of their own faith. (Directory of Worship, Chap. ix.)

4. That, in judging of the fitness of any persons to be admitted to sealing ordinances, the Session should always bear in mind the distinction between what is required of those ordained to teach and rule in the church, and of those received as private members to be taught. (Form of Government, Chap. i. § 5.) The former are reasonably required to give assent to the Confession of Faith, of which they are to be the official exponents and representatives. The latter, as reasonably, are expected to furnish only credible evidence of piety. Nothing seems to your Committee more preposterous, than the practice of demanding of all alike, children of tender years, and persons of uninformed and imbecile minds, who nevertheless furnish amplest evidence of their ability to discern the Lord's body, and their purpose to be his disciples, that they should assent, either in public or in private, to all the nice distinctions of a theological creed. What might exclude one from the pulpit of the Presbyterian Church, ought not to debar the least of Christ's lambs from his table.

5. The Committee would unanimously agree, that the "Confession of Faith" and "Covenants," which are so much in use, for the public admission of members, in some Presbyterian churches, being largely composed oftentimes of things local, occasional, and of "private interpretation," are undesirable; inasmuch, especially as in times of controversial excitement, they may introduce and insist upon terms of membership and communion, which are inconsistent both with our Presbyterian constitution and the Holy Scriptures.

6. Inasmuch as our Constitution enjoins, that, in "ordinary cases," those who have not been baptized should, before the administration of the sacrament, "make a public profession of their faith in the presence of the congregation," it would seem not only to be in correspondence with this requirement and with the usage of other branches of the Christian Church, but as in itself every way right, desirable, and of good effect for edification to all concerned, that the admission of new members should not be consummated altogether in private, but that there should be some form of their recognition, in the presence of that congregation, of which they are afterward to be known as a constituent part. (Directory of Worship, Chap. ix. Sec. iv.)

7. That no church possesses any right to impose burdens or crosses, of its own invention, or create obstacles to deter any from coming to the Lord's table, who are obviously invited by the Master himself. Hence, every thing should be avoided, which is designed for mere scenic effect; and every thing be done, by adhering to the simple, and modest, and reverent forms of the New Testament, to strengthen the weak, help the timid, and cheer the self-distrustful.

Conscious of the extreme difficulty and delicacy of the task assigned to them by the Assembly, in view of all the manifold diversities which now exist, the Committee would humbly suggest the following mode, not as an addition to or amendment of our present Directory, but rather as its proper interpretation, and as such to be recommended, if it shall so please the Assembly, for use in all our churches.

It would seem, that the time most appropriate for the recognition of new members is, when the ordinance of the Lord's Supper is to be administered. If any have been received by the Session on certificate of membership from other churches, let that fact, with the names, be simply announced. Let others, then to be recognized, be requested beforehand, when entering the place of worship, to occupy designated seats in the vicinity of the pulpit. Their names will be severally mentioned as having been received to the full communion of the church by act of Session. The minister will then address them as follows:

FORMULA.

Grace be to you and peace from God our Father and from the Lord Jesus Christ!

This is the word of faith which is preached unto us. If thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved. For with the heart man believeth unto righteousness, and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation.

Hereby assure your hearts before God, when deploring your own unworthiness, that you come at the bidding of Christ, and that you are now to take part in no device of man, but in that very act which was enjoined by our Lord himself, when he said, "This do, in remembrance of me."

* [Some of] you have received Baptism in your infancy, through the connection of your parents with the Christian Church. You have been instructed in the principles of our holy religion, as taught in the Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments. Hoping, humbly and thankfully, that the divine word, through the power of the Holy Spirit, has been made effectual in your minds and hearts, you have expressed your wish to enjoy all the privileges of Christian Communion; and, having been admitted to them by the Session, you now come to confirm, by your voluntary act, that membership in the visible church, which was begun in your behalf through parental faith.

† [Some of] you, having given satisfaction to the Session with respect to your knowledge and piety, are now to make a public profession of your faith in the presence of the congregation, and then to receive the sacrament of Baptism.

Confessing and deploring the sins of your past life, and believing that Jesus Christ is the Son of God, who came into the world for us men and our salvation, who was delivered for our offences, and raised again for our justification, through whom are given unto us exceeding great and precious promises, even the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting—it is your desire now to confess that worthy name, which is above every name, even as he himself has enjoined; and, in token thereof, gratefully to receive that

If no baptized persons are received, omit this whole paragraph.

† If none but unbaptized persons are received, omit the works in brackets.

If only one unbaptized person is received with others baptized, read, "One of you," etc.

ordinance which he instituted when he said,—"baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost."

[Baptism is here to be administered; after which the minister will proceed as follows:]

And now, dearly beloved, let your souls magnify the Lord, and your spirits rejoice in God your Saviour. Count not yourselves to have apprehended, as though you were already perfect, but grow in grace and in the knowledge of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. Yield yourselves unto him who welcomes you as his disciples, henceforth to be taught, fed, and nurtured unto his heavenly kingdom. Live by faith upon the Son of God, who loved us, and gave himself for us. Evermore feed upon the bread which came down from heaven and giveth life unto the world; and drink freely of that water which Christ giveth, which shall be in us a well of water springing up unto everlasting life.

Now unto him that is able to keep you from falling, and to present you faultless before the presence of his glory with exceeding joy, to the only wise God, our Saviour, be glory and majesty, dominion and power, both now and ever. AMEN.

VI. Miscellaneous.

I. COMMISSIONERS' AND CONTINGENT FUNDS.

Special attention is called to the Mileage System, adopted by the General Assembly of 1870, as recorded on pages 59 and 60 of their Minutes, which is as follows:

"The Committee to whom it was referred to consider and report a uniform system of Mileage, whereby full provision may be made for the traveling expenses of the Commissioners to our General Assemblies, and to meet the contingent expenses of each Assembly, respectfully report:

"It is affirmed, Form of Government, Chap. xxii., Section 3, that, 'in order, as far as possible, to procure a respectable and full Delegation to all our judicatories, it is proper that the expenses of ministers and elders, in their attendance on these judicatories, be defrayed by the bodies which they respectively represent.'

"The principle is thus established, that provision should be made for the payment of the traveling expenses of Commissioners to the General Assembly. This provision should be made by the Presbyteries. As far as possible, the feebler Presbyteries should be aided in this matter by the stronger. It appears just and reasonable, and so has been found, by experience, that the estimated contingent expenses of each Assembly, and the traveling expenses of the Commissioners in coming to and returning from the Assembly, should be fully met by the apportionment of the whole amount among the several Presbyteries, according to the number of their communicants respectively.

"It is, therefore, recommended,

"1. That the Standing Committee of Mileage, annually appointed, be instructed to present an estimate of the probable amount that will be needed by the next General Assembly in order to meet their contingent expenses and the traveling expenses of their Commissioners, with a statement of the per capita rate, based on the number of Communicants, that will be needed to secure the amount.

"2. That the Presbyteries, at their Stated Meeting next following the adjournment of the General Assembly, apportion the amount required of their churches, as they deem best.

"3. That the churches be instructed to pay over their respective apportionments at the Stated Meeting of their Presbyteries next preceding the meeting of the General Assembly,—the whole amount due from the Presbytery to be forwarded to the Assembly by their Commissioners.

"4. That, as early as the fifth day of the sessions of the Assembly, the apportionment of each Presbytery be paid in full, and a bill of the necessary traveling expenses of its Commissioners be presented to the Standing Committee on Mileage.

"5. That the Mileage Committee, after appropriating from the whole sum an amount sufficient to meet the estimated contingent expenses of the Assembly, be instructed to audit these bills and pay them, pro rata, if approved, as far as the funds will permit.

"6. That, in order to avail themselves of the proceeds of this fund, the Presbyteries must contribute their full proportion to it according to the per capita rate.

"7. That every minister, and every vacant church contributing to this fund, connected with the Presbyteries thus complying with the provisions of this plan, be entitled to a copy of the Annual Minutes of the General Assembly.

"8. That the Commissioners from Presbyteries in foreign lands receive their necessary traveling expenses, pro rata, from their place of residence in this country."

In accordance with this system, every Presbytery is required to pay in full, to the Mileage Commitee of the next General Assembly, a sum equal to seven cents for every communicant under the care of their churches, as determined by their Statistical Report, herewith printed. This will entitle their Commissioners to a full share in the apportionments for traveling expenses. It is expected that these expenses will be fully met, if the Presbyteries comply with the requirements of the Assembly.

II. THE ANNUAL MINUTES.

The Minutes will be supplied at One Dollar per copy, postage included. A copy will be sent, without charge, to the Stated Clerk of every Presbytery, and of every Synod; also, to every Minister, and to the Session of each contributing Vacant Church (whose address is known), of every Presbytery that has paid its full apportionment to the Mileage Fund of the Assembly; also, to every ordained Missionary in the service of the Board of Foreign Missions.

III. SYNODICAL REPORTS.

A Statistical Report is to be forwarded, to the Assembly, by the Stated Clerk of every Synod; in which are to be stated the number of Presbyteries, ministers, churches, licentiates, and candidates, within their bounds, and how distributed; the changes which may have been made in the number or arrangement of their Presbyteries; the names of the Stated Clerks of the Presbyteries; the place and hour of the next Annual Meeting; and the names of the Moderator and Stated Clerk of the Synod. Such a Report is necessary in order to the correctness of the Tabular Report of the Synods, printed in the Appendix to the Minutes. If not sent to the Assembly, it should be forwarded, without delay, to the Stated Clerk of the Assembly.

IV. PRESBYTERIAL REPORTS.

It is required of every Presbytery to prepare and forward to the General Assembly:

1. A Statistical Report, according to the form exhibited on page 654, of the present Appendix; of which a printed blank will be furnished in due season, by order of the Assembly, to the Stated Clerk of every Presbytery. This Report should, if possible, embrace all the changes in the Presbytery previous to the first day of April.

2. A Narrative of the State of Religion within the bounds of the Presbytery, for the year ending April 1st. These Narratives should specify facts in regard to the particular churches, their state, trials, encouragements, and prospects; how many of them, and which, have enjoyed revivals of religion through the year; in which of them the Catechisms are taught, Sabbath-schools and Bible-classes organized, with the number of scholars and teachers. Also, the various arrangements of the Presbytery for Church extension; stating the number of their ministers, and the particular manner in which they are employed; the number of their churches, and how they are supplied; the number of houses of worship, with their probable value, whether they are free from debt, and what has been done within the year to relieve them from debt; the number of new churches organized, and new houses of worship erected; what itinerant arrangements have been adopted for preaching the gospel; what and how much agency have been employed: together with all such other facts and suggestions as will show, from year to year, what has been accomplished, and what may need to be undertaken, to bring all the churches to a proper degree of effort to promote the kingdom of Christ. As the Narratives are not to be publicly read, less care may be given to their style, and more to the detail of particulars, such as will aid the Committee of the Assembly in preparing their Annual General Narrative of the State of the Church.

V. STATED CLERKS OF PRESBYTERIES.

In preparing the Statistical Report, let the following rules be strictly observed:

(1.) Carefully copy the blank form and order of columns, etc., on page ☞ 654, if a blank has not been received.

(2.) Record Ministers in the order of their ministerial age, with their CHRISTIAN names in full, without abbreviations, and their Address on the same line, in the adjoining column.

(3.) ☞ Place the name of every Church and Mission Chapel opposite the name of its Pastor, or Stated Supply; never, opposite the name of any other minister; if the Church is Vacant, place it at the foot of the roll. ☜

(4.) Place, after the name of every minister, an abbreviation, denoting his occupation; e. g.: P., for a Pastor; P. E., for a Pastor Elect; P. C., for a Pastor of a Congregational Church; C. P., for a Colleague Pastor; S. S., for a Stated Supply; H. M., for a Home Missionary; D. M., for a District Missionary; C. M., for a City Missionary; T. M., for a Tract Missionary; S. M., for a Synodical Missionary; S. S. M., for a Sunday-School Missionary; P. M., for a Presbyterial Missionary; F. M., for a Foreign Missionary; Pres., for the President of a College; Chan., for a Chancellor; Prof., for a Professor of a College or Theological Seminary; Prin., for the Principal of an Academy, etc.; Sec., for a Secretary, and D. Sec., for a District Secretary, of a benevolent Institution; Ag., for an Agent of do.; Ch., for a Chaplain; Tea., for a Teacher; Ed., for an Editor; Ev., for an Evangelist; H. R., for a Minister honorably retired; Col., for a Colporteur; Com., for a Commissioner; and Supt., for a Superintendent.

(5.) Place after the name of every Church the abbreviations, P., for one that has a Pastor; P. E., for one that has a Pastor Elect; S. S., for one that has a Stated Supply; or V., for one that is Vacant.

(6.) If a church fail to report, let the "whole number" of communicants be given as reported to the Synod, or to the last Assembly, with an asterisk (*) in the column of communicants, denoting the fact.

(7.) In the additions to the Church, distinguish between those on examination and those on certificate; in the baptisms, between the adults and the infants; and be careful to observe the order of the columns in which these particulars are recorded.

(8.) In the report of "Funds" contributed observe the order of columns, and the directions of the Assembly of 1871 (p. 589) as modified by the Assembly of 1873, as follows:

1. Home Missions. To include all moneys collected for the purpose, whether for the Board, or for any Home Missionary operation, including Mission schools, carried on in connection with the Presbyterian Church. 2. Foreign Missions. To include all contributions for the spread of the gospel in foreign lands. 3. Education. To include all that is given for the education of Candidates for the Ministry, whether to the Board or otherwise; for Theological Seminaries, Presbyterian Colleges, Academies, and Parochial Schools. 4. Publication. To include all moneys contributed to the Board, and for Synodical and Presbyterial Depositaries, and Colportage. 5. Church Erection. To include all contributions for Church Erection, outside of the congregation, whether through the Board, or otherwise. 6. Relief

Fund. To include all moneys contributed for the support of disabled Ministers, and to aid the families of deceased Ministers. 7. Freedmen. To include all moneys contributed to the evangelization and education of Freedmen, whether through the Board, or otherwise. 8. General Assembly. To include all given for Assembly expenses. 9. Sustentation. 10. Congregational. To include all moneys contributed for the congregation, the salary of the minister, the support of the parish Sunday-schools, the relief of the poor of the congregation, building and repairing churches, liquidation of debts, and current expenses. 11. Miscellaneous. To include all other collections for Bible and Tract Societies, etc., and for general benevolence.

Be sure to omit the fractions of the dollar, except in the General Assembly column.

(9.) The names of the Licentiates are to be recorded immediately after the list of Ministers, in the same column, with their Address in the next column; but, of the Candidates—including all who are studying for the ministry under the care of the Churches of the Presbytery—the number only is to be given.

(11.) Annex a Statement, of the number of licensures, ordinations, installations, dissolutions of pastoral relations, organizations, reception and dissolution of Churches; also, any changes in the names of Churches; and the decease (with age, date, and place) of Ministers since the last Annual Report.

(13.) Affix no extraneous matter, such as memoranda, explanations, or orders for the delivery of the printed Minutes of the Assembly; let these be given on a separate sheet.

☞ If any thing should prevent the forwarding of the Statistical Report in time for the meeting of the General Assembly, let it be sent, as soon as possible—not later than June 1st—by mail, to the Stated Clerk of the General Assembly, No. 149 West Thirty-fourth street, New-York City.

VI. STANDING ORDERS.

1. The General Assembly meets invariably on the third Thursday of May, annually, at 11 o'clock A.M.

2. The credentials of Commissioners and Delegates are to be presented at a previous hour of the same day, or of the preceding day, according to public notice, to the Stated and Permanent Clerks, acting as a Standing Committee on Commissions.

3. The Lord's Supper is to be celebrated by the Assembly on the evening of Thursday, the first day of their sessions.

4. The evening of Friday, the second day of the sessions, is assigned to a popular meeting in behalf of the Sabbath-school interest of the Church.

5. The evening of the first Tuesday of the sessions is appropriated to the consideration of the Home Mission Work of the Church.

6. The evening of the first Wednesday of the sessions is appropriated, in like manner, to the Foreign Mission Work of the Church.

7. The evening of the second Thursday of the sessions is assigned for the reception of Delegates from Corresponding Bodies.

ON

Home Missions

OF THE

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.

The Board of Home Missions present their Annual Report to the General Assembly, with profound gratitude to God for his favor during the year past, and for the part they have had in a work which is so manifestly owned and blest of him; for harmony in the counsels of the Board, and the entire agreement in all the measures adopted to promote the prosperity of the work. We cannot but hope that its acts will also meet the approval of all those most deeply interested therein, namely: the Presbyteries, the Missionaries, and the General Assembly itself. With so wide a field passing under the inspection of the Board, having to do with so large a number of persons, many of whom are entire strangers to us, doing business almost wholly by correspondence, it would not be surprising if there should be misapprehensions at times which would lead to mistakes and to heart-burnings. The danger of such things was the greater, from the recent union of two bodies that had been strangers to each other for many years, and with somewhat different modes of thought and action; but so far as the Home Missionary work is concerned, and we have no reason to suppose it is not so in every branch of church work, the union seems most happy and complete. Separate churches, representing the two bodies in the same place, have shown such a tendency to unite and make one strong church, that many think the movement has in some cases gone too far; consolidating in one
